COVERING THE CARDS

Game Day

▲Credential Requests

Members of the news media who have not been issued season press credentials should request single-game credentials in writing on appropriate letterhead at least seven days in advance of the desired game. Mail or FAX requests to Paul Jensen, Director of Public Relations, P.O. Box 888, Phoenix, AZ 85001. All credentials are issued to individuals. They are not transferable!

(Public Relations FAX: 602/379-1821)

▲Credential Delivery

All credentials will be mailed if time allows. Otherwise, they may be be claimed at the Cardinals' public relations office at the team's training facility in south Tempe, Ariz. during normal working hours or with proper identification at the "will call" window located in the south end of Sun Devil Stadium (Fifth Street). "Will call" opens three hours prior to kickoff.

▲Media Stadium Entrance

The media entrance to Sun Devil Stadium is located on the southwest corner above the TV pad parking for press already holding their credentials.

▲Photographers

Sideline photography in the National Football League is limited to working media on specific assignment for a recognized sports publication or news service. No free-lance photographers will be accommodated. No one except network television and authorized game personnel will be admitted to the field without a camera. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and behind the broken lines that surround the entire perimeter of the playing field.

▲Telephones

The Cardinals provide numerous telephone extensions from the Arizona State University telephone system throughout the press box at Sun Devil Stadium. Media outlets desiring dedicated lines should place orders by contacting U.S. West Communications, 602/630-6155 for lines, and AT&T, 1-800/555-8111, for instruments.

▲Locker Room Access/Post-Game Interviews

Members of the media wishing to conduct post-game interviews in the home and visiting locker rooms will be given access to players and coaches after the suggested "cooling off" period following the conclusion of the game. Access is available only to individuals holding working credentials as well as a locker room pass which is distributed in the press box early in the fourth quarter.

▲Locker Room Locations

Both locker rooms are located in a separate building outside the north end of Sun Devil Stadium. The Phoenix dressing room is the first room on the right; the visitors' dressing room is at the end of the hallway. Phoenix Head Coach Joe Bugel conducts his post-game interview in a separate interview room directly across the hall from the Cardinals' locker room. The visiting head coach is available in proximity to his locker room.

▲Press Box-Locker Room Routing

To reach the locker rooms from the press box, media must take the elevator to the main concourse level. There is no way to walk to ground level from the press box. Emerging from the elevator at ground level, proceed north (left) along the stadium concourse. Walk to field level through the stands. Members of the media will be permitted to view the conclusion of the game from inside the field fence at the corner of the northwest end zone. They will be allowed to proceed to the dressing rooms after the game participants have exited the playing field.

▲Parking

There are 183 parking spaces in the Cardinals' press parking lot located just southwest of Sun Devil Stadium along the railroad tracks. Auxiliary parking for the media is located in the ASU parking garage just south of the stadium on Fifth Street.

▲FAX Service

Media needing FAX service should contact a member of the Cardinal public relations staff prior to the game to fill out a simple form outlining their needs. A $10 fee is charged if the FAXing entails a long-distance phone call.

During The Week

▲General Protocol

For the Cardinals' public relations office to better serve the media's needs, all members of the print and electronic press are asked to stop in the public relations office upon arrival at the training facility. All photographers must notify the public relations office of their presence prior to gaining access to the practice field.

▲Player Interviews

During the regular-season work week, Cardinal players typically are available to the media in the locker room over their lunch period. Although subject to change, the basic routine makes the players available to the media as follows ...

Monday, Friday ..... Noon-1 p.m.
Wednesday, Thursday ..... 1-2 p.m.

There usually is no media access to players on Tuesdays, their off day. Additional interview access also is available outside after the daily workouts and during pre-arranged appointments made through the public relations department.

▲Head Coach Joe Bugel Interviews

Phoenix Head Coach Joe Bugel is available to the media as he leaves the practice field following each day's workout. On Tuesdays, the players' off day, Bugel conducts his interview session at approximately noon in the media work room in the public relations office at the Cardinals' practice facility.

▲Assistant Coaches, Staff Interviews

Interviews with Cardinal assistant coaches and other members of the organization should be arranged through the public relations office.

▲Opponent Coach/Player Interviews

The head coach and a player from the Cardinals' upcoming opponent are interviewed via conference call midweek, usually Wednesday. Contact the Cardinals' public relations office each week to verify times.

BILL BIDWILL

President

William V. Bidwill's association with the Cardinals, a relationship that began as a child ball boy on Chicago's south side and continues today as owner and president, marks its 49th year.

The 62-year-old Chicago native presides over the oldest continuous professional football franchise dating to 1898 and, along with the Chicago Bears, one of two charter members of the National Football League (1920).

The Cardinals have remained in the Bidwill family since William's father, Charles, a prominent Chicago sports figure and member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, purchased the team in 1932. Charles ran the club until his death in the Cardinals' NFL championship year of 1947. His wife, Violet, guided the franchise's fortunes for the next 15 years followed jointly by their two sons, William and Charles, Jr. (Stormy). William became sole owner in 1972.

Named a Cardinal vice president during his undergraduate days at Georgetown University, William Bidwill returned to Chicago from the Navy in 1956 to begin assisting family interests that included football. When the Cardinals moved to St. Louis in 1960, Bidwill returned to the organization on a full-time basis.

Bidwill remains involved in all areas of the day-to-day Cardinal operation. The Cardinals' award-winning training complex in south Tempe, Arizona, which has housed the organization since September, 1990, is the latest major project he has overseen.

Also an active supporter of various civic and charitable organizations and endeavors, Bidwill directed the formation of Cardinal Charities, the team's organization dedicated to supporting worthy Arizona causes, shortly after the Cardinals arrived in the state.

Bidwill has served on many league committees in the past. He was a pivotal voice in Arizona's successful bid for Super Bowl XXVII in 1993, and later, a compromise that has reserved the league's showcase game for the Valley of the Sun in 1996 (Super Bowl XXX) instead.

Bidwill and his wife, Nancy, are the parents of five children: Sons William, Jr., Michael, Patrick, and Timothy, and daughter Nicole.

LARRY WILSON

V.P./General Manager

Larry Wilson, regarded as one of the greatest defensive backs in NFL history, continues his NFL career that spans 34 years as head of the Cardinals' football operations.

A Hall of Fame defensive back for the Cardinals during their first 13 seasons in St. Louis and one of only four players in franchise history to have his jersey retired, the 55-year-old Wilson's NFL career began with 13 seasons (1960-72) as a player and has continued with a variety of administrative posts.

Wilson started his climb up the team's organizational ladder as director of professional scouting (1973-76) and director of professional personnel (1977-88) for the next 16 years. He also guided the team as interim head coach for the final three games of the 1979 season, earning credit for victories over the San Francisco 49ers and New York Giants.

During the Cardinals' inaugural season in Phoenix in 1988, Wilson was appointed vice president and general manager to guide the franchise's football fortunes as it entered a new era in Arizona. Since, Wilson has hired a new head coach (Joe Bugel) and director of college scouting (Bob Ackles), played an active role in planning the Cardinals' state-of-the-art training complex, taken a more prominent role in the team's draft decision making, and implemented the team's aggressive approach to free agency.

As a player, Wilson reached legendary status as a hard-hitting six-time all-pro and eight-time Pro Bowl free safety, appearing in 169 NFL games—all as a Cardinal—from 1960–72. His name is referenced throughout the Cardinal record book. He still owns club records for career interceptions (52), career interception yardage (800), career interception returns for touchdowns (5), and single-game interception return yardage (115). His 96-yard interception return for a touchdown against Cleveland on Dec. 19, 1965 remains the longest in Cardinal history and his 91-yard intereception for a touchdown the following year against Philadelphia still ranks third on the same list. He led the Cardinals in interceptions six times and intercepted three passes in a single game twice.

In 1966, he enjoyed one of his finest seasons with an NFL-leading 10 interceptions, including three in one game against the Chicago Bears on Oct. 31, while tying a league record by intercepting a pass in seven consecutive games.

Wilson also holds the Cardinal record for longest fumble return, an 88-yard jaunt for a touchdown at Green Bay on Dec. 21, 1969. It was one of two career fumbles he returned for touchdowns and one of 12 career fumbles he recovered, the latter ranking fifth in that category in Card annals.

Wilson was accorded professional football's ultimate honor in January of 1978 when he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Born in Rigby, Idaho, Wilson was drafted as a running back out of the University of Utah in the seventh round in 1960. After converting to the defensive backfield due to injuries, Wilson and coach Chuck Drulis innovated one of today's most potent and exciting aspects of defensive football—the safety blitz.

Wilson and his wife, Nancy, reside in Scottsdale, Arizona.

JOE RHEIN

Executive Vice President

Cardinal Executive Vice President Joe Rhein has proven Thomas Wolfe wrong. You can go home again. And he has.

The team's publicity director in St. Louis from 1972-76 and its assistant publicist in 1971, Rhein returned to the Cardinals in August of 1989 to serve as the administrative counterpart to Vice President and General Manager Larry Wilson after a 12-year hiatus at the National Football League office in New York.

Rhein's first year in Arizona was hectic. He played an instrumental role in the NFL's original award of Super Bowl XXVII to Arizona as a board of directors member of the Phoenix '93 Committee, the organization which shaped Arizona's presentation to NFL owners, and in the later compromise that eventually secured Super Bowl XXX for Arizona in 1996.

Rhein has been a guiding voice in the formation of Cardinal Charities, and as its vice president, plays an active role in awarding the foundation's grants. He also played a major role in the development of the team's training complex in south Tempe, Arizona which opened in September of 1990.

Elected to the board of directors of the Phoenix Chamber of Commerce in 1991, he also is a member of the "Phoenix Pride" committee formed by Phoenix Mayor Paul Johnson in 1990 to promote the Valley of the Sun and Arizona, and the Governor's Council on Health, Physical Fitness, and Sports.

The 46-year-old Rhein joined the NFL in 1977 as assistant to the president of the National Football Conference, a position he held until serving as the league's director of administration from 1983-89. In the latter capacity, Rhein coordinated the activities of the league office departments and was involved in the supervision of the NFL's international efforts, particularly the American Bowl series. He supervised the first three American Bowls in London (1986-88) and the first American Bowl in Tokyo (1989).

Additionally, Rhein served as secretary of the NFL Charities foundation and was involved in preparation of the league playing schedule and coordination of the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl Game from 1977-89.

Rhein began his career as assistant sports information director at Oklahoma State from 1969-71 following his 1969 graduation from the University of Missouri in journalism.

A native of Belleville, Illinois, Rhein and his wife, Barbara, reside in Scottsdale, Arizona with daughters Rachel and Jessica.

ERIK WIDMARK

Director of Pro Personnel

Erik Widmark, 45, enters his sixth season as the Cardinals' director of pro personnel following his promotion from assistant in September, 1988 when Larry Wilson was named vice president and general manager.

Widmark's role in the organization has included various administrative aspects of the football operation. During his five years with the Cardinals, he has spearheaded one of the NFL's most successful Plan B approaches, served as training camp coordinator, and negotiated the contracts of Plan B and other veteran and rookie free agents. Two years ago he added the responsibility of signing the team's draft choices in addition to an expanded role in the Cardinals' scouting decisions.

In the Cardinals' acclaimed 1993 NFL Draft, his input and strategy proved invaluable as two first-round trades by Phoenix landed running back Garrison Hearst and tackle Ernest Dye. Widmark also played a key role as the "point man" in the club's aggressive off-season signing of free agents John Booty, Steve Beuerlein, Gary Clark, and Chuck Cecil.

For the past three seasons, Widmark worked with the tight ends as his administrative duties allowed, but with the advent of the NFL's new labor agreement and free agency, and the accompanying additional workload, he will now focus his efforts solely on football operations.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Widmark spent five seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1983–88 as a scout, chief scout, director of pro personnel, and special assistant to the head coach.

Widmark joined the professional ranks following an extensive collegiate coaching career as an assistant at Cal Western (now U.S. International), the University of San Diego, Cal Poly-Pomona, Pasadena City College, and the University of Oregon. He also served as head coach at Pasadena in 1979.

As offensive coordinator at Pasadena in 1978, the squad finished 11–1 and won the final Junior Rose Bowl by downing Jones County of Mississippi 38–9. As head coach the following year, Widmark's team posted an 8–3 mark and captured the school's second consecutive Potato Bowl, emblematic of the junior college championship in California.

A former wide receiver, Widmark played collegiately at Cal Western where he earned a bachelor's degree in physical education and a master's degree in education. He played for two seasons with the San Diego Chargers before two knee operations ended his playing career.

A racquetball and water skiing enthusiast, Widmark, a native of Iowa, was raised in Scottsdale, Arizona where he attended Arcadia High School. He and his wife, Cinda, reside in Phoenix with daughters Jessica (14) and Erika (11), and son Dallas (13).

BOB ACKLES

Director of College Scouting ▲ ▲ ▲ ▲ ▲ ▲

In the span of less than one calendar year, Bob Ackles reorganized and fine-tuned the Cardinals' college scouting efforts, and this past spring spearheaded the Cards' 1993 NFL Draft that has received rave reviews.

The daring Phoenix displayed in trading up twice in the first round in order to insure landing Georgia running back Garrison Hearst and South Carolina offensive tackle Ernest Dye has meshed nicely with a similar aggressiveness in signing free agents John Booty, Steve Beuerlein, Chuck Cecil, and Gary Clark to give the club a welcome influx of new talent for the 1993 season.

Named the club's director of college scouting on July 8, 1992, Ackles also provides assistance with contract negotiations.

Ackles, 54, joined the Dallas Cowboys as the club's first director of pro personnel in 1986 and was promoted to the position of director of player personnel in 1989 where he helped lay the foundation for the Cowboys' dramatic resurgence over the past three years. Following seasons of 3–13 in 1988 and 1–15 in '89, Ackles was instrumental in the club's active efforts to acquire talent through several trades, waiver acquisitions, and Plan B free agency that provided an infusion of top draft picks and players. The efforts were rewarded by the Cowboys' playoff appearance following an 11–5 regular season in 1991 and culminated with a Super Bowl championship last season.

Prior to his tenure in Dallas, Ackles spent 11 years as general manager of the Canadian Football League's (C.F.L.) British Columbia Lions where he became recognized as one of the C.F.L.'s top administrators. Under his leadership, the Lions became one of the C.F.L.'s winningest teams, moved into a new stadium, and built a training facility. In 1985, the Lions won the Grey Cup, emblematic of the C.F.L. championship.

Ackles joined the Lions in 1954, their first year of operation, as a 16-year-old water boy. Over the next 32 years, Ackles performed virtually every administrative duty in the organization. After working his way through Vancouver College as the Lions' equipment manager, he became assistant general manager before being elevated to general manager in 1975.

A native Canadian, Ackles was born in Sarnia, Ontario near the United States border. Raised in Toronto and Vancouver, British Columbia, he played organized hockey for 12 years. He and his wife, Kay, who reside in Phoenix, have two sons—Steve (31) and Scott (28) and three grandchildren.

JOE BUGEL

Head Coach

Upbeat Joe Bugel, 53, enters his fourth season as head coach of the Phoenix Cardinals.

Known and respected around the National Football League for his professionalism, work ethic, and people skills, Bugel remains, above all, a tough guy, a man whose roots in rough-and-tumble, football-mad western Pennsylvania indelibly molded his psyche.

Early Influences

It started with Nick Kliskey, his first coach at Munhall High School in Pittsburgh.

"He's one of the toughest guys I've ever been around," Bugel fondly reflects. "Everything was brute force and discipline. He left one lasting impression on me: If you are going to play football, you'd better be tough. You were either going to be tough or you would be run out of town."

Bugel's prep teammates nicknamed him Deacon after a local tough guy whom Bugel idolized. "He was a street fighter. A brawler. He was a tough, tough guy. He never lost," Bugel explains.

It continued as an undersized, overachieving offensive guard who arrived at Western Kentucky University as a walk-on and departed with a scholarship.

It continues today.

"We are expected to be tough," he offers. "We play in the NFC East!"

Roots

Bugel was born March 10, 1940 in Pittsburgh. Athletics consumed his formative years. At age 12, he was the catcher on a Pittsburgh youth baseball team that reached the Little League World Series final before losing to Redlands, Calif. He excelled in football (fullback and linebacker), basketball (he once scored 47 points in a game), baseball (catcher), and volleyball (setter) in high school.

But western Pennsylvania is football crazy so it came as no surprise that the gridiron captured the future coach's fancy.

Although Bugel was one of three children (older sister Elaine and younger brother Tom, a three-year starting linebacker at Ohio State) of a family that owned an electroplating company, he served his time in the steel mills. He took a job in the mills after graduating from high school. Two weeks later, he knew that wasn't the life for him.

At the end of five years at Western, Bugel, a two-way star (offensive guard and linebacker), was a four-year starter who had led the Hilltoppers to a 27–0 Tangerine Bowl victory against the Otto Graham-coached Coast Guard Academy which still rates as "one of the greatest thrills of my career" according to Bugel. He was all-Ohio Valley Conference (OVC) in 1963. He was elected team captain by his sophomore year.

Bugel was hired by Western in 1964 as a graduate assistant coach on a staff that also included another future NFL head coach, Atlanta's colorful Jerry Glanville. As assistants—Bugel the offensive coordinator, Glanville the defensive coordinator—the two shared a makeshift office under the stands of the school's basketball bleachers and a tiny log cabin with no heat and one bed. At night after flipping a coin to see who slept in the bed, the two would map their futures on the back of pizza boxes. Bugel and Glanville later reunited in 1976 on the Detroit Lions' staff.

Bugel had escaped the steel-mill life.

Hog Call

Prior to joining the Cardinals in 1989 to accept his first head-coaching position, teams employing the 15-year NFL assistant posted a 144-82 record (.637 winning percentage), including 13 winning seasons and eight playoff appearances. Besides two Super Bowl rings, Bugel participated in six conference championship games and 21 playoff tilts.

Those were the tangibles that attracted Cardinal Vice President and General Manager Larry Wilson to hire Bugel. The intangibles—the "Hogs"—convinced Wilson.

Nothing symbolizes the emotional loyalty Bugel always has evoked from those around him more than those two words: "The Hogs!"

"The Hogs" were Bugel's fabled offensive linemen in Washington. It's a name he unknowingly coined himself in practice in 1982 by yelling, "Let's go, Hogs." When the linemen took to the label, Bugel ordered t-shirts that had to be worn once a week. The moniker went public and then national as the Redskins continued to win.

"The Hogs" became NFL chic and an autumn obsession in the nation's capital.

But it goes further. "The Hogs" were a bonding. Bugel was not just their coach, he was a Hog, too. He made them believe they were as important to winning as the more highly-publicized positions.

"We grew together," Bugel says. "We had nine glorious years together. Those guys are responsible for me being where I am today."

Coaching Ladder

En route to the NFL, Bugel left Western Kentucky to make coaching stops at three other colleges—Navy (1969-72), Iowa State (1973), and Ohio State (1974).

He broke into the professional ranks as offensive line coach for the Detroit Lions from 1975–76, followed by a four-year stop in Houston as offensive line coach from 1977–80. During his stay, the Oilers set club rushing and passing records in 1980 and led the NFL in fewest quarterback sacks in 1978.

His nine memorable years on Head Coach Joe Gibbs' staff in Washington began in 1981–82 as offensive coordinator and ended as assistant head coach-offense from 1983–89. Four Redskins offensive linemen—"Hogs"—earned Pro Bowl honors under Bugel's tutelage—Jeff Bostic, Joe Jacoby, Russ Grimm, and Mark May. A total of nine Redskins were voted to the offensive Pro Bowl squad a combined total of 20 times during his stay.

During Bugel's Washington tenure, the Redskins won two Super Bowls (XVII in 1983 and XXII in 1988) and reached the playoffs five times in nine years, accumulating a glittering 11–3 (.786) post-season record, three Super Bowl appearances, three NFC championships, and four division titles.

The Washington offense also evolved from a highly respected rushing attack to a pass-oriented style. The 1983 Redskin offense scored an NFL-record 541 points. The team boasted four 1,000-yard rushers (George Rogers from 1985–86, John Riggins from 1983–84), one 4,000-yard passer (Jay Schroeder, 1986), and nine 1,000-yard pass receivers (Gary Clark, 1986–87, '89; Art Monk, 1984–86, '89; Ricky Sanders, 1988; Charlie Brown, 1983) during Bugel's association with the high-powered offense. Additionally, Monk led the league in pass receiving in 1984 with an NFL single-season record of 106 receptions. Brown (78 receptions) led the NFC in pass receiving in 1983 while quarterback Joe Theismann (2,033 yards) led the NFC in passing in 1982.

Personal

Bugel's years at Western Kentucky not only pointed him toward a coaching career, it also formed the foundation for his personal life.

Besides earning a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1963 and a master's degree in guidance and counseling in 1964 from the Bowling Green, Kentucky school, Bugel met an employee in Western's sports information office named Brenda Sage, a Tennessee native. Bugel, then an assistant coach, invited her on a date to a basketball game. Three months later they eloped.

Now 24 years later, they have three daughters: Angie (23), Holly (20), and Jennifer (16). They reside in Paradise Valley, Arizona.

Joe Bugel brings enthusiasm, intensity, and a steel-mill work ethic to the Phoenix Cardinals.

JERRY RHOME

Offensive Coordinator ▲ ▲ ▲ ▲ ▲ ▲ ▲ ▲

Jerry Rhome, a former NFL quarterback who spent five seasons (1983–87) on the Washington Redskins' coaching staff with Phoenix Head Coach Joe Bugel, is the Cardinals' fourth-year offensive coordinator.

Rhome made his mark quickly in 1990 as the Cardinal offense showed steady improvement from the previous season. Five hundred fifty-one additional rushing yards that averaged nearly an extra yard per rushing attempt, 12 fewer pass interceptions, and 13 less quarterback sacks for 94 fewer yards lost were just some of the visible signs of improvement. The balance of the attack also improved, finishing with a 60 percent/40 percent pass/run ratio compared to 70 percent/30 percent in 1989. The progress continued last year as the Cards scored 243 points, 47 more than 1991, and their 31:02 time-of-possession average was the team's best since 1988 (31:27).

Rhome, 51, is credited with the rapid development of numerous young quarterbacks throughout his coaching career, among them two-time Pro Bowler and 1993 Super Bowl most valuable player Troy Aikman when Rhome spent 1989 as quarterbacks coach for the Dallas Cowboys.

During five seasons in Washington, Rhome coached veteran signal callers Joe Theismann and Doug Williams while also overseeing the development of young quarterbacks Mark Rypien and Jay Schroeder. Rhome helped guide a Redskin offense that finished in the NFL's top 10 four of his five seasons and qualified for two Super Bowls with two quarterbacks (Theismann and Williams). Rypien, the youngest of his proteges at that time, led Washington to the Super Bowl title in 1992 as the title game most valuable player.

Rhome's two other NFL coaching stops were San Diego as offensive coordinator in 1988 and Seattle as both quarterbacks/receivers coach (1976–77) and offensive coordinator (1978–82) for the expansion Seahawks. During his stay, Rhome nurtured his reputation for development of young quarterbacks with free agents Jim Zorn and Dave Krieg.

In 1963, the NFL Dallas Cowboys and American Football League N.Y. Jets drafted Rhome to gain his professional rights prior to the senior season of his record-setting career at Tulsa. Rhome eventually played four seasons for the Cowboys (1965–68) as a back-up quarterback before concluding his playing career with Cleveland (1969), Houston (1970), and the L.A. Rams (1971–72).

The Heisman Trophy runner-up and Walter Camp Trophy recipient in 1964, Rhome began his collegiate playing career at Southern Methodist (1960–61) before transferring to Tulsa where he set 17 NCAA passing records. He returned to his alma mater to break into the coaching ranks from 1973–75 following his playing career.

Rhome also earns credit for the early development of former Tulsa and Seattle Seahawk wide receiver Steve Largent, the NFL's all-time leading pass receiver. As quarterbacks and receivers coach and offensive coordinator at Tulsa for three years and later at Seattle, Rhome tutored Largent during the early stages of his record-shattering career.

Rhome, a Dallas native, and his wife, Sharon, have three children—daughters Shannon (23), and Nicole (20) and son Brett (13).

FRITZ SHURMUR

Defensive Coordinator

Innovative Fritz Shurmur, the Cardinals' defensive coordinator, enters his third season on the Phoenix staff after overseeing noteworthy defensive accomplishments in 1991 and 1992.

The 61-year-old coaching veteran enters his 19th season in the NFL after stints with the L.A. Rams (nine seasons), New England (four campaigns), and Detroit (three years) in addition to the past two seasons with the Cardinals.

Under his tutelage two seasons ago, the new-look defensive unit featured seven new starters. The improvement was obvious. In comparison to the previous season, the Phoenix defenders allowed 52 fewer points, 164 fewer total yards, 182 fewer yards rushing, and only 18 more yards passing despite defensing 45 more enemy aerial attempts. The unit yielded two touchdowns or less nine times and scored three touchdowns on turnovers. Cardinal opponents completed only 16 passes of 25 yards or more (none in six contests, including the last two outings) with the longest completion 43 yards.

The Cardinals shared the league low with Buffalo, Denver, and New Orleans by allowing only 12 touchdown passes, a total that matched the 1971 club for third all-time in team annals but the fewest in a 16-game season. Phoenix opponents averaged just 11.5 yards per pass completion which ranked fourth in the NFC and 10th in the league.

Shurmur's "11 men to the football" zone concept also produced 37 opponent fumbles, the third highest total in franchise history, while the Cardinals' 21 fumble recoveries ranked second in the NFC and third in the league.

Last year, Shurmur's penchant for innovation again paid dividends for Phoenix with a "Big Nickel" scheme that featured four down linemen, two linebackers, and five defensive backs. The alignment fueled a defensive resurgence that limited foes to 67.5 yards rushing per game over the final six outings and the fifth-rated rush defense in the conference. The unit also posted the club's fewest points allowed, 332, since 1978 (296), cut the opponents' rushing touchdown total in half from a year earlier (27–13), and allowed just 101 first downs rushing and 281 overall, the former the best effort in club history over a 16-game schedule and lowest total since 1977 (96 in 14 games); the latter the best mark over a 16-game season and lowest total since 1977 (258 in 14 games).

Shurmur joined the Cardinals following nine seasons improvising with the Rams' successful defense. The Wyandotte, Michigan native arrived in L.A. as the Rams' defensive line coach for the strike-shortened 1982 season. Named the team's defensive coordinator the next season, the Rams went from 27th to 15th in total defense. In 1984, L.A. climbed to 14th overall and third against the run.

Nineteen eighty-five and '86 began to produce dividends as the Rams led the NFL with 56 quarterback sacks in '85 and finished fifth in total defense both seasons, leading the squad to two playoff appearances. Following the strike of 1987, Shurmur's 1988 Ram defenders ranked ninth overall and again recorded a league-high 56 quarterback sacks.

However, it was Shurmur's injury-depleted defensive unit of 1989 that turned heads

Shurmur was forced to improvise, utilizing linebackers as down linemen and compensating for the absence of two regular inside linebackers until the season's 10th game. The unit allowed only three running backs to gain 100 yards, finished fifth in the NFC with 42 sacks, and led the Rams to two post-season victories.

L.A. reached post-season play six times during Shurmur's nine-year tenure.

Shurmur broke into the NFL with the Lions in 1975 as defensive line coach while another assistant, Joe Bugel, tutored Detroit's offensive linemen. Shurmur was named the Lions' defensive coordinator in 1977. Four campaigns in New England, the first two as defensive line coach, the last two as defensive coordinator, followed. Shurmur's 1979 Patriot defenders led the NFL with 57 sacks.

Shurmur's coaching career began as a graduate student in 1954 at his alma mater, Albion (Mich.) College, where he served as assistant football coach and swimming coach through 1961 before moving to the University of Wyoming as an assistant football coach. He was the Cowboys' defensive line coach from 1962–70 before being named head coach in 1971. As Wyoming's defensive coach, Shurmur's teams led the nation in rushing defense twice and once in total defense. During his stay in Laramie, the Cowboys paced the Western Athletic Conference in defense in 1963 and '65–69.

He has authored two books: Coaching Team Defense and The Five Linebacker Eagle Defense.

Born July 15, 1932, Shurmur attended Roosevelt High School in his native Wyandotte. At Albion, he was named all-Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association as a center and earned the conference most valuable player award, too. He also was named to the all-conference baseball team. He graduated with a master's degree in education administration in 1956.

Shurmur and his wife, Peggy Jane, reside in Tempe. They have three children: Sally Ann Michalov (36), Scott (34), and Susie (30). Sally Ann, an award-winning sports reporter for the Casper Star-Tribune, was named the 1990 Wyoming sportswriter-of-the-year.

TED COTTRELL

Defensive Line

Ted Cottrell, who helped mold Buffalo's defensive line into one of the NFL's strongest units as the Bills' defensive line coach for four seasons (1986–89), coaches the same position for the Cardinals for the fourth consecutive year.

Over the last two seasons in Phoenix, his tutelage has seen 1991 first-round draft pick Eric Swann develop into one of the top young defensive linemen in the league, and '92 free agent Keith Rucker ascend to a starting role. As key members of the club's "Big Nickel" defensive scheme, the pair helped fuel a defensive resurgence last year that limited opponents to 67.5 yards rushing per game over the final six outings.

Bills' nose tackle Fred Smerlas (1988) and defensive end Bruce Smith (1987–89) earned trips to the Pro Bowl and the '88 Bill defense ranked first in the AFC during Cottrell's Buffalo tenure.

Cottrell received his first taste of professional coaching as linebacker coach for Head Coach Marv Levy in Kansas City (1981–82) followed by two seasons (1984–85) as defensive line coach for the USFL New Jersey Generals. He rejoined Levy with the Bills in 1986.

A native of Chester, Pa., Cottrell, 45, entered the coaching ranks at Rutgers from 1973-80 as defensive line coach (1973–79) and defensive coordinator (1980). In 1976, Rutgers led the nation in total defense, rushing defense, and scoring defense, and finished unbeaten with a no. 17 national ranking. Cottrell returned to Rutgers as defensive coordinator for the 1983 season following his stay in Kansas City.

Chosen in the seventh round of the 1969 draft by Atlanta, Cottrell played two seasons as a linebacker with the Falcons (1970–71) and completed his playing career in the CFL with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1972).

Cottrell, who also attended Rutgers, graduated from Delaware Valley College in Doylestown, Penn. He and his wife, Barbara, have one son, Theodore (11).

BOBBY JACKSON

Running Backs

Bobby Jackson, a 10-year veteran of the NFL coaching fraternity, enters his second season with the Cardinals charged with the task of handling the club's young corps of running backs, led by 1993 draft picks Garrison Hearst (first round) and Ron Moore (fourth round). Jackson faces an interesting challenge, however, as the youthful but talented group averages less than two years of NFL playing experience and a combined total of only 19 pro starting assignments.

Jackson, 53, joined Phoenix after serving five years as offensive backs coach for the San Diego Chargers (1987–91). Prior to his tenure in San Diego, Jackson coached the Atlanta Falcons' linebackers (1983–85) and H-backs and tight ends (1986).

Jackson's college coaching career, which spanned 18 years, began at Florida State where he tutored linebackers and defensive ends (1965–69). He then served as running backs coach (1970–72) and linebackers coach and defensive coordinator (1973–74) at Kansas State and defensive coordinator at Louisville for two seasons (1975–76). He spent the next six seasons at Tennessee, the first three (1977–79) as running backs coach, the final three (1980–82) as linebackers coach and defensive coordinator.

Jackson first played collegiately at South Georgia J.C. in Douglas, Ga. before ending his playing career as a two-time little all-America running back at Howard College (now Samford University) in Birmingham, Alabama. He was coached by current Florida State head coach Bobby Bowden at both schools.

Born February 16, 1940 in Forsyth, Ga., Jackson graduated from Howard with a degree in physical education in 1963 and later earned a master's degree at George Peabody College (now part of Vanderbilt University) in Nashville, Tennessee.

Jackson and his wife, Nancy, have two sons—Jeff (26) and Ken (24).

JIM JOHNSON

Defensive Backs

Jim Johnson, the Cardinals' defensive line coach from 1986–89, enters his fourth season as defensive secondary coach.

Johnson's 1990 return to the secondary after coaching Cardinal defensive linemen was productive as his defensive backs ranked fourth in the National Football Conference in pass defense.

The Cardinals shared the league low in 1991 with Buffalo, Denver, and New Orleans by allowing only 12 touchdown passes, a total that matched the 1971 club for third all-time in team annals but the fewest in a 16-game season. Phoenix opponents averaged just 11.5 yards per completion which ranked fourth in the NFC and 10th in the league.

Last year, strong safety Tim McDonald was voted a starter in the Pro Bowl, while cornerback Robert Massey also played in the post-season contest following an impressive campaign with five interceptions, including three returns for touchdowns to set a club single-season record.

Though free agency saw McDonald depart for San Francisco, Johnson acquired another Pro Bowler when Green Bay free safety Chuck Cecil signed with the Cardinals.

Johnson, a 26-year coaching veteran at the professional and collegiate levels, began his professional coaching career with one-year stints at Jacksonville (1985) and Oklahoma (1984) in the United States Football League following seven years on the Notre Dame coaching staff.

He joined the Fighting Irish as secondary coach in 1977 when the school claimed the national championship. In 1981 under Head Coach Gerry Faust, Johnson was promoted to defensive coordinator and then to assistant head coach in 1983. In 1980, his defenders ranked fifth nationally in scoring defense while his 1982 and 1983 units finished 10th and 14th, respectively, in NCAA total defense.

He launched his coaching career at Joplin (Mo.) High School in 1965. After two seasons at Joplin, Johnson was named head coach at Missouri Southern College in 1967. He later served four-year college tenures at Drake (1969–72) and Indiana (1973–76) as defensive coordinator and linebacker coach, respectively.

In all, Johnson coached in six bowl games—1971 Pecan, 1972 Pioneer, 1977 and '78 Cotton, 1980 Sugar, and 1982 Liberty.

An all-Big Eight quarterback and team most valuable player at Missouri in 1962, Johnson played in three post-season games—the 1960 Orange Bowl, and the Bluebonnet Bowl and East-West Shrine Game in 1962. He was named the Bluebonnet Bowl's most valuable player.

Following his college days, Johnson played two seasons with the Buffalo Bills from 1963–64.

Born May 26, 1941 in Maywood, Ill., Johnson earned a bachelor's degree in education and a master's degree in physical education at Missouri.

He and his wife, Vicky, have two children, Scott (29) and Michelle (26).

JOHN MATSKO

Offensive Line

John Matsko enters his second year in the professional coaching ranks as the Cardinals' offensive line coach.

Under Head Coach Joe Bugel's overall direction, Matsko's unit allowed just 36 quarterback sacks last year, the best protection accorded Card signal-callers since 1978 (22 sacks). This year, his group includes two of the top (and Largest) offensive linemen in the 1993 NFL Draft—first-round pick Ernest Dye and second-round selection Ben Coleman.

While an assistant at North Carolina (1978-84), Matsko first caught Bugel's eye as a visiting coach at the Washington Redskins' summer training camps during Bugel's tenure as a Redskin assistant coach.

Matsko, 42, joined Head Coach Larry Smith's USC staff in 1987 after serving one year (1986) as Smith's offensive line coach at the University of Arizona. In 1989, Matsko added the additional duty of offensive coordinator and helped guide the Trojan offense to a first-place ranking in the Pac-10 Conference and eighth nationally.

Matsko received his first taste of coaching as a student assistant at his alma mater, Kent State (1973), and as a graduate assistant at Miami, O. for two seasons (1974–75). After a one-year stint (1976) as head coach at Danbury High School in Lakeside-Marblehead, Ohio, Matsko was named offensive line coach at Miami, O. in 1977. His seven seasons at North Carolina as the Tar Heels' offensive coordinator and offensive line coach followed before one year at the Naval Academy (1985).

During his tenure in Chapel Hill, the Tar Heels won eight or more games six times, played in five bowl games, set 104 school offensive records, and produced nine 1,000-yard rushers that included NFL great Kelvin Bryant. Five of Matsko's UNC linemen earned all-America honors; eight played in the NFL. At USC, he honed the skills of two former NFL first-round draft picks—Pat Harlow (New England, 1991) and Dave Cadigan (N.Y. Jets, 1988).

A fullback at Kent State under current University of Washington Head Coach Don James, Matsko earned a bachelor's degree in business education from Kent State in 1973 and a master's degree from Miami, O. in 1976.

Born February 2, 1951, Matsko and his wife, Kim, have four children—Marie (17), John (15), Lizzi (13), and Michael (9).

LeCHARLS McDANIEL

Wide Receivers

Former San Diego Chargers' assistant LeCharls McDaniel begins his first season as receivers coach with the Cardinals. A four-year NFL veteran defensive back with the Washington Redskins (1981–82) and the N.Y. Giants (1983–84), McDaniel is reunited in Phoenix with Cardinal Head Coach Joe Bugel, who served as an assistant for the Redskins from 1981–89. McDaniel's duties will include working with the wide receivers and assisting in the passing game.

McDaniel, 34, served as a special teams assistant with the Chargers for three seasons (1989–91) and coached the defensive secondary and special teams last year at his alma mater, Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo.

During his NFL playing days, McDaniel appeared in 14 games during the 1981–82 seasons as a reserve defensive back with the Washington Redskins and was a member of the Redskins' 1982 Super Bowl championship team. He finished his playing career with the N.Y. Giants from 1983–84.

McDaniel entered the coaching fraternity in 1986 at Hartnell Junior College in Salinas, California, spending three seasons while working on his master's degree in physical education administration at St. Mary's College before joining the Chargers.

Born Oct. 15, 1958 in Fort Bragg, N.C., McDaniel attended Seaside High School (Calif.), then played four seasons at Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo where he captained the school's 1980 NCAA Division II national championship team.

McDaniel and his wife, Sheryl, reside in Tempe, Ariz. with their children, Michael (4) and Michelle (3).

MIKE MURPHY

Inside Linebackers and Quality Control

Mike Murphy begins his fourth campaign with the Cardinals and his third season focusing on the club's inside linebackers.

Murphy joined Phoenix as a defensive assistant and quality control coach in 1990.

A member of the Detroit Lions' coaching staff from 1985–89 under head coaches Darryl Rogers and Wayne Fontes, Murphy moved to inside linebackers coach in 1991 with the arrival of new defensive coordinator Fritz Shurmur.

Murphy, 48, an offensive assistant and linebackers coach for the Lions, brings a 26-year coaching resume to his new duties.

Following his playing days as a guard and linebacker at Huron (S.D.) College, the New York City native began his coaching career in 1966 in Woonsocket, S.D. and later in the Colorado high school ranks in Boulder and Denver.

He moved into the collegiate arena as defensive line coach at the University of Vermont from 1970–73, and defensive line coach at Idaho State in 1974 where he advanced to defensive coordinator by 1976. The following year he became linebackers coach at Western Illinois, then moved into the professional ranks as defensive coordinator for the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Canadian Football League in 1979. He later spent one season as defensive line coach for the Chicago Blitz of the United States Football League in 1984.

Murphy has two children—son Sam (22) and daughter Sarah (18).

JOE PASCALE

Outside Linebackers

Eight-year Cardinal defensive assistant Joe Pascale, 47, turns his attention once again to the Phoenix outside linebackers in 1993 where he will continue to fine tune the tandem of Ken Harvey and Freddie Joe Nunn, who have combined for 76 and one-half quarterback sacks over the past five seasons (Harvey–38, Nunn–38.5).

A veteran of 25 years of coaching, Pascale joined the Cardinals in 1986 after serving as defensive backs coach for the United States Football League's New Jersey Generals from 1984–85.

Prior to his USFL tenure, Pascale held assistant positions in the Canadian Football League. He served two seasons with the Ottawa Rough Riders, handling the defensive line in 1982 and quarterbacks and receivers in 1983. Previously, he was employed by the Montreal Alouettes, working as defensive line coach and player personnel director in 1980, then promoted to defensive coordinator in 1981 when he also assumed the defensive line and special teams duties.

Pascale entered the coaching field in 1967 as a graduate assistant at the University of Connecticut where he starred as an all-East linebacker as a senior. After two seasons as an assistant coach for UConn's freshmen team, Pascale moved to the University of Rhode Island in 1970. He coached four years at Rhode Island, overseeing the linebackers for one season and serving as defensive coordinator and secondary coach from 1971–73.

Pascale accepted a job at Idaho State with similar coordinator responsibilities in 1974 and was then appointed the Bengals' head coach in 1976. He moved to Princeton in 1977, spending one season as linebacker coach and two campaigns as defensive coordinator and secondary coach.

Pascale has spent 22 years as a defensive coach. During his tenure with the Generals, the team advanced to the USFL playoffs both years with records of 14–4 in 1984 and 11–7 in 1985. Pascale came to the Cardinals after being associated with playoff teams in each of his previous six seasons in professional football.

A native of New York City, he earned bachelor's and master's degrees in education at Connecticut and completed an advanced graduate curriculum in education administration at UConn as well.

Born April 17, 1946, Pascale and his wife, Lucille, have a 16-year-old son, Joseph.

TED PLUMB

Tight Ends/H-Backs

Ted Plumb, a 19-year NFL coaching veteran, this year will focus his attention to the tight ends and H-backs after spending three seasons (1990–92) as the Cardinals' receivers coach.

Plumb's receiving corps has posted noteworthy numbers in each of the past three seasons, and the arsenal is additionally fortified for 1993 with the free agency signing of Washington Redskin Pro Bowler Gary Clark.

In 1992, wide receivers Ricky Proehl (60) and Randal Hill (58) were joined by running back Larry Centers (50) to become the first Cardinal trio to each grab 50 or more passes in the same season since 1984 (Roy Green-78, Ottis Anderson-70, and Pat Tilley-52).

Under Plumb's watchful eye, Proehl has caught 171 passes during his three-year career to lead all members of the 1990 NFL Draft class that includes Philadelphia's Fred Barnett (165) and New York Jet Rob Moore (164).

In 1991, Plumb's triumvirate of Ernie Jones (61), Proehl (55), and Hill (43) combined for 159 receptions, the third highest total by the Cardinals' top three wide receivers in franchise history.

In 1990, Proehl, Jones, and Green became only the third trio of Cardinal receivers to each catch over 40 passes in the same season. Proehl, a consensus all-rookie selection, blossomed quickly under Plumb's watchful eye to become the first rookie to lead the team in receiving in 40 years (Bob Shaw in 1950).

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Plumb served Philadelphia as assistant head coach-offense from 1986–89 during the Eagles' rise to the playoffs and the development of Pro Bowl quarterback Randall Cunningham. Plumb spent the previous six seasons in Chicago as receivers coach for the Bears, including the 1985 Super Bowl championship season.

Plumb, 53, broke into the professional ranks as offensive backfield coach for the New York Giants in 1974 before moving to Atlanta as quarterbacks and receivers coach for the Falcons from 1977–79.

A native of Reno, Nevada, Plumb was raised in northern California and played for the Buffalo Bills in 1962 following a successful collegiate career at Baylor as a wide receiver. He began his coaching career in the Texas prep ranks at Raymond High School (1963–64) and Lubbock High School (1965) before moving to Cerritos (Calif.) Junior College from 1966–67.

Three seasons (1968–70) at Texas Christian as receivers/tight ends coach, one (1971) at Tulsa and two (1972–73) at Kansas in the same role followed before his initial NFL job with the Giants in 1974.

Plumb and his wife, Marianna, have three children—sons Loyal (31) and John (30) and daughter Molly (24).

PETE RODRIGUEZ

Special Teams

Former University of Arizona graduate assistant coach Pete Rodriguez, a 27-year coaching veteran at the high school, college, and professional levels who spent the 1988–89 seasons as special teams coach of the Los Angeles Raiders, will coach the same position for the Phoenix Cardinals for the fourth consecutive season.

Last year, Rodriguez was named the NFL's special teams coach-of-the-year by a vote of his peers, and received the largest majority vote in the four-year history of the award. Under his tutelage, punter Rich Camarillo earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl appearance, and third in the last four seasons, as he led the league in net punting average (39.6 yards) for the second straight campaign.

Additionally, return specialist Johnny Bailey led the NFL in punt return average (13.2 yards) en route to his first Pro Bowl trip.

The Phoenix coverage units also have excelled, ranking second in either the conference or league each of the last three seasons.

In Rodriguez's first season with the Raiders, his prize pupil, Tim Brown, led the NFL in kickoff returns and earned a Pro Bowl berth. The following season, 1989, the Raiders ranked third in the league in both kickoff and punt coverage.

A Chicago native, Rodriguez spent the 1968–69 seasons at Arizona coaching linebackers under head coaches Darrell Mudra and Bob Weber following his collegiate playing career as a offensive guard and linebacker at Western State College in Colorado and two years as a high school head coach in Colorado.

He later served as defensive coordinator at Western Illinois (1970–73), Florida State (1974–75), and Iowa State (1976–78) before a four-year stint as head coach at Western Illinois from 1979–82. During his three seasons at Iowa State, the Cyclones enjoyed the school's greatest run of success, winning eight games each season, a span that included two consecutive victories over Nebraska.

Rodriguez, 52, broke into professional football in 1983–84 as defensive line coach for the USFL Michigan Panthers. While headed for the USFL's inaugural-season championship in 1983, the Panthers, paced by the defensive line, registered 76 quarterback sacks. Rodriguez spent the 1985 season as defensive line coach for the USFL's Denver Gold, and after the Gold merged with the Jacksonville Bulls following the season, Rodriguez made stops as defensive coordinator at Northern Iowa in 1986 and the Canadian Football League's Ottawa Rough Riders in 1987.

Born July 25, 1940, Rodriguez has two daughters—Regina (29) and Marla (27). The latter, a former assistant sports information director at Marshall University and public relations assistant with the Ohio Glory of the World League, currently is the associate sports information director at Temple University.

Rodriguez and his wife, Kaye, reside in Phoenix.

BOB ROGUCKI

Strength and Conditioning ▲▲▲▲▲▲▲▲

Bob Rogucki (row-GUS-key), strength and conditioning coach at West Point from 1983–89, begins his fourth year in the same capacity for the Cardinals.

Since joining the Cardinals, Rogucki has developed the weight room at the team's new training facility that includes a wide range of equipment from bars and dumbbells to machines while implementing a strength and conditioning program that trains the total body. Rogucki's philosophy is to gear a training regimen specific to the game of football, involving training in a high-intensity mode that builds both muscular strength and endurance. The philosophy involves five body parts primary to the sport—neck, hips, legs, midsection, and torso—and focuses on developing the overall fitness of the athlete, including flexibility, cardio-respiratory fitness, muscular strength and endurance, recovery, and nutrition.

Rogucki, 40, also worked as an assistant for the Washington Redskins during their summer training camps at Dickinson College in Carlisle, Pennsylvania for seven years.

Rogucki joined the staff at West Point after similar posts at Weber State (1982) and as an assistant at Penn State (1981).

A native of Rosemont, West Virginia, he was an offensive lineman and linebacker as a high school and college athlete. He graduated from Glenville State College in his home state in 1975 before coaching football, basketball, and baseball on the high school level before accepting his first college coaching position at Penn State in 1981.

The author of several articles on strength and conditioning and a frequent speaker at clinics and public engagements, Rogucki and his wife, Mary, have two children—son Charlie (13) and daughter Katie (9).

STEVE LONEY

Offensive Assistant

As part of the Cardinals' coaching internship program, former Colorado State assistant Steve Loney has joined the Phoenix staff this year as an offensive assistant to work with John Matsko on the offensive line.

Loney, 41, owns a coaching resume that spans 19 years, most recently as assistant head coach at Colorado State under Head Coach Earle Bruce the past four seasons.

Loney entered the coaching ranks in 1974 as wide receivers coach at his alma mater, Iowa State. His next stop was offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Missouri Western State from 1975–76, then as head coach at Leavenworth (Kan.) High School.

In 1979, he was appointed offensive coordinator at Morehead (Ky.) State, and two seasons later earned a promotion to the school's head coach position for three campaigns (1981–83). Loney then accepted a position as offensive line coach and special teams coordinator at The Citadel in 1984 and eventually was promoted to assistant head coach.

Following two years as an assistant at Kings (O.) High School (1987–88), Loney received a call from Bruce to join the staff at Colorado State where he worked with the tackles and tight ends in addition to his duties as assistant head coach and recruiting coordinator. During his tenure with Bruce, the Rams improved from a 5–5–1 mark in 1989 to 9–4 in 1990, climaxed by a dramatic victory over Oregon in the Freedom Bowl, the school's first post-season appearance in 42 years.

A native of Marshalltown, Iowa, Loney attended Marshalltown High School and graduated from Iowa State, where he was an offensive guard and linebacker and played in the 1971 Sun Bowl and 1972 Liberty Bowl. He was awarded an undergraduate degree in political science, economics and physical education, then added a master's degree in secondary school administration at Iowa State.

Born April 26, 1952, Loney and his wife, Terri, have a son, Matt (16), and two daughters, Katie (14) and Kylan (11).

BILL BIDWILL, JR.

Scout

Bill Bidwill, Jr., who, like his father, Bill Bidwill, grew up actively participating in many phases of the club's football operation, begins his eighth season as a member of the scouting staff.

Born in St. Louis, Bidwill followed his father's lead by attending Georgetown University in Washington, D.C., majoring in finance, and earning a bachelor's degree in business administration in 1985. He also played four years of rugby for Georgetown during his undergraduate days.

Bidwill joined the team's scouting staff in 1985. In 1988, he engineered the department's conversion to a computerized scouting information data bank. The club's scouting staff now sports "notebook" computers and floppy disks instead of volumes of binders and handwritten reports.

Bidwill and his wife, Nicole, reside in Tempe, Arizona with their daughters, Josephine (4) and Samantha (2), and newborn son William, V. Bidwill III (July 13, 1993).

BO BOLINGER

Scout

Bo Bolinger, a 22-year member of the Cardinals' organization, has been primarily responsible for collegiate scouting in the far West.

Prior to joining the Cardinals in 1971, Bolinger coached on the collegiate level for 11 years and spent two seasons as offensive line coach with the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Oklahoma in 1956 following his playing days with the Sooners. After a stop on the high school level, Bolinger coached the offensive and defensive lines at the University of Denver from 1958–60. He accepted the defensive coordinator's post at Tulsa the following season, handling that role for two years.

In 1963, he moved to New Mexico as offensive and defensive coordinator. After five years with the Lobos, Bolinger spent one season (1968) as offensive coordinator at Utah State before joining the CFL.

As a player at Oklahoma, Bolinger earned all-America recognition in 1955 and twice was named an all-Big Eight Conference guard.

The 60-year-old Bolinger and his wife, Barbara, have three daughters and five grandchildren and live in Tempe, Arizona.

HARRY GILMER

Scout

Harry Gilmer, a 27-year veteran of NFL coaching, begins his 10th season as a Cardinal scout.

Gilmer began his coaching and scouting career with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1957. After four years with Pittsburgh, he joined the Minnesota Vikings in a similar capacity.

In 1965, he was named head coach of the Detroit Lions, a position he held for two seasons, before arriving in St. Louis in 1967 for the first of two tenures as the Cardinals' quarterbacks coach.

Beginning in 1970, he tutored the signal-callers in Atlanta for five campaigns only to return to St. Louis in 1975 for an eight-year stint as quarterbacks coach.

An all-America quarterback at the University of Alabama, Gilmer was the first player chosen in the 1948 NFL Draft by Washington. He earned all-pro honors in 1950 and '52 before retiring as a player after the 1956 season.

Earlier this year, he was one of seven former players selected for induction into the College Football Hall of Fame, a ceremony that will take place in December in New York City.

Gilmer and his wife, Katherine, reside in O'Fallon, Missouri. They have a son, three daughters, and seven grandchildren.

CARL HAIRSTON

Scout

Carl Hairston, better known to NFL fans as "Big Daddy," begins the third year of his administrative career on the Cardinals' scouting staff after retiring as a player following the 1990 season.

During his first two years in the Phoenix front office, Hairston scouted college games and professional contests in the Canadian and World leagues.

The owner of 1,141 career tackles and 94 quarterback sacks, Hairston appeared in 234 NFL games (184 starts) and 15 playoff games over 15 seasons.

Hairston, 40, joined Phoenix for the 1990 season after six campaigns with Cleveland (1984–89) and seven with Philadelphia (1976–83). With three starting assignments in 16 contests, he contributed 15 tackles and one quarterback sack in his only season as a Cardinal.

At one time in 1990 the NFL's oldest defensive player and the third oldest player overall to the Jets' Pat Leahy (39) and the Chiefs' Mike Webster (38). Hairston was a mainstay of Cleveland's defense for six seasons. He was drafted by Philadelphia in 1976 (seventh round) and became an eight-year starter for the Eagles until his 1984 trade to Cleveland. In Philadelphia, Hairston surpassed 100 tackles five consecutive years (1977–81) and was the Eagles' defensive captain his last five seasons. In Cleveland, Hairston played in 92 games (75 starts), collecting 40 or more tackles in five of his six seasons with the Browns.

Hairston holds a bachelor's degree in physical education from Maryland-Eastern Shore and lives in Phoenix. He and his wife, Robin, are the parents of son, Carl Jr., and daughter, Crystal.

JERRY HARDAWAY

Scout

Jerry Hardaway, who has coached extensively at the college and high school levels, begins his sixth season on the Cardinals' scouting staff.

The 41-year-old Hardaway coached running backs and the defensive secondary during a three-year tenure at the University of California (1984–86) where he also coordinated the Golden Bears' film exchange program and was utilized in national recruiting efforts.

Prior to joining the Cal staff, Hardaway spent six seasons (1978–83) under legendary Head Coach Eddie Robinson as running backs and special teams coach at Grambling State. During Hardaway's stay, the Tigers registered a 49–14–4 record with four conference championships.

Hardaway began his collegiate coaching career at Memphis State where he tutored tight ends, offensive tackles, and special teams from 1975–77.

He also coached on the high school level, serving as head coach of Bolton H.S. in Memphis-Arlington, Tenn. in 1974 and head coach and athletic director at his alma mater, Salesian Prep in Richmond, Calif., prior to joining the Cards.

As a player, Hardaway lettered as a fullback and tight end at Southern Illinois University where he was named co-captain in 1973.

Hardaway graduated from S.I.U. with a degree in speech education in 1974 and earned a master's degree in sports administration from Grambling State in 1979. He and his wife, Lisa, have a son, Jason (6), and a daughter, Jheri (4). They reside in Cary, N.C.

RALPH HAWKINS

Scout

Ralph Hawkins, a 22-year veteran of the NFL coaching ranks, begins his third season with the Cardinals as an area scout.

A native of Washington, D.C., Hawkins broke into the NFL coaching ranks with Buffalo from 1969–71 before joining Head Coach George Allen's staff at Washington from 1972–77. After spending the 1978 season with the Baltimore Colts, Hawkins was named defensive coordinator with the N.Y. Giants from 1979–81, then spent eight seasons as secondary coach for Head Coach Chuck Knox in Buffalo (1981–82) and Seattle (1983–88).

Most recently, Hawkins was Head Coach Joe Walton's defensive coordinator for the N.Y. Jets in 1989. In all, he's been associated with nine playoff teams: Washington (1972–74, '76,) Buffalo (1981), and Seattle (1983–84, '87–88).

Hawkins coached two of the NFL's premier safeties in Hall of Famer Kenny Houston (Washington) and former Seattle all-pro Kenny Easley. His 1984 Seahawk defense returned seven interceptions for touchdowns (second to the league mark of nine by San Diego in 1961) while the unit established the single-game mark with four thefts returned for scores versus Kansas City on November 4, 1984.

A quarterback, running back, and defensive back at the University of Maryland from 1954–56, Hawkins first tasted the coaching profession at Bishop O'Connell High School (Arlington, Va.) in 1958. After serving one season as a graduate assistant at Maryland in 1959, he spent brief stints on the coaching staffs at Southern Methodist (1961), Kentucky (1962–65), West Point (1966), Maryland (1967) and the University of Cincinnati (1968).

Born May 4, 1935, Hawkins and his wife, Carol Ann, have three daughters: Mary Kathleen Keeley (25), Kristin (23) and Karianne (22). They reside in Bethany Beach, Delaware.

BILL JOBKO

Scout

Bill Jobko begins his fifth season on the Cardinals' scouting staff following a 23-year playing, coaching, and administrative career with the Atlanta Falcons' organization.

The 57-year-old Jobko served the Falcons as a scout for 10 years, as linebackers coach in 1968, and as director of pro personnel from 1978 through the 1988 season. His nine-year Atlanta playing career was highlighted by his notoriety as the Falcons' defensive captain during the team's inaugural season in 1966.

The former NFL linebacker also played for the Rams (1958–62) and Vikings (1963–65).

A standout linebacker and offensive guard as a collegian at Ohio State, Jobko played on Buckeye teams that won three Big Ten Conference championships, two Rose Bowls (1955, '58), and two national championships (1954, '57). He was named the most valuable player of the Buckeyes' 1957 national titlist.

Jobko and his wife, Julie, have five children and six granddaughters. They reside in Lilburn, Ga.

JOHN OMOHUNDRO

Head Trainer

John Omohundro begins his 27th season with the Cardinals. He enters his 23rd campaign as the team's head trainer.

Following high school graduation, Omohundro was named head trainer at the College of Southern Utah in 1961. The following year, he enrolled at the University of Wyoming where he remained until joining the Cardinals in 1967.

He served as the Cardinals' assistant trainer for four seasons from 1967–70 before his promotion to head trainer in 1971.

A native of Salt Lake City, Omohundro, his wife, Martha, and their two sons, John (19) and Jim (17), and daughter Neely (12) reside in Tempe, Arizona.

JIM SHEARER

Assistant Trainer

Jim "The Machine" Shearer enters his 20th year with the Cardinals, assisting in all aspects of the training and medical areas.

A graduate of the University of Wyoming with a degree in physical education, Shearer worked in Gillette, Wyoming as the city's assistant recreation director and head trainer at Gillette High School before returning to Wyoming as a graduate assistant trainer in 1973–74. He joined the Cardinals in 1974.

Born in Worland, Wyoming, Shearer and his wife, Nelma, have a son, Christopher (14), and a daughter, Sarah (10). They reside in Tempe, Arizona.

JEFF HERNDON

Assistant Trainer

Now in his eighth season on John Omohundro's Cardinal training staff, Jeff Herndon earned a master's degree in physical education from Syracuse University in 1985 after completing his undergraduate work at the University of Missouri.

A native of Boone County, Missouri, the 32-year-old Herndon first worked with the Cardinals during the 1984 and '85 preseason training camps. He followed that initiation as athletic trainer at Tascosa High School in Amarillo, Texas from 1985–86 before rejoining the Cardinals in 1986.

Herndon and his wife, Gail, reside in Gilbert, Arizona with their newborn daughter, Elsabeth Marie (June 23, 1993).

MARK AHLEMEIER

Equipment Manager

Mark Ahlemeier enters his seventh season as the Cardinals' equipment manager after succeeding long-time (21 years) equipment manager Bill Simmons in April, 1987 following six years as the club's assistant equipment manager.

Ahlemeier, 34, was born in St. Charles, Mo. and raised in nearby Woodson Terrace. He attended Ritenour High School and Florissant Valley College in St. Louis.

Ahlemeier and his wife, Patti, have two children—daughter Mandy (6) and son Mark (2).

They reside in Tempe, Arizona.

STEVE CHRISTENSEN

Assistant Equipment Manager

Steve enters his sixth year as the Cardinals' assistant equipment manager, assisting department head Mark Ahlemeier in all phases of the team's logistical and equipment preparations.

Born in St. Cloud, Minnesota, Christensen attended Bozeman (Mont.) High School before enrolling at New Mexico State University and later Western Montana College to study art education.

After working at both schools as a student equipment manager, the 34-year-old Christensen was appointed to the equipment staff at Arizona State University as an assistant in 1982. He joined the Cardinals in June of 1988 shortly after the team's arrival in Arizona.

An avid racquetball player and runner, Christensen ran in the 1984 Phoenix Marathon. He and his wife, Lauri, reside in Chandler, Arizona with their daughter, Kelsey (1).

BENNY GREENBERG

Video Director

Benny Greenberg begins his 28th year of affiliation with the Cardinals in 1993 as the team's video director.

A St. Louis native who spent his entire life in the Gateway City before the Cardinals' move to Arizona in 1988, Greenberg, 67, owned and operated photography stores until eight years ago in addition to his film and video duties with the Cardinals that include videotaping games and all practices.

He also worked as a cameraman for St. Louis television stations, positions he held concurrently with part-time work with the Cardinals that began in 1966. He joined the Cards on a full-time basis in 1970.

Greenberg, who studied mechanical engineering at Washington University in St. Louis for three years in the 1940s, and his wife, Bebe, reside in Scottsdale, Arizona. They have two sons—Mark (41) and Berry (39)—and two grandchildren.

Punter ▲▲▲▲▲▲▲▲▲▲▲▲▲▲▲▲ 16

5–11 ▲ 200 ▲ Thirteenth Year
Washington ▲ Free Agent, 1989

Check It Out ▲▲▲

▲Team most valuable player as prep shortstop and pitcher and later attended Cerritos (Calif.) College to play baseball, but football coaches convinced him to pursue football as a punter after watching him kick after baseball practice.

▲Voted to the University of Washington all-century team.

▲Sixty-two-yard punt in 1986 Super Bowl was a Super Bowl record since surpassed by Cincinnati's Lee Johnson (1988) by one yard.

▲His uncle Leo, involved in pro rodeo circuit, was named cowboy-of-the-year in 1977.

▲Pro Career: The NFL's no. 4 active punter with 42.8-yard career average … Camarillo ranks 12th on the all-time list and needs to add only two-tenths of a yard to his average to crack the top 10 … experienced a rags to riches NFL career, not once, but twice … former free agent from Washington who travelled to Pro Bowl with New England in 1983, then again as Cardinal in 1989, 1991 and 1992 after again rising from free agent status … led NFL with 43.9-yard punting average in 1989, topped NFC with 37.4-yard net mark in 1990, then led the entire NFL with net punting figures of 38.9 yards in 1991 and 39.6 yards last year for two consecutive Pro Bowl berths… enjoyed 44.6 gross and 37.1 net marks in 1983 Pro Bowl season with New England … all-rookie pick in 1981. ▲1992: Led NFL for second straight year with career-best 39.6-yard net average, coming within a whisker of becoming first punter in modern-day league history to average 40 yards in that category ... ranked seventh in league with 42.9-yard gross mark ... enjoyed amazing success in field-position battle as 38 of his 54 punts forced opponents to start drive behind own 30-yard line ... ranked second in NFL with 23 kicks marked inside the 20-yard line ... thirteen of those 23 boots were put into play inside the 10-yard line, eight at the five-yard line ... opponent's 141 return yards (22 returns) and subsequent yield of just 6.4 yards per punt return ranked second in league ... saw only two of 54 punts credited as touchbacks ... earned numerous post-season honors, including NFL Alumni Punter-of-the-Year, Golden Toe Award (top kicker in NFL) from Pro Football Weekly, all-NFL (Pro Football Writers Association, AP, NEA,) and all-NFC (UPI) ... inactive for season opener at Tampa Bay (Sept. 6) with leg muscle pull as kicker Greg Davis answered the bell with 41.8-yard average on four kicks ... boomed four punts for 47.5-yard gross and 43.3 net marks vs. Washington (Oct. 4) and also called upon for kickoff duty after Davis suffered pulled hamstring in pre-game warm-ups ... misfired on only point after touchdown try, prompting Davis, who had already showered and changed clothes, to suit back up and convert three extra points in 27–24 victory ... Camarillo handled all five kickoffs as Redskins managed just 18.6 yards per return ... it marked first time since junior college (Cerritos J.C. in Calif.) that Camarillo kicked from placement ... cranked out 49.6-yard average on five punts and impressive 46.8-yard net mark with three inside the 20-yard line efforts vs. New Orleans (Oct. 18) ... crunched three punts for 46.0-yard gross and 45.3-yard net marks in 24–14 win over San Francisco (Nov. 1), the second kick rolling out of bounds at the three-yard line with 5:11 left in game ... nailed three punts for 52.7-yard average, fifth-best single-game effort in team history, with 46.6-yard net mark vs. San Diego (Dec. 6) ... spotted three of four punts inside the 20 at Indianapolis (Dec. 20), including a 46-yarder and 53-yarder that rolled out of bounds at the three and one-yard lines, respectively ... punted once for 46 yards in Pro Bowl. ▲1991: Posted single-season career bests in both gross (45.3 yards) and net (38.9 yards) punting average categories ... the 45.3-yard gross average is second-best in Cardinal record book, trailing only Jerry Norton's 45.6-yard mark in 1960 ... also dropped 19 punts inside the 20-yard line ... since week four, his last 53 punts were returned for just 198 yards, or 3.7 yards per return ... averaged over 45 yards per kick in nine games with a net mark of 40 yards or better eight times ... opened season with first fumble recovery of career in 24–14 win at L.A. Rams (Sept. 1) ... enjoyed perhaps his finest day as a professional in 16–10 victory over Atlanta (Oct. 20), averaging career-best 53.2 yards on five boots for third-highest single-game average in team history ... three of those punts travelled over 50 yards, including a 59-yarder, while a fourth rolled out of bounds at the Falcons' eight-yard line ... of the five punts, three resulted in "inside-the-20" efforts, while the five were returned a total of only 16 yards by Atlanta standout Deion Sanders, giving Camarillo a 46-yard net average for the afternoon ... punted season-high eight times for 46.1 gross and 42.6 net average vs. Minnesota (Oct. 27) ... suffered first blocked punt as Cardinal at Dallas (Nov. 3) ... rebounded the next week with impressive 48.5-yard gross mark and 44.3-yard net vs. N.Y. Giants (Oct. 10) with season-long 60-yarder ... despite a first punt of only 37 yards, still managed 46.4-yard average on five punts at San Francisco (Nov. 17), then achieved season-best 47-yard net figure vs. Philadelphia (Nov. 24) ... well-placed effort vs. Washington (Dec. 8) helped limit Redskins' talented return specialist Brian Mitchell to just 14 yards on five returns, including one fumble that Cards converted to touchdown ... finished season with 45.7-yard average vs. New Orleans. ▲1990: Enjoyed second straight fine season with NFC-leading 37.4-yard net mark and 42.8-yard gross figure (third in conference) ... major reason for Phoenix finishing as NFC's top punt coverage team, allowing opponents just 6.3 yards per return ... accorded second-team all-NFL notice by UPI ... opened season with eye-popping 49-yard average vs. Washington (Sept. 9) ... punted just four times in 23–21 win in Philadelphia (Sept. 16) and dropped two inside-the 20-yard line, then boomed four more punts for 46.3-yard mark vs. New Orleans (Sept. 23) and six for 43.8-yard average vs. Redskins (Sept. 30) ... enjoyed outstanding back-to-back games with 45.7-yard mark on six punts vs. N.Y. Giants (Oct. 21), then five for season-best 50.8-yard average (42.8-yard

net) at Miami (Nov. 4) along with season-long of 63 yards ... after his first punt sailed 52 yards, he endured nightmarish inclement weather conditions at Buffalo (Nov. 11) when 45 mile-per-hour gusts limited his next three punts to a combined 46 total yards ... two consecutive fourth-quarter punts went just 12 yards each and his season average dropped a full two yards per kick after the game ... rebounded for 48-yard average the following week vs. Green Bay (Nov. 18), then posted 45-yard mark on two punts in 34–14 win over New England (Nov. 25), including 43-yard net average ... kicked for 44.7-yard gross and 40.2-yard net figures in 20–17 victory over Indianapolis (Dec. 2) ... called upon for season-high seven punts and responded with 45.1-yard average and 42.4-yard net vs. Dallas (Dec. 16) ... finished fine season with 39.3-yard net figure in finale vs. Philadelphia (Dec. 29). ▲1989: Pleasant surprise as he rose from free agent status to earn his second Pro Bowl trip ... finished season with 43.4-yard average on 76 punts with 21 inside the 20-yard line ... named by Associated Press to second team all-NFL squad and by UPI to similar honor for NFC ... in addition to leading the league in punting average, his 37.5-yard net mark ranked second to N.Y. Giants' Sean Landeta (37.8) ... opened season in fine form with misleading 40.8-yard average, booming a 54-yarder, then forcing two Detroit fair catches on its own 10 and nine-yard lines in 16–13 victory (Sept. 10) ... called upon just once in 34–24 win over Seattle (Sept. 17) but forced fair catch inside 20-yard line ... posted 46.3-yard average on four punts in wind-swirled Giants Stadium (Sept. 24), then dropped three inside the 20 vs. Washington (Oct. 8) ... forced the dangerous Deion Sanders into two fair catches in 34–20 win over Atlanta (Oct. 22), then credited with 46.3-yard average vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 5) and 42.3-yard gross with 39.7-yard net figure in 24–20 victory over Dallas (Nov. 12) ... enjoyed outstanding day vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 26) with 44-yard average and 40.3-yard net as four of his six punts rolled to a stop inside the 20-yard line ... suffered ankle sprain running a pass route on scout team in practice, forcing back-up quarterback Tom Tupa to handle punting duties vs. L.A. Raiders (Dec. 10) ... finished remarkable season with 43.4-yard average vs. Philadelphia (Dec. 24) ... posted solid statistics in Pro Bowl contest with three punts for 49.3-yard average and long of 53 yards. ▲1988: Punted for Los Angeles Rams in first nine games with 39.5-yard average on 40 kicks after Dale Hatcher underwent arthroscopic knee surgery early in training camp ... also dropped 11 kicks inside the 20 with just two touchbacks ... punted season-high eight times for 39-yard average in 33–0 shutout of Atlanta (Oct. 16) ... posted season-best 43.9-yard mark on seven kicks vs. San Francisco (Oct. 16) ... released by Rams Nov. 2 when Hatcher returned ... waived by Patriots on final roster cutdown (Aug. 30) and promptly signed by L.A. (Aug. 31). ▲1987: Finished season with 40.1-yard average on 62 punts ... his 14 punts inside the 20-yard line ranked fourth in AFC, while his 73-yard punt was third longest in league ... enjoyed fine outing with five punts for season-high 48.6-yard average vs. Denver (Dec. 6) ... seven punts of 50 yards or better ... three games with average of 47 yards or more ... set club marks for career punts (468), punting yardage (19,922) and average (42.6). ▲1986: Ranked third in conference with a 42.1-yard average ... posted eye-popping 50.2-yard mark on nine punts in playoff game vs. Denver (Jan. 4) ... nailed three 60-plus-yard kicks (Miami, Dec. 22; Buffalo, Oct. 26; Denver, Jan. 4) ... also had dubious distinction of leading league by having three punts blocked, the firsts of his career. ▲1985: Finished season ranked third in conference and fifth in NFL with 43-yard average ... 92 kicks for 3,953 yards set club single-season standards ... rocketed 75-yarder into end zone vs. Chicago (Sept. 15), the longest in the league ... tied team record for most punts in game with 11 vs. Chicago ... also set team mark with 514 punting yards good for 46.7-yard average ... best average came in opener vs. Green Bay (Sept. 8) with 47.7-yard mark on four kicks ... in AFC title game win over Miami (Jan. 12) came through on clutch 49-yard punt against 11-man rush with two minutes left in game to help preserve win and send Patriots to Super Bowl. ▲1984: Missed half of season after surgery on left knee due to injury in third preseason game ... placed on injured reserve list (Aug. 18) for first nine games ... activated (Nov. 3) and posted 43-yard average on four kicks vs. Denver (Nov. 4) ... finished season with 48 punts for 42.1-yard average and 34.7-yard net ... gross average ranked seventh in AFC and net was good for fifth place ... tied Patriot record with 11 punts ▲Acquired nickname "The Heat Seeking Missile" for his thunderous tackling at the University of Arizona in Tucson. As a senior at Helix High School in San Diego, he measured at 5–8 and only 150 pounds. He originally was a walk-on as a freshman at the U of A and earned a scholarship after playing as a redshirt freshman.

▲A 1993 inductee into the University of Arizona Sports Hall of Fame.

▲Became a cult hero in Green Bay when he sustained a cut on the bridge of his nose during a nationally-televised game against Houston last season. He was photographed with blood streaming down his face. Fans started attending Packer games dressed in Cecil's no. 26 jersey with imitation blood stains on their faces.

▲An avid golfer with a three handicap, he caddied for Tommy Armour III at the 1992 Los Angeles Open, one of the regular stops on the PGA Tour.

▲Pro Career: Known for his thunderous tackling, contagious enthusiasm and unmatched intensity on the playing field–a stark contrast to his low-key, personable demeanor off the field ... signed as unrestricted free agent with Phoenix on April 7, 1993 ... last season became first Packer defensive back to be voted to the Pro Bowl since Willie Buchanon in 1978 ... posted five-year pro totals of 340 tackles and 13 interceptions, including over 100 tackles in each of last two seasons. ▲1992: Stamped his mark as one of the top free safeties in the league by earning a starting berth in the Pro Bowl ... registered 82 tackles, 20 assists, 4 interceptions, knocked down 13 passes and forced 2 fumbles ... led Packers in both solo stops (82) and interceptions (4) ... led club with 10 tackles (eight solo) in season opener vs. Minnesota (Sept. 6), then tied a team-high with 10 solo stops at Cleveland (Oct. 18) ... popped N.Y. Giants' Dave Meggett with resounding hits on consecutive downs (Nov. 8), plays that have appeared on numerous league highlight tapes ... came through with key interception to stop third quarter scoring drive in 17–3 victory at Chicago (Nov. 22) ... posted nine tackles and an interception at the four-yard line to halt a Buccaneer scoring drive as Packers cashed-in the possession with a field goal for 9–7 halftime lead in 19–14 win at Tampa Bay (Nov. 29) ... credited with nine more stops in 38–10 win over Detroit (Dec. 6), then returned an interception 29 yards to set up a third quarter field goal in 16–14 triumph at Houston (Dec. 13) ... turned in fine overall effort to fuel 28–13 defeat of L.A. Rams (Dec. 20) with seven solo tackles, one interception and four passes defensed ... in addition to Pro Bowl honors, named to the all-Madden team and second-team all-pro squad by Gannett. ▲1991: Started all 16 games for first time in pro career ... led team with 13 passes defensed, seven more than he had over the first three seasons of his career ... ranked fourth overall with 110 tackles and tied for team lead with three interceptions ... posted season-best 11 solo tackles at L.A. Rams (Sept. 29) ... registered nine stops vs. Dallas (Oct. 6), vs. Buffalo (Nov. 10), and vs. Minnesota (Nov. 17) ... collected first interception of season for 21 yard return vs. Chicago (Oct. 17) ... his 26-yard interception return set up Packer score in 27–0 shutout of Tampa Bay (Oct. 27) ... brought back third theft of season 32 yards to trigger Green Bay's final touchdown of the game in 27–7 victory at Minnesota (Dec. 21) in season finale ... also saved the day by knock-

▲An avid golfer, Chandler won an all-expenses-paid trip to the 1992 U.S. Open at Pebble Beach from a winning "closest-to-the-pin" shot in a hole-in-one shoot-off at a Phoenix resort. He sports a three handicap.

▲Placed second in long-drive contest during the 1993 Phoenix Open when he launched a drive of 314 yards, only one yard shy of John Daly's winning drive in the pro competition at the Tournament Players' Club of Scottsdale. Cards' tight end Walter Reeves placed third with a poke of 305 yards, bettering eight professionals.

▲A three-sport star at Everett (Wash.) High School, as a senior passed for nearly 2,000 yards with 13 touchdowns in football, averaged 21.5 points-per-game on the basketball squad, and batted .425 as a sophomore catcher in baseball.

▲Born on Columbus Day (October 12) in 1965, prompting first name of Christopher.

▲Pro Career: After injury to Timm Rosenbach (shoulder) last year, seized opportunity to start 13 contests and achieve career bests in virtually all passing categories ... claimed via waivers from Tampa Bay Nov. 5, 1991 ... earned numerous all-rookie honors after being selected by Indianapolis in third round (76th overall) of 1988 NFL Draft ... knee injury shelved him after three games in 1989 ... following reconstructive surgery, traded by Colts to Tampa Bay Aug. 6, 1990 in exchange for 1992 first-round draft choice. ▲1992: Posted career highs in pass attempts (413), completions (245), yards (2,832), completion percentage (59.3), touchdown passes (15) and yards rushing (146) ... tossed 15 interceptions, though over one-half (eight) came in final four games of season ... finished with 77.1 passer rating, eighth in NFC, while his 59.3 completion percentage ranks third-highest in team history ... completed nine straight passes at one stretch during season (six vs. Washington, Oct. 4; three at N.Y. Giants, Oct. 11), the fourth-longest string in club history ... came off bench in first two contests after Rosenbach left game with concussion in third quarter at Tampa Bay (Sept. 6) and separated shoulder in second period vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 13) ... connected on six of nine attempts for 31 yards vs. Buccaneers and 17 of 29 passes for 211 yards with two touchdowns vs. Eagles ... piled up career-best 383 yards passing on 28 of 43 effort as starter at Dallas (Sept. 20), including 16 of 22 for 244 yards in second-half comeback bid ... the 383 yards was most by Cardinal player since 1988 (Neil Lomax, 384 vs. Philadelphia, Dec. 11) ... despite being pummeled by fierce Redskins' pass rush, brought club back with 21 completions in 31 attempts for 196 yards, including impressive second half when he threaded 13 of 16 passes for 96 yards ... commanded nine-play, 85-yard drive with six straight completions on game-winning drive in fourth quarter, capped by a nine-yard toss to Larry Centers with 41 seconds left in 27–24 victory over Redskins ... enjoyed stretch of 84 passes without interception before tossing first errant pass of season in first quarter vs. Washington ... completed eight of 16 attempts for 118 yards at Philadelphia (Oct. 25) but was knocked unconscious making tackle on third-quarter interception as Rosenbach came on in relief ... rebounded admirably the following week against San Francisco (Oct. 1), tossing career-high three touchdowns on 19-of-33 day for 197 yards, while adding 14 and 18 yards on a pair of designed running ▲Ranks 19th on all-time NFL receiving list with 549 career pass receptions.

▲A regular visitor to the Phoenix area since Cardinals moved to Arizona in 1988, and this past spring after he decided to get an apartment, he contacted Phoenix Head Coach Joe Bugel and soon afterward signed with Cards as a free agent.

▲Pro Career: Four-time Pro Bowler who helped the Washington Redskins to two Super Bowl victories ... signed as unrestricted free agent with the Cardinals on March 22, the same day the National Football League officially awarded the 1996 Super Bowl to Phoenix ... has caught at least 50 passes for eight straight seasons and has 27 career 100-yard receiving games. ▲1992: Led the Redskins in all receiving categories with 64 pass receptions for 912 yards (14.3-yard average) and five touchdowns ... snared season-best eight passes for 97 yards and one touchdown at Dallas (Sept. 7) in season opener ... followed the next week with six grabs for 73 yards and a score in 24–17 victory over Atlanta (Sept. 13) ... posted four pass receptions for 106 yards vs. Phoenix (Oct. 4) ... in NFC wild card playoff game at Minnesota (Dec. 28), caught six passes for 91 yards, including a 24-yard touchdown grab in third quarter to give Washington 24–7 lead en route to the victory ... against the 49ers the next week, led all receivers with seven catches for 100 yards ... also rushed twice for 18 yards. ▲1991: Finished second in league with career-high 1,340 receiving yards and sixth in NFC with 70 receptions ... his 19.1-yard average per reception was the second-best mark in the league (Michael Haynes, Atlanta, 22.4), while his 10 touchdown catches were a career high and tied him for fifth in the league ... earned his fourth trip to the Pro Bowl and was named to the Associated Press, UPI, Football News, NEA and all-Madden all-pro teams ... had catches of 82, 75, 65, 61, 54, 50, and 49 yards, with all but the 75-yarder going for touchdowns ... averaged 45.3 yards per touchdown catch as six of his 10 scores were 49 yards or longer ... caught 70 or more passes for 1,000 or more yards for the fifth time in his career ... opened season with 107 yards on six receptions with a score in 45–0 shutout vs. Detroit (Sept. 1) ... was held to just one touchdown catch over the next six games before collecting two in 17–13 win at N.Y. Giants (Oct. 13) ... then erupted with three touchdowns and 203 yards on four receptions in 56–10 victory vs. Atlanta (Nov. 10), the highest single-game receiving total in the league in 1991 ... pulled down three passes for 129 yards, including scoring plays of 65 and 50 yards, in 34–17 triumph over the N.Y. Giants (Dec. 15) in a game that clinched the division title and home field advantage throughout the playoffs ... led club's drive to the Super Bowl with 17 receptions for 255 yards and two touchdowns in post-season play ... snared six passes for 64 yards in 24–7 first-round playoff win over Atlanta (Jan. 3, 1992), then followed up with four receptions for 77 yards, including a 45-yard touchdown catch, as Washington defeated Detroit 45–7 in the NFC championship game (Jan. 12) ... provided an exclamation point to a fine season with seven catches for 114 yards in 37–24 victory over Buffalo in the Metrodome (Jan. 26) in Super Bowl XXVI, highlighted by a 30-yard scoring reception. ▲1990: Earned a trip to the Pro Bowl with 75 pass receptions for 1,112 yards, ranking fifth and fourth in the league, respectively ... his eight touchdown receptions also led the team ... caught seven passes for 106 yards at San Francisco (Sept. 16), and posted a season-best 162 yards receiving on eight catches with a pair of 42-yard scoring receptions in 28–10 victory at Phoenix (Sept. 30) ... helped propel Redskins to 41–38 triumph at Detroit (Nov. 4) with 11 grabs for 132 yards, then again hit the century mark with 131 yards on eight catches, including a pair of touchdowns, in 31–17 win vs. New Orleans (Nov. 18) ... registered four receptions for 63 yards and a touchdown in 20–6 wild card playoff win at Philadelphia (Jan. 5, 1991), then six more catches for 63 yards in second-round loss to San Francisco (Jan. 12) ... selected all-NFC by UPI and to the all-Madden team. ▲1989: Hauled in career-high 79 passes for 1,229 yards with eight touchdowns ... opened season with six receptions for 100 yards vs. N.Y. Giants (Sept. 11), then averaged 38.5 yards per grab on four receptions for 153 yards and two scores the following week against Philadelphia (Sept. 17), including an 80-yard touchdown pass on the first play of the game ... his fourth quarter 23-yard touchdown grab with 1:54 left in proved the difference in 30–28 win over Phoenix (Oct. 8) ... snared eight passes for 145 yards and a score vs. L.A. Raiders (Oct. 29) ... notched 10 receptions for 73 yards in 32–28 win vs. Tampa Bay (Oct. 22) ... also eclipsed the 100-yard receiving mark with eight catches for 124 yards and a score in 38–14 win over Chicago (Nov. 26) and nine aerials for 149 yards and a touchdown during a 29–0 shutout of Seattle (Dec. 23) ... grabbed a 33-yard pass in fourth-and-four situation for go-ahead points in 26–21 win over San Diego (Dec. 10). ▲1988: Registered 59 catches for 892 yards and seven touchdowns as teammates Rickey Sanders (73–1,148–12 touchdowns) and Art Monk (72–946–5 touchdowns) combined for nearly 150 passes, over 2,000 yards and 17 scores ... caught five passes for 58 yards and one score in 35–17 win at Dallas (Oct. 9) ... authored team's longest offensive play of the season with 60-yard touchdown catch in 33–17 victory over Phoenix (Oct. 16) ... collected season-high eight receptions for 88 yards vs. Chicago (Nov. 13) and added 99 yards on five catches to aid a 29–19 victory in Philadelphia (Dec. 4). ▲1987: Sailed to his second straight Pro Bowl honor with 56 pass receptions for 1,066 yards, the latter ranking third-best among NFL receivers ... caught eight passes for 102 yards in 34–24 victo-

▲Former Citadel walk-on who led NCAA Division I-AA in punting in 1986 with 44.1-yard average.

▲Pro Career: Another Plan B recruitment by Cardinals, signed February 21, 1991 ... powerful kicker who consistently sails kickoffs into end zone ... former ninth-round pick by Tampa Bay in 1987 draft ... played previously with Atlanta (1987-89) and New England (1989). ▲1992: Production slipped somewhat as he connected on 13 of 26 field goal attempts, though was perfect on 28 extra points for a total of 67 points ... worked with new long snapper (Danny Villa) and holder (Chris Chandler) for second straight season ... missed first field goal attempt in 15 tries from inside 40 yards as a Cardinal (24-yarder at Philadelphia, Oct. 25) ... managed 12 touchbacks in 56 kickoffs, compared to 23 touchbacks in 77 kickoffs in '91 ... opened season in auspicious form as he answered the bell for punter Rich Camarillo (pulled leg muscle) with four punts for 41.8-yard average with long of 52 yards and net average of 38.8 yards per boot ... converted field goals form 22 and 42 yards at Dallas (Sept. 20), sailed two kickoffs for touchbacks while two others were returned for mere combined nine yards ... also executed successful onside kick late in game ... suffered hamstring pull during pre-game warm-ups vs. Washington (Oct. 4), took off uniform and planned to watch punter Camarillo return favor from season opener and handle all kicking duties ... after Camarillo missed extra point following first Phoenix score midway through third period, asked to suit up once more, received pain-relieving injection, and in thrilling comeback victory, gingerly converted three extra points for the margin of victory in 27–24 triumph ... returned to form with four impressive kickoffs vs. New Orleans (Oct. 18), one sailing nine yards deep for touchback, while other three returned for average of just 12.3 yards per return

... misfired fro 29 yards vs. San Francisco (Nov. 1), but nailed 33-yarder on final play of first half to give Phoenix 10–0 lead in 24–14 win ... connected on efforts from 21 and 32 yards in 20–14 win at L.A. Rams (Nov. 8) ... hit 26-yard field goal and did fine job on kickoffs as Giants began three of four drives on own 20, 15, and 21 yard lines in 19–0 Phoenix shutout win ... hit from 28 and 48 yards out in Indianapolis (Dec. 20), the second with just 4:14 left in game to pull Phoenix even at 13–13 ... it marked first time in six games he'd made two field goals in same contest ... toiled in miserable field conditions in season finale vs. Tampa Bay (Dec. 27) as he converted 21-yarder, but misfired from 48, 43 and 33 yards ... in that game, Bucs' kicker Eddie Murray also struggled with misses from 40, 33, and 36 yards on the sandy surface of Sun Devil Stadium. ▲1991: Converted 21 of 30 field goal attempts and all 19 points after touchdown for 82 points ... sailed 11 of 54 kickoffs for touchbacks ... one of just six NFL kickers who didn't misfire from inside 40 yards with perfect 13–13 marksmanship ... his 70 percent (21–30) success rate tied Pat Harder (7 for 10 in 1947) for sixth on club single-season accuracy list ... more importantly, only legendary Jim Bakken (23 for 32 for 72 percent in 1973) kicked as many field goals with as much accuracy in club history ... booted three field goals of 50 yards or more ... iced season-opening win at L.A. Rams (Sept. 1) with 32-yarder with 2:45 remaining in 24–14 victory ... connected on all four attempts (22, 28, 42 and club-tying 52 yards) and a pair of points after touchdown for season-high 14 points in 26–10 victory at Philadelphia (Sept. 8) ... converted from 32, 32 and 29 yards vs. Dallas (Sept. 22)... kicked three more field goals at N.Y. Giants (Oct. 6), among them another 52-yarder ... hit three-pointers from 29, 51 and 49 yards against former teammates in 16–10 victory over Atlanta (Oct. 20) in addition to booming kickoffs high and deep as return specialist Deion Sanders was limited to 16.7-yard average on three returns ... endured three-game stretch without attempting field goal (games nine-11) ... came up short on 52-yard attempt at Denver (Dec. 15), but converted tries from 33, 45, 28 and 38 yards, the last with 7:45 left in game to put Cards ahead before Denver quarterback John Elway led miraculous comeback drive for victory ... also boomed season-best three of six kickoffs for touchbacks vs. Broncos. ▲1990: Enjoyed finest professional season for Atlanta with 106 points, fifth-best in conference and third-highest total in Falcon history ... connected on 22 of 33 field goals and was perfect on all 40 points after touchdown ... also boomed 23 of his 77 kickoffs for touchbacks, resulting in 16.6-yard opponent kickoff return average, the third-best mark in the NFL ... connected on all four attempts from 39, 39, 36 and 51 yards in 47–27 win over Houston in season opener ... provided team's only points converting three of five attempts in 21–9 loss at Pittsburgh (Nov. 4) ... booted three more field goals vs. Philadelphia (Nov. 18), including career-long 53-yarder ... 18 field goal tries of 40 or more yards surpassed only by Chicago's Kevin Butler (20) in entire league, while only Butler (12) and perennial New Orleans Pro Bowler Morten Andersen (11) converted more from that range than Davis (8) in NFC. ▲1989: Signed with New England as Plan B free agent, then finished season in Atlanta ... scored 61 points on 16–23 field goals and 13–16 points after touchdown for Patriots ... nailed field goals of 30, 34, and 43 yards in 23–13 victory over Houston (Oct. 8), then again hit for the hat trick with Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium record field goal of 52 yards, along with a pair of 32 yarders the following week in Atlanta (Oct. 15) ... provided long-range fireworks with three-pointers from 47 and 48 yards at Indianapolis (Oct. 29) in regulation time, then boomed 51-yard field goal with 9:57 gone in overtime for 23–20 Patriot victory ... waived Nov. 7 following missed field goal and extra point in 27–26 loss to N.Y. Jets (Nov. 5) ... after injury to Atlanta kicker Paul McFadden, signed with Falcons (Nov. 14) and scored 33 points over final six games with seven-11 field goals and 12–12 points after touchdown ... made three field goals vs. Washington (Dec. 17) ... closed season hitting on eight of 10 tries for Falcons. ▲1988: Scored 82 points for most by Falcon since 1985 ... booted 19 of 30 field goal tries and 25 of 27 points after touchdown ... authored two games with three field goals: vs. N.Y. Giants (Oct. 23) and at New Orleans (Dec. 18) ... boomed season-long 52-yarder in 20-0 shutout of Green Bay (Nov. 6) ... helped himself earn roster spot with 53-yard field goal in preseason game vs. New England.

▲1987: Originally ninth-round (246th) selection by Tampa Bay in NFL Draft ... released on final roster cut, then signed with Atlanta for replacement games during players' strike ... converted 3–4 field goals and all six points after touchdown in three contests with long field goal of 42 yards. ▲College/Personal: Originally a walk-on at The Citadel, earned a scholarship and went on to lead NCAA Division I-AA punters with 44.1-yard average in 1986 ... set six school records, including 76 consecutive points after touchdown and an 81-yard punt ... finished collegiate career with 263 points, second in school history behind former Cardinal tailback Stump Mitchell ... played in Senior Bowl in 1986 ... all-county selection at Lakeside High School in Atlanta as prep athlete ... also won three letters as member of soccer team ... learned rudiments of kicking from his mother, Dr. Kay Davis, a former physics teacher who schooled her son in the aerodynamics and angles of kicking, and high school coach, Wayman Creel, who tied Davis' face mask to his shoulder pads keep his head down ... mother is current director of the Fernbank Museum of Natural History in Atlanta ... Falcons' owner Rankin Smith is chairman of the board of the museum, meaning Davis and his mother worked for the same boss during the kicker's Falcon days ... received first kicking tee on Christmas morning as six-year-old ... born Oct. 29, 1965 ... wife Shauna is a former Phoenix Suns cheerleader.

Defensive End ▲▲▲▲▲▲▲▲▲▲▲▲ 93

6–5 ▲ 340 ▲ Sixth Year
North Carolina ▲ Trade, 1992 (Tampa Bay)

Check It Out ▲▲▲

▲When he arrived following last fall's trade with Tampa Bay, he became a seasoned graybeard at age 27 compared to the Cardinals' young defensive line rotation of Mike Jones (23), Michael Bankston (22), Eric Swann (22) and Keith Rucker (23).

▲A campus disc jockey during his college days at North Carolina.

▲After two outstanding collegiate seasons at North Carolina, figured to be a future top-round draft selection, but sustained a chipped cervical bone in his neck during spring drills prior to junior season. He was seemingly forgotten his final two years as Tampa Bay selected him in the ninth round (225th overall) of the 1988 NFL Draft. Nevertheless, he started as a rookie.

▲Pro Career: Acquired by Phoenix in trade with Tampa Bay midway through 1992 season ... Buccaneers' most productive lineman from 1988–90 with at least 60 tackles each year ... veteran of 76 NFL contests with 60 starting assignments ... joined a crew of two Cardinal rookies (Michael Bankston, Keith Rucker) and two second-year players (Mike Jones, Eric Swann) whose combined NFL playing experience now totals 87 games and just 35 starting roles... originally selected by Bucs in ninth round of 1988 NFL Draft and earned starting role as rookie. ▲1992: Obtained by Cardinals on Oct. 13 trading deadline to fortify defensive line ... played in 11 games for Phoenix, starting five of last six outings ... posted 13 solo tackles, four assists, two sacks and five hurries ... credited with one solo stop and a sack in first action in Cardinal uniform vs. Philadelphia (Oct. 25) ... collected four tackles and one quarterback hurry at Washington (Nov. 29) ... contributed two solo tackles, one assist and a sack against former Buccaneer team (Dec. 27) as he was on field for all but two downs (60 of 62) ... played in five contests for Tampa Bay with three tackles, three quarterback pressures and knocked down one pass ... also blocked a field goal in 27–23 Bucs' win at Detroit (Sept. 27) ... replaced in lineup by rookie sensation Santana Dotson after missing training camp following protracted contract negotiations. ▲1991: Started 11 of 12 contests as knee injury limited him to career-low 40 tackles ... three and one-half sacks, however, were career best ... credited with either a quarterback pressure, sack or forced fumble in seven of first eight outings ... notched six solo tackles and two pressures in season-opener at N.Y. Jets (Sept. 1) ... matched career-high nine tackles vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 24) ... suffered strained knee at Minnesota (Nov. 3), then after limited action for three games, tore ligament in same knee vs. Miami (Dec. 1) and was placed on injured reserve list (Dec. 3) for remainder of season. ▲1990: Started all 16 games and led club's defensive linemen with career-high 62 tackles (43 solo) ... played entire season with nagging shoulder and neck ailments ... established career-best nine tackles vs. Chicago (Dec. 23) ... posted six tackles, a sack and batted down a pass in 23–20 win vs. Detroit (Sept. 23) ... notched a pair of tackles with three pressures in 26–13 triumph over Minnesota (Dec. 16) ... credited with blocked field goal at Green Bay (Nov. 25). ▲1989: Authored impressive sophomore season with 42 pressures, most by a Buccaneer since Lee Roy Selmon recorded 48 in 1984 ... though bothered by persistent ankle injury, still led all Buc linemen with 61 tackles, including career-best 52 solo efforts

... also led defense for second straight year with 12 tackles for loss ... credited with six-tackle efforts at Washington (Oct. 22) and at Cincinnati (Oct. 29) ... posted then career-high eight tackles vs. Minnesota (Nov. 6) ... earned game ball at Chicago (Nov. 19) despite playing only first half of contest ... in that game, returned an interception 13 yards for a touchdown, registered seven tackles and recorded two sacks before injuring ankle in 32–31 victory ... finished season with three sacks, starting all but season finale vs. Pittsburgh (Dec. 24). ▲1988: Unheralded ninth-round draft pick who turned heads from outset of first professional game ... earned starting left end role in training camp and collected 61 tackles, including team-best 12 tackles for loss as a rookie ... notched season-high seven stops at New Orleans (Sept. 25) and vs. Buffalo (Dec. 4) ... missed three starts due to groin pull, but played in all 16 games ... posted three sacks in final two outings. ▲College/Personal: Four-year starter at North Carolina ... burst onto college scene with 121 tackles in freshman year ... four-year starter for Tar Heels ... accorded degree in journalism and mass communications from the Chapel Hill school ... all-state selection as two-way tackle and fullback at Grimsley High School in Greensboro, N.C. ... also lettered in track, winning state discus title as senior ... born May 7, 1965 in Greensboro.

Check It Out ▲▲▲

▲Named 1987 Travelers NFL Man-of-the-Year, exemplifying the league's outstanding citizen-athlete.

▲Completed an off-season good-will tour of Europe in late May that included other NFL players and U.S. State Department officials. The group, which stayed at the Olympic Village in Moscow for five days while conducting football clinics, was taken aback by the culture shock. "I've toured all over the world," said Duerson. "I've never seen that kind of deprivation before. It was like going through a time warp back to the 1930s."

▲Musically inclined, Duerson plays all of the brass instruments.

▲Selected to two-year term on NFL Players Association's executive board of vice presidents with teammate Luis Sharpe.

▲He has been accepted into law school at Loyola University in Chicago and plans to specialize in corporate law. Harboring political aspirations, Duerson worked in Indiana U.S. Senator Richard Lugar's Washington, D.C. office during the 1982 off-season.

▲Has directed numerous successful drug education and awareness programs throughout Indiana and Illinois during past off-seasons.

▲Pro Career: Signed as free agent Oct. 2, 1991 ... four-time Pro Bowler (1985–88) during seven seasons (1983–89) with Chicago Bears ... in 10 pro seasons, has started 82 of 144 games, collected 20 interceptions, and registered 669 tackles with 15 quarterback sacks and 4 fumble recoveries ... signed as free agent with N.Y. Giants prior to 1990 season ... owns Super Bowl rings as member of world championship teams with the Bears (Super Bowl XX after 1985 season) and Giants (Super Bowl XXV after 1990 season). ▲1992: Played in first 15 games before suffering fracture to left scapula at Indianapolis (Dec. 20) ... placed on injured reserve list Dec. 22 ... collected 12 solo tackles and six assists, along with one quarterback hurry and one pass defensed ... played roughly one-half of defensive plays and registered two tackles in 27–24 victory over Washington (Oct. 4) ... posted three tackles apiece at Washington (Nov. 29) and vs. San Diego (Dec. 6), including two stops on special teams vs. Chargers ... credited with a pair of tackles and a hurry in 19–0 shutout of N.Y. Giants (Dec. 12). ▲1991: Joined Phoenix midway through season ... collected 41 tackles and one interception in 11 contests ... started final three games of season at strong safety after Pro Bowl strong safety Tim McDonald suffered ankle/leg injuries at practice during off-week (Nov. 25) and led club in tackles each time ... started for McDonald vs. Washington (Dec. 8) and piled up club season-high 16 tackles (11 solo) despite missing part of game while medical personnel mended laceration above right eye that later required stitches ... again led Phoenix with 11 tackles at Denver (Dec. 15) as he played all 65 defensive downs ... generated nine tackles and returned interception five yards vs. New Orleans (Dec. 22) in season finale. ▲1990: Played in 16 games with Giants, starting two contests ... collected 44 tackles, one interception, and returned a fumble for touchdown ... came away with key fourth quarter interception in end zone to secure 24–21 victory at Phoenix (Dec. 23) ... scooped Jeff George fumble and returned it 31 yards for his first ▲Nickname "Thrill" has replaced his missing middle name. Hill's parents, Helen and Ransom Hill, didn't give son Randal a middle name. "Most people don't use both. So we didn't give Randal one. We made it easy on him," explains Helen, a third-grade teacher. ▲Participated in the "DHL/NFL's Fastest Man" competition the past two years. Hill won his first heat against Ram Steve Israel and was eliminated in the semi final round by Falcon Michael Haynes in 1993. He placed second in 1992 with a 6.20 clocking in the 60-yard dash, losing to then Dallas Cowboy, now L.A. Raider, Alexander Wright (6.14) in the finals. Hill posted a 6.17 timing the first round to defeat top-seeded Willie Gault, then also topped no.3 seed Mel Gray of Detroit en route to the finals.

▲Pro Career: Blessed with bona fide sub-4.3 speed in 40 yards, Hill rates as one of the fastest players in the NFL ... every-down "home run" threat ... nicknamed "Thrill" ... former first-round selection by Miami in 1991 NFL Draft (23rd overall) ... acquired by Phoenix Sept. 3 in exchange for first-round pick in 1992 draft ... enters 1993 with a string of 28 consecutive games with receptions ... has caught at least one pass in all 30 games as a Cardinal. ▲1992: Started 14 games and pulled in 58 pass receptions for 861 yards (14.8-yard average) with three touchdowns ... among second-year players in NFL, his 861 receiving yards ranked only behind Detroit's Herman Moore (966), while Hill's 58 receptions finished third to Atlanta's Mike Pritchard (77) and Tampa Bay's Lawrence Dawsey (60) ... only Cardinal to catch a pass in all 16 games ... caught eight passes over 30 yards, more than the rest of his teammates combined ... achieved first 100-yard receiving game as a professional with five catches for 109 yards vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 13), including 44-yarder to set up first Phoenix score ... snared three passes for 41 yards vs. Washington (Oct. 4) with 17-yard grab from Chris Chandler at 1:08 mark of contest to set the table for the game-winning points of a 27–24 victory ... caught six passes for 92 yards and two touchdowns in 24–14 triumph over San Francisco (Nov. 1) with scoring plays of four and 23 yards ... led club with 91 yards receiving on four grabs in Atlanta (Nov. 15), including receptions of 37 and 42 yards, but left game early with muscle pull in rib cage ... snatched four passes for 65 yards in first half of 19–0 shutout of N.Y. Giants (Dec. 12), highlighted by 49-yarder from Chandler ... finished season with six receptions for 86 yards vs. Tampa Bay (Dec. 27). ▲1991: Played in 15 games for with four starting roles ... began season slowly but finished with 28 receptions over last half of season, giving him 43 catches for 495 yards (11.5-yard average) with one touchdown to rank third among rookie wide receivers (Dawsey, Tampa Bay-55; Pritchard, Atlanta-50) ... caught first professional pass at Washington (Sept. 15), an 11-yarder from Tom Tupa ... snared three passes the following week vs. Dallas (Sept. 22), then led club with six grabs for 65 yards at N.Y. Giants (Oct. 6) ... caught first touchdown pass with acrobatic leaping catch on 31-yard loft from Tupa to pull Cards even with Falcons at 10-10 in third quarter of 16–10 victory over Atlanta (Oct. 20) ... grabbed four

▲Following high school, spent three years hauling wood pulp and felling trees as a lumberjack. Lost two confrontations with chain saws, the first to his calf (46 stitches), the other to his arm (36 stitches.)

▲One of 30 players from the inaugural World League season to make a 1991 NFL roster, and one of only 10 to be protected during Plan B in 1992.

▲To convert from outside linebacker to inside linebacker in 1992, Hyche pushed his weight from 226 to 252 pounds during the off-season by eating five meals a day. A diet that included five steaks per day was not unusual. "I never got full, I just get tired of chewing," says the former 170-pound all-Alabama prep quarterback.

▲Competed in amateur "tough guy boxing" matches throughout Alabama in 1991. Won all 10 bouts to cop heavyweight title and six-foot trophy. Defeated a 315-pound opponent in the semi-final match.

▲Pro Career: Talented role player and special-teams performer ... also has played for the Chicago Bears (1989) and the World League's Birmingham Fire (1991) ... one of top special teamers on Phoenix roster. ▲1992: Posted 8 solo tackles, 1 assist, 1 quarterback sack, 2 passes defensed and recovered a fumble ... played in all 16 games with one starting role vs. San Diego (Dec. 6) ... opened at outside linebacker in base defense vs. Chargers ... collected first pro sack in 19–0 shutout of N.Y. Giants (Dec. 12) ... played extensively at Indianapolis (Dec. 20) with three solo tackles, a fumble recovery and pass defensed ... credited with a pair of solo stops vs. Tampa Bay (Dec. 27) ... also ranked second on club with 10 tackles on special teams while leading return units with 45 "blocks." ▲1991: Signed as free agent June 13 and proceeded to lead Cards special teams with 41 "blocks" while finishing third with 11 tackles and two fumble recoveries ... also added 10 tackles from scrimmage ... recovered fumble on punt coverage team that set up game-clinching field goal late in fourth quarter of 24–14 season-opening win at L.A. Rams (Sept. 1) ... recovered muffed punt vs. Washington (Dec. 8) to set up Cards' first points of game ... posted season-best three solo tackles from scrimmage at Minnesota (Oct. 13) ... collected 32 tackles for World League's 5–5 Fire that lost to Barcelona in playoff semi-final contest ... also added three sacks and one forced fumble. ▲1990: Waived by Bears prior to start of season ... spent two weeks on practice roster with Ottawa of Canadian Football League. ▲1989: Signed as free agent with Chicago May 4 ... waived Sept. 5, then placed on developmental squad the next day ... activated Sept. 29 and saw action in six games before suffering broken thumb ... placed on injured reserve list Nov. 8 through remainder of season. ▲College/Personal: Started all 44 games during impressive collegiate career at Livingston in Alabama ... led team with 99 tackles and four sacks as senior ... three-time all-Gulf South conference performer ... played quarterback at Cordova (Ala.) High School ... born June 12, 1963 in Jasper, Ark. ... resides in Cordova in the off season with his son, Tyler (Jan. 12, 1988), and daughter, Stevi (Jan. 21, 1990).

43 catches for 724 yards (16.8-yard average) with career-high four touchdowns ... in his eight starting roles, gathered in 33 passes for 600 yards (18.2-yard average) and all four scores ... collected just 10 aerials as third or fourth receiver through first seven contests, but inserted into starting lineup in place of veteran J.T. Smith at Miami (Nov. 4) and responded with four grabs for 44 yards ... caught 29-yard touchdown toss from quarterback Timm Rosenbach the following week at Buffalo (Nov. 11), then cruised to season-best seven receptions for 117 yards (16.7-yard average) with scoring strikes of 22 and 25 yards vs. Green Bay (Nov. 18) ... collected 16 passes over the next four games, including long receptions of 42, 36, 34, and 23 yards ... gathered four passes for 130 yards in second half vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 23), including 68-yard touchdown play from Rosenbach, the longest play allowed by the Giants in 1990 ... did not play in season finale vs. Philadelphia (Dec. 29) due to sprained ankle ... also rushed four times for 33 yards (8.3-yard average). ▲1989: Sailed to 838 receiving yards on 45 receptions last year in 10 starting roles, four for Green (clavicle) and six for Smith (ankle) ... his 19.6-yard average-per-catch mark ranked third in the NFC behind the Rams' Flipper Anderson (26-yard average) and Henry Ellard (19.7-yard average) ... in first NFL start, cruised to eight receptions for 114 yards vs. Philadelphia (Oct. 15) in place of the injured Green ... man of the hour in 24–20 thriller over Dallas (Nov. 12) when he caught 38-yard touchdown pass from Tom Tupa with 6:25 left in game, then answered a 75-yard Dallas touchdown play with a 72-yard bomb from Tupa with 1:43 left ... caught just three passes in that game, but averaged 46.5 yards on the day ... snared four aerials for 97 yards vs. L.A. Raiders (Dec. 10), including 35-yard scoring pass after he was helped to sidelines from fierce hit earlier in the drive ... then sustained collarbone/shoulder injury that prevented him from play vs. Denver (Dec. 16) ... returned in season-finale vs. Philadelphia (Dec. 24) to haul in five passes for 76 yards ... also saw duty as kickoff returner, with seven returns for 117 yards (17.7-yard average) and gained 18 yards on reverse vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 5). ▲1988: Led club in average-per-catch with 21.6-yard figure on 23 receptions for 496 yards with three touchdowns ... set up game-winning score when he parlayed short crossing pattern into 42-yard gain, shedding three Dallas tacklers to place ball at three-yard line with 1:16 remaining in 16–10 road victory over Cowboys (Oct. 31) ... responded with four clutch grabs in final three minutes of 24–23 comeback win over San Francisco (Nov. 6) ... a 17-yarder set up his own five-yard touchdown catch, while receptions of 15 and 25 yards, the latter with six seconds left in the game, kept alive the game-winning scoring drive ... snared six passes for 166 yards vs. Philadelphia (Dec. 10), including four in third-down situations and a 93-yard scoring toss from quarterback Neil Lomax ... seven of his receptions were good for 25 yards or more ... returned 11 kickoffs for 147 yards in mid-season when Stump Mitchell suffered ankle injury and Vai Sikahema was on injured reserve list. ▲College/Personal: Snared 126 passes for 2,211 yards (17.5-yard average) with 19 touchdowns at Indiana ... all-America pick and Big Ten Conference most valuable player as senior ... all-conference, all-city and all-Indiana pick as senior receiver at Elkhart Memorial High School ... also played running back and defensive back ... all-Indiana pick in basketball, averaging 24 points per game ... criminal justice major ... born Dec. 16, 1964 ... resides in Tempe with wife, Kimberly.

▲Returns for his third stint in Sun Devil Stadium. He began his collegiate career as an Arizona State Sun Devil before transferring to Hawaii for his senior campaign. He signed with Cards as a Plan B free agent in 1989, then re-signed with Phoenix this past off-season after spending 1992 with the Kansas City Chiefs. ▲On the role of a long-snapper. "You can never win a game as a snapper; you can only lose it."

▲Pro Career: Regarded by many as the finest long snapper in pro football ... begins second stint with Cardinals ... signed by Phoenix on April 19, 1993 as unrestricted free agent, returning to club after one season with Kansas City Chiefs ... veteran of 10 NFL seasons—five with Seattle (1982–86), one with Green Bay (1988), three with the Cardinals (1989–91), and one with Kansas City (1992) ... signed by Seattle as free agent following 1982 NFL Draft ... played in 60 of possible 73 games as Seahawk ... evidence of his value is that he was protected under "Plan B" following both 1989 and '90 seasons despite Cards' wealth of talented offensive linemen. ▲1992: Served as Kansas City's long snapper for all 16 games ... key component in Chiefs' field-goal supremacy as they led the NFL with 92 per cent three-point accuracy (23 of 25 attempts) ... released by Phoenix on final roster cutdown (Sept. 1) and signed with Chiefs in time for season opener. ▲1991: Again turned in impeccable performance in long-snapping department ... reliability and consistency a factor in punter Rich Camarillo's voting to the Pro Bowl two of the past three seasons ... also deserves credit as trigger man for punt coverage unit that allowed

Cornerback ▲▲▲▲▲▲▲▲▲▲▲▲▲ 40

5–11 ▲ 195 ▲ Fifth Year
North Carolina Central ▲ Trade, 1991 (New Orleans)

Check It Out ▲▲▲

▲Played in first Pro Bowl last year after returning three interceptions for touchdowns (NFL record is four, held by three players). Among those thefts were two returns for scores in 27–24 victory against Washington on Oct. 4.

▲Earned starting berth as freshman linebacker at North Carolina Central in 1985 and led defense with 59 solo tackles and seven sacks.

▲Fan of headlining professional wrestler Ric Flair who also hails from Charlotte, N.C.

▲Pro Career: Earns high marks for coverage ability and speed ... two-year starter for New Orleans obtained by Phoenix in trade for Derek Kennard and undisclosed draft pick on roster cutdown to 60 players (Aug. 19) ... battled through mid-season bout with viral hepatitis in 1991 but rebounded to contribute noticeably ... started all 32 games at left cornerback for Saints since first game of rookie season, generating 165 tackles, 5 interceptions, and 30 passes defensed. ▲1992: Made mark with a club-record three interception returns for scores to complement 32 solo tackles, 8 assists, 6 passes defensed, 1 forced fumble, and 5 pass thefts overall ... five interceptions and 147 return yards ranked third in NFC ... opened season as reserve, but when cornerback Lorenzo Lynch (groin) was unable to answer the bell vs. Washington (Oct. 4), Massey started his first game of season and earned NFC defensive player-of-the-week honors with two interceptions for touchdowns in 27–24 comeback victory over Redskins ... picked off two Mark Rypien passes and returned both for scores (31 and 41 yards) on consecutive fourth quarter possessions to bring Cards back from 24–6 deficit ... the two touchdown returns in one game tied a league mark held by 15 other players, three of which are Cardinals—Billy Blackburn vs. Boston, Oct. 24, 1948; Billy Stacy at Dallas, Nov. 5, 1961; Jerry Norton at Pittsburgh, Nov. 26, 1961 ... Massey's performance marked the first time a player accomplished the feat since Lloyd Burruss of Kansas City in 1986 ... registered five tackles at N.Y. Giants (Oct. 11), then three solo stops in and a pass defensed in 24–14 win over San Francisco (Nov. 1) ... collected season-best six tackles in 20–14 win at L.A. Rams (Nov. 8), then six more stops and a 46-yard interception return for a touchdown at Atlanta (Nov. 15) ... made fourth and fifth thefts of season in consecutive outings at Washington (Nov. 29) and vs. San Diego (Dec. 6) ... suffered knee sprain at Indianapolis (Dec. 20) and was inactive for season finale vs. Tampa Bay (Dec. 27) ... originally voted as a Pro Bowl alternate, recuperated sufficiently to register four solo tackles and knock down one pass in the Pro Bowl after Minnesota's Audray McMillian (arm) was unable to play. ▲1991: Played in 12 games with five starting assignments ... credited with 22 tackles and two passes defensed along with one fumble recovery ... posted five tackles in first extensive action as Cardinal in 26–10 win at Philadelphia (Sept. 8) ... broke into starting lineup at left cornerback (in place of injured Aeneas Williams) in week three at Washington (Sept. 15) and registered three stops ... then started on right side in place of Lorenzo Lynch vs. Dallas (Sept. 22) and made three tackles and fumble recovery in addition to three solo tackles on kickoff coverage ... after win over New England (Sept. 29), checked self into hospital emergency room with severe headaches, later diagnosed as viral hepatitis, and placed on injured reserve list Oct. 1 ... returned to practice Oct. 28 and activated Nov. 2 ... two more starting roles as Cards opened in "nickel" defense scheme at San Francisco (Nov. 17) and vs. Washington (Dec. 8). ▲1990: Finished season with 78 tackles (third on club, first among defensive backs) and ranked second with 12 passes defensed ... registered season-best nine tackles and batted down three passes vs. Cleveland (Oct. 14) ... also contributed on special teams with blocked punt vs. Browns that resulted in safety. ▲1989: Garnered numerous all-rookie honors with sparkling performance ... one of only six NFL rookies to start all 16 games and the first Saint rookie to do so since Rickey Jackson and George Rogers in 1981 ... five interceptions ranked second on club to Dave Waymer (six) and tied for league lead among rookies with New England's Maurice Hurst and Atlanta's Deion Sanders ... led defense with 18 passes defensed ... also ranked fourth on club with 87 tackles ... batted away four passes in pro debut vs. Dallas (Sept. 10), then gathered in first career interception at Tampa Bay (Sept. 24) ... tallied season-high 12 tackles (9 solo) vs. Atlanta (Oct. 29) ... turned heads with impressive performance vs. L.A. Rams (Nov. 26) with two interceptions, seven solo stops and four passes defensed ... also excelled on special teams ... collected seven stops on coverage units, and took handoff from Bobby Morse on reverse for 54 yards in season finale vs. Indianapolis (Dec. 24) ... originally selected in second round (46th) of 1989 NFL Draft by Saints ... sixth defensive back chosen. ▲College/Personal: Collected 19 interceptions as all-America standout at North Carolina Central (NCAA Division II) ... also utilized as receiver during junior season, catching five passes for 157 yards (31.4 average) and one touchdown ... picked off school-record four passes in one game as sophomore ... played in East-West Shrine game and Senior Bowl ... attended Garinger High School (Charlotte, N.C.) ... earned degree in history from NCC during 1991 off-season ... born Feb. 17, 1967 in Rock Hill, S.C. ... single ... resides in Charlotte during off-season.

Offensive Lineman ▲▲▲▲▲▲▲▲▲▲ 73

6–6 ▲ 305 ▲ Thirteenth Year
Pittsburgh ▲ Plan B Free Agent, 1992 (San Diego)

Check It Out ▲▲▲

▲Original member of vaunted Joe Bugel-coached "Hogs" while with Washington Redskins (1981–90).
▲Only 1992 Cardinal on the field for every offensive play (948 snaps) despite ranking as oldest team member at 32.
▲Outland Trophy recipient as senior at University of Pittsburgh.
▲Accredited by Ford Motor Company to own and manage an auto dealership after completing courses in dealership management that included service, parts, body work, sales, and management. Hopes to own or be a partner in a dealership in the near future.
▲An accomplished cook, May authored a cookbook that was published shortly before Washington's 1983 Super Bowl title that sold about 23,000 copies. Proceeds were distributed to D.C.-area charities.

▲Pro Career: Signed with Phoenix as Plan B free agent, February 26, 1992 after one season with San Diego ... member of three Super Bowl teams with Pro Bowl honors in 1988 ... has played both guard and tackle spots on each side of line and has also practiced at center. ▲1992: Began career as Cardinal inauspiciously when he suffered a hamstring pull rehabilitating from arthroscopic procedure on right knee in May, prompting him to miss all but two days of training camp ... however, rallied once regular season began to become the offensive line's bellwether and start all 16 games (right tackle for games one–two, left guard for games three-16) ... played entire game of 24–14 victory over San Francisco (Nov. 1) after knee was drained prior to kickoff ... opened at left guard at Washington (Nov. 29), but after Luis Sharpe suffered ankle sprain, shifted to left tackle in first quarter, the first time he's manned the position since 1982. ▲1991: Signed as Plan B free agent with San Diego on March 4 ... played in nine games for Chargers, working mainly at right guard ... inactive for two contests. ▲1990: Spent entire season on "physically unable to perform" list while rehabilitating knee injury suffered midway through 1989 season. ▲1989: Started first eight games at right guard until suffering right knee injury vs. Dallas (Nov. 5) ... underwent reconstructive surgery Nov. 7 and relegated to injured reserve list for remainder of season ... prior to injury, played every offensive down in eight contests except for one series (at Phoenix, Oct. 8). ▲1988: Named to Pro Bowl following outstanding campaign in which he missed just four plays all season ... allowed only one quarterback sack as only Redskin offensive player to start every game ... began season at right tackle, moved to right guard in week three, back to tackle in week 10, then back to right guard for final four games ... named D.C. Touchdown Club's offensive most valuable player. ▲1987: Consecutive-game streak ended at 50 when he suffered torn medial collateral ligament in right knee during final preseason game at L.A. Rams (Sept. 5) ... returned to starting lineup vs. N.Y. Jets (Oct. 25). ▲1986: Settled at right tackle to start all 19 games (16 regular season, three playoff). ▲1985: Played every offensive down except for a few series late in game vs. San Francisco (Dec. 1) ... team's only offensive lineman twice named offensive player-of-the-week ... helped lead line that paved way for second-ranked rushing team in league (157.7 yards per game). ▲1984: In a season riddled with injuries to offensive line, played every position except center ... allowed just three sacks all year, the lowest total on team. ▲1983: Opened season at right guard for second straight year ... labeled by Bugel (then Redskins' offensive line coach) as most-improved player on team as club scored 30 touchdowns rushing, many over May's right guard position ... also filled in at tackle when necessary due to injuries. ▲1982: Started all nine regular-season games at right guard ... alternated with Fred Dean in playoffs, starting three of four contests. ▲1981: Selected by Washington in first round (20th overall) of NFL Draft ... immediately thrust into starting left tackle role as rookie after Terry Hermeling retired before season ... started eight of 16 games. ▲College/Personal: As senior at University of Pittsburgh, won Outland Trophy awarded annually to outstanding interior lineman in college football ... helped Panthers forge 38–8–1 mark during his four years ... did not allow a quarterback sack over final two seasons ... extremely active in charitable endeavors ... among his involvements is work with the Juvenile Diabetes Association and Christian Relief Services ... also member of U.S.O. tour to South Korea in spring of 1988 ... owns stable of standardbred horses which he races on Maryland circuit ... attended Oneonta (N.Y.) High School ... born Nov. 2, 1959 in Oneonta ... he and wife, Kathy, reside in Jamul, Calif. with their daughter, Abra Lauren (July 19, 1989).

flu bug to break a stretch of 109 consecutive starting roles and the first game he missed in his professional career (aside from four-game suspension in 1989 for violation of league's substance abuse guidelines) ... posted two tackles, a sack, and three quarterback hurries in 24–14 victory over San Francisco (Nov. 1), then registered five solo tackles and an assist in 20–14 triumph at L.A. Rams (Nov. 8) ... suffered left knee sprain at Atlanta (Nov. 15) as fellow linebacker Ken Harvey also injured a knee in contest ... placed on injured reserve list Nov. 20, activated Dec. 18 ... credited with a sack and forced fumble in Indianapolis (Dec. 20) upon return to play. ▲1991: Posted 72 tackles, his best output since 84 stops as a rookie in 1985 ... also credited with 6.5 quarterback sacks ... on field for 928 defensive snaps, second on club to Harvey (933) ... also registered career-best and team-high six forced fumbles ... generated six tackles, two quarterback hurries, and crunched Eagles' quarterback Jim McMahon for painful sack and forced fumble that teammate Rod Saddler picked up and returned seven yards for touchdown in 26–10 triumph at Philadelphia (Sept. 8) ... shared a sack with Jim Wahler and recovered key fumble midway through fourth quarter of 24–10 win vs. New England (Sept. 29) ... rifled Falcons for four tackles and a pair of sacks in 16–10 victory over Atlanta (Oct. 20) ... strung together three-week ironman performance by playing every defensive snap at Dallas (62 plays), vs. N.Y. Giants (62) and at San Francisco (67) weeks 10–12, with season-best 10 tackles in Texas Stadium (Nov. 3), seven tackles and two sacks vs. Giants (Nov.10) and 3 solo stops in Candlestick Park vs. 49ers (Nov. 17) ... lined up for 65 of 66 downs the following week vs. Philadelphia (5 tackles) and was in on all 67 plays vs. Washington (Dec. 8) ... credited with sack vs. Redskins, only fifth allowed by eventual world champions all season ... finished season with six tackles in each of final two contests at Denver (Dec. 15) and vs. New Orleans (Dec. 22). ▲1990: Rebounded from sub-par 1989 season to post 47 tackles, 9 quarterback sacks, and a team-best 5 forced fumbles while his 16 quarterback "hurries" ranked second on club to Harvey (24) ... registered sacks in each of first two contests, including key hit on Randall Cunningham along with forced fumble in Cardinals' 23–21 victory in Philadelphia (Sept. 16) ... credited with four tackles apiece at New Orleans (Sept. 23) and vs. Washington (Sept. 30), then menaced Dallas with sack of Troy Aikman and forced fumble in fourth quarter of Cardinals' 20–3 victory ... patched together four-game stretch (games nine-12) with a combined four and one-half sacks and 10 tackles ... included in stretch were five stops and pair of sacks in 20-17 triumph over Indianapolis (Dec. 2) ... notched season-best six tackles at Dallas (Dec. 16) along with forced fumble and recovery ... registered three solo hits with two tackles for loss vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 23), then finished season with three tackles and trio of quarterback "hurries" vs. Philadelphia (Dec. 29). ▲1989: Battled through four-game substance-abuse suspension by league to contribute 34 tackles, 5 quarterback sacks, and 1 fumble recovery in 12 games ... received 30-day suspension effective Sept. 26 for violation of league's substance abuse policy ... reinstated Oct. 24 ... opened season in fine form with six solo stops in 16–13 win over Detroit (Sept. 10)... credited with season-high seven combined tackles vs. N.Y. Giants (Sept. 24), then added five solo stops and sack in return match with Giants (Nov. 5), including fumble recovery that led to Cardinals' field goal in third quarter... pair of sacks vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 26) along with four solo tackles ... showcased his talents with four tackles and sack in each of games against L.A. Raiders (Dec. 10) and Denver (Dec. 16). ▲1988: Stamped himself as one of the NFL's premier pass-rushing talents with 14 sacks, a total surpassed only by Philadelphia all-pro Reggie White (16.5) among NFL linemen ... that mark also was most by a Cardinal since Curtis Greer's 14 (1984) and just two shy of Greer's team record of 16 (1983) ... menaced opposing quarterbacks as effectively as any pass rusher in the league ... led Cards in sacks, quarterback hurries (27), and played every down from scrimmage on defense ... named all-pro honorable mention by Associated Press and second team all-NFC by UPI ... combined with Saddler to force Rams' Jim

Everett into fumble that Saddler returned 16 yards for touchdown in 41–27 win over previously unbeaten L.A. Rams (Oct. 2) ... also added five solo stops, a sack, and batted down a pass on the day ... rolled Pittsburgh for five solo stops and a pair of sacks in 31–14 Phoenix win (Oct. 9) ... stripped Washington quarterback Mark Rypien of ball that Cards' Cedric Mack returned for 47-yard touchdown, sealing 30–21 victory over Redskins (Oct. 16) ... throttled Dallas' Steve Pelluer for three sacks in 16–10 win over Cowboys (Oct. 30), and teamed with Anthony Bell to successfully limit Pro Bowler Herschel Walker to his lowest rushing total at that point in the season (87 yards) after Walker sailed to 147 earlier in the year against Phoenix ... after four-game drought, chalked up pair of sacks vs. Philadelphia (Dec. 10) ... also played well on special teams, particularly as rush man on punt return and narrowly missed blocking a few punts. ▲1987: Top outing of year came against New York Giants (Oct. 25), ripping off 10 tackles and two sacks in 30–7 loss ... also pummeled Tampa Bay for five solo stops and three sacks (Dec. 20) ... other noticeable performances were five-tackle, two and one-half-sack day at Philadelphia (Nov. 22) and a four tackle, one and one-half-sack effort vs. Giants (Dec. 13 ) ... collected 46 tackles overall. ▲1986: Forty-eight tackles at outside linebacker ranked seventh on club while seven sacks were second to Al Baker's 10 ... erupted for two first-half sacks in Philadelphia (Dec. 7) and New Orleans (Nov. 16) games ... also notched two pass defenses and a fumble recovery at N.Y Giants (Dec. 14). ▲1985: Began first preseason game after just four days in training camp ... started all 16 games ... breezed to team-leading 38 tackles after first five games ... logged six or more stops on 10 occasions ... strung together three consecutive weeks with sacks vs. Tampa Bay (Oct. 10), Philadelphia (Oct. 17), and N.Y Giants (Oct. 24) ... eight tackles in NFL debut in season-opening 27–24 overtime win vs. Cleveland (Sept. 9). ▲College/Personal: First team all-America, first team all-Southeastern Conference, and three-time SEC defensive player-of-the-week as senior at Ole Miss ... played in Senior Bowl ... defensive most valuable player in Hula Bowl ... born April 9, 1962 in Noxubee, Miss. ... lettered in football, basketball, baseball, and track in high school ... gained 1,246 yards and scored 20 touchdowns as senior running back at Nanih Waiya High School in Noxubee, Miss. ... he and his wife, Vikki, have a daughter, Frederica Victoria (Oct. 25, 1989), and a son, Victor Frederick (July 27, 1992).

▲Three-year total of 171 pass receptions ranks first among players from the 1990 NFL Draft class, ahead of Philadelphia's Fred Barnett (165) and the N.Y. Jets' Rob Moore (164).
▲As youngster, grew up attending N.Y. Giants games with family as season ticket holders from their home in Belle Mead, N.J. His parents have had Giants season tickets since the team played in the Polo Grounds. The family has not missed a Giants game since the club moved to the Meadowlands in 1975. At age 10, Proehl was in attendance in 1978 when the Eagles' Herman Edwards turned Larry Csonka's fumble into the "Miracle of the Meadowlands." He also witnessed Lawrence Taylor's NFL debut in 1981.
▲Participated in Cayman Islands Million Dollar Month International Fishing Tournament in June, 1992.

▲Pro Career: Emerging as one of the game's finest young offensive talents with consecutive seasons of productivity and consistency ... value to club evidenced this past spring when Phoenix matched hefty offer sheet by New England to retain his services (April 19) ... in three pro seasons, has collected 171 passes for 2,312 yards (13.5-yard average) with nine touchdowns ... has averaged 57 pass receptions per season ... caught at least one pass in all but three of his 48 professional outings. ▲1992: Finished with team-best 60 receptions for 744 yards (12.4-yard average) and three touchdowns ... caught just 20 passes during first seven games, but picked up the tempo with 40 catches for 532 yards over the final nine outings ... snared three passes for 29 yards and a 10-yard touchdown from Chris Chandler vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 13), then pulled in three more in 27–24 comeback win over Washington (Oct. 4) ... grabbed four aerials for 51 yards in 24–14 victory over San Francisco (Nov. 1), including a 22-yard fade for a score and a 10-yard gain on an end-around for a key first down in the fourth quarter ... authored career-best nine receptions for 126 yards, including 50-yarder, to pull club from deep inside own territory in fourth quarter of 20–14 triumph at L.A. Rams (Nov. 8) ... saw streak of consecutive games with receptions stop at 33 when he was shut out vs. Dallas (Nov. 22) ... rebounded the following two weeks with seven catches for 104 yards at Washington (Nov. 29) and six for 112 vs. San Diego, highlighted by a 63-yard scoring toss from Chandler ... finished season with six pass receptions for 47 yards vs. Tampa Bay (Dec. 27). ▲1991: Stepped into starting lineup and contributed 55 receptions for 766 yards (13.9-yard average) with two touchdowns ... caught at least one pass in every game and four or more in seven contests ... opened season in clutch fashion with five catches for 69 yards, including an 18-yarder on third-and-seven and a 15-yarder on third-and-10 situations to sustain drives in 24–14 victory at L.A. Rams (Sept. 1) ... snapped down just two passes at Philadelphia (Sept. 8), with the first was a 59-yarder in first quarter from Tom Tupa when Cards were backed to their own four-yard line to ignite scoring drive ... snared four aerials for season-best 107 yards in 24–10 victory over New England (Sept. 29), highlighted by 62-yard touchdown on crossing pattern as he out-raced Patriot defenders the final 40 yards to the end zone ... grabbed season-high six passes at N.Y. Giants (Oct. 6) ... hauled in three passes for 46 yards in return match with Giants (Nov. 10), including 34-yard strike from Stan Gelbaugh with 2:34 left in game to pull Phoenix within 21–14 ... matched season-best effort with six receptions at San Francisco (Nov. 17), all in second half ... caught four passes for 60 yards at Denver (Dec. 15), but key play was 23-yard gain on double reverse to Bronco 37-yard line with Cards nursing 19–17 lead midway through fourth quarter, only to have play called back due to holding call ... also saw sporadic punt return duty with four returns for 26 yards (6.5-yard average) and rushed for 21 yards on three rushing attempts (seven-yard average). ▲1990: His team-best 56 receptions for 802 yards and four touchdowns established a club rookie receiving mark and led NFL's rookie receivers ... those numbers also enabled him to become the first rookie to lead the team in receiving in 40 years (Bob Shaw, 1950, 48 rec.) ... consensus all-rookie selection whose stats led all first-year players in the NFL in 1990 ... snared four or more passes on nine occasions with a pair of 100-yard receiving games ... debuted in fine fashion with five receptions for 66 yards at Washington (Dec. 9) in first pro game ... followed with four grabs for 72 yards in 23-21 win at Philadelphia (Dec. 16) and five for 62 yards in New Orleans, including 37-yard strike from quarterback Timm Rosenbach for their first NFL scores ... hauled in four passes for 61 yards in 20–3 win over Dallas (Oct. 14), and two for 33 yards in Giants Stadium (Oct. 21) in return to native area of New Jersey where he was raised ... cruised to six receptions for 102 yards with 45-yard scoring toss from Rosenbach in 24–13 victory over Atlanta (Dec. 9) ... pulled down four passes vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 23) with three-yard touchdown toss late in game to bring club within 24–21, then recovered onside kick try as Cards fell just short in comeback bid vs. eventual Super Bowl champions ... snagged season-best seven passes for 132 yards (18.9-yard average) in season finale vs. Philadelphia (Dec. 29), highlighted by acrobatic 38-yard touchdown catch of juggled ball in end zone and five receptions for 101 yards in second half alone ... also rushed one time for four yards, returned four kickoffs for 53 yards, and one returned punt for two yards with one fair catch. ▲College/Personal: Caught school-record 188 passes for 2,949 yards and 25 touchdowns at Wake Forest for second-best total in Atlantic Coast Conference (A.C.C.) history ... led ACC as senior with 65 receptions for 1,053 yards and 11 touchdowns ... played in Blue-Gray all-star game after senior season ... all-New Jersey as prep star at Hillsborough High School ... speech/communications major at Wake Forest ... born March 7, 1968 ... resides in Phoenix with wife, Kelly.

▲Older brother, Todd, and parents wanted symmetry in sons' names, explaining the double-m spelling of Timm.

▲As a redshirt freshman, played on same Washington State team with Redskins' quarterback Mark Rypien in 1985 when the latter was a senior.

▲A cowboy at heart, Rosenbach has developed a five-acre ranch in the Phoenix area (Gilbert, Arizona). Also owns several horses to pursue his hobby of team roping. He married the former Carrie Serrano in June, 1992 outdoors under a sagebrush arch with groom and groomsmen bedecked in black cowboy hats, tux tops, black jeans and black cowboy boots.

▲Montana state javelin champion in high school with a personal best of 273 feet (77 yards).

▲Father Lynn, was assistant athletic director at Washington State while mother, Rosie, was executive director of the Pullman (Wash.) Chamber of Commerce and former marketing/promotions director of the W.S.U. athletic department.

▲After a sub-par sophomore season at W.S.U., Rosenbach requested switch to defense after tossing 24 pass interceptions. He returned as a junior to throw 24 touchdown passes and finish seventh in Heisman Trophy balloting.

▲Pro Career: Showed flashes of excitement and promise in abbreviated action as rookie in 1989 ... progressed remarkably in 1990 as starter, but suffered knee injury during 1991 preseason that required reconstructive surgery ... smooth rehabilitation with medical clearance granted on July 13, 1992, weeks ahead of schedule ... enjoyed encouraging 1992 preseason only to suffer injuries in each of the first two regular-season games, the second a separated shoulder that resulted in a four-week stay on the injured reserve list as Chris Chandler assumed the quarterback duties ... 3,098 yards passing in 1990 were bettered by only three NFC passers—L.A. Rams' Jim Everett (3,989) San Francisco's Joe Montana (3,944), and Philadelphia's Randall Cunningham (3,466) ... added 470 yards rushing, second among quarterbacks only to Cunningham (942) in league. ▲1992: Cleared for practice July 13 after 11-month knee rehabilitation and cruised through mini-camp and training camp ... compiled outstanding preseason with 36 completions in 56 attempts (64.3 percent) for 516 yards and seven touchdowns for a 111.0 quarterback rating ... preseason was highlighted by 13-of-13 passing effort for 150 yards and three touchdowns vs. San Diego (Aug. 8) ... two injuries, however, resulted in a disjointed season ... completed 49 of 92 attempts for 483 yards and six interceptions in eight games with three starting roles ... in the season opener at Tampa Bay (Sept. 6), completed 12 of 22 passes for 77 yards before being knocked unconscious from a sack by Buccaneer rookie defensive lineman Santana Dotson in the third quarter ... left the game on a stretcher ... returned the following week vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 13) but suffered a separated right shoulder on sack by Eagle Clyde Simmons in Cards' second possession after completing two of five passes for 19 yards ... placed on injured reserve list Sept. 16 ... activated Oct. 13 with Chandler solidified as the starting quarterback ... relieved Chandler two weeks later at Philadelphia (Oct. 25) when Chandler (concussion) was knocked from the game in the third quarter ... connected on six of 13 attempts for 45 yards in 7–3 loss in Veterans Stadium ... again relieved an injured Chandler (ribs) in the second quarter vs. Dallas (Nov. 22) and completed 10 of 17 pass attempts for 80 yards in 16–10 defeat ... with

Chandler sidelined, Rosenbach started the following week at Washington (Nov. 29) and looked encouraging with 11 of 17 effort for 167 yards in the first half, but in the nightmarish second half, he connected on just eight of 17 passes with three interceptions for four errant tosses overall … one of the four interceptions was returned for a touchdown by Redskin safety Brad Edwards … saw only token action the rest of the season—one play vs. San Diego (Dec. 6), the final four snaps in 19–0 Sun Devil Stadium shutout of N.Y. Giants (Dec. 12), and the final play in the season finale vs. Tampa Bay (Dec. 27). ▲1991: Suffered heart-wrenching rupture of anterior cruciate ligament in right knee in non-contact drill during mid-week evening practice Aug. 21 … underwent successful reconstructive surgery Sept. 3 with rehabilitation schedule encompassing eight to 12 months … began to run with fitted brace March 1, 1992 … enjoyed impressive preseason with 24 completions in 38 attempts (63.2 percent) for 327 yards with three touchdowns, two interceptions and a passer rating of 94.8 before injury as Cards went 4–0 in preseason play. ▲1990: Inexperience showed early but matured rapidly midway throughout campaign … over the season's final eight weeks, only Cunningham (15) and Washington's Mark Rypien (12) threw more touchdown passes than Rosenbach (11) in the NFC … posted mid-season interception-less streaks of 101 and 96 pass attempts after suffering seven interceptions in season's first four games … became first Cardinal quarterback to avoid interception in three consecutive games (weeks six-eight) since Neil Lomax enjoyed a four-game stretch in 1986 (weeks six-nine) … mobility allowed Cardinal offensive line to allow just 43 quarterback sacks, a 13-sack improvement from 1989 and the best protection numbers since 1979 (39 sacks) … threaded 237 of 437 passes for 3,098 yards and 16 touchdowns … Rosenbach (1,001 plays) and Seattle's Dave Krieg were only NFL quarterbacks to take every snap from scrimmage in 1990 … progress evident in quarterback rating improvement from weeks one to seven—29.6, 35.4, 47.4, 49.0, 56.7, 60.5, 68.5—then a season-end mark of 72.8 … connected on 20 of 29 attempts for 228 yards in season opener in RFK Stadium vs. Redskins (Sept. 9) but suffered four interceptions, three of which bounced off receivers' hands … brought Cards back from 14–0 deficit to thread 11 of 19 passes for 116 yards in 23–21 come-from-behind win at Philadelphia (Sept. 16), the first pro victory for both Rosenbach and first-year Head Coach Joe Bugel … out-rushed Randall Cunningham in the game (50–34 yards) … completed 19 of 27 attempts for 171 yards for season-best 70.4 percent completion mark in first interception and sack-free game by Cardinal quarterback since 1984 (Lomax, Sept. 30 vs. Miami) … . completed 18 of 30 attempts for first 250-plus-yard passing day as professional (256) vs. Chicago (Oct. 28) along with pair of touchdown passes … uncorked impressive arsenal vs. Green Bay (Nov. 18) with 285 yards and season-best three touchdown passes on 17 of 30 marksmanship … also rushed six times for 47 yards vs. Packers … completed 15 of 28 attempts for 188 yards in 34–14 win over New England (Nov. 25) but made mark with rushing touchdowns from two and six yards, the first Cardinal quarterback to rush for a pair of touchdowns since Lomax vs. San Diego Nov. 20, 1983 … hit 12 of 26 attempts for 184 yards in 20–17 win over Indianapolis (Dec. 2) and no interceptions for fifth time in season … 227 yards passing on 15-of-29 day in 24–13 triumph at Atlanta (Dec. 9) as well as gaining 38 yards on eight rushing attempts … endured frustrating day with three interceptions at Dallas (Dec. 16) but came back to generate career-best numbers the next week vs. N.Y. Giants … 23 completions, 41 attempts, and 381 yards vs. the eventual Super Bowl champions were personal standards and authored his best half of football as a pro in second stanza with 15 completions, 27 attempts, 265 yards, and 2 touchdowns … posted second consecutive 300-yard passing day with 301 yards on 19 completions in 31 tries vs. Philadelphia (Dec. 29), including 11–15–180 in second half comeback bid. ▲1989: Missed training camp and saw action for just three plays in preseason … entered preseason game vs. L.A. Rams (Nov. 19) in first NFL action and completed seven of 14 passes for 81 yards and one interception … engineered 51-yard fourth-

Check It Out ▲▲▲

▲Despite carrying 346 pounds on his 6–4 frame, he can dunk a basketball, as he did for NCAA Division III Ohio Wesleyan as a senior, averaging 10 minutes a game.

▲Along with teammate Alphonso Taylor (6–3, 360), provides Phoenix with two massive defensive tackles, prompting Head Coach Joe Bugel to hang the moniker "Pork and Loin" on the pair.

▲Brother Jerry Rucker played professional basketball for the Golden State Warriors.

▲Pro Career: Rose from being a free agent longshot in training camp to earn a starting role by midseason and become integral part of Cardinals' "Big Nickel" defensive scheme ... intriguing package to pair with Eric Swann as interior of Cards' new "four-three" defensive alignment ... despite bulk, amazes coaches with stamina during mini-camps, training camp, and regular season ... "holler guy" ... started five of last six contests as Phoenix run defense limited foes to a mere 67.5 yards per game on the ground during that span ... in first significant playing time as professional, collected two solo tackles, two assists, and a tackle for loss in 27–24 victory over Washington (Oct. 4) ... posted four stops the following week at N.Y. Giants (Oct. 11) ... elevated to starting role the next week and responded with six tackles at Dallas (Nov. 22) and six more stops against the Redskins in RFK Stadium (Nov. 29) ... turned in three tackles and first sack in 19–0 blanking of N.Y. Giants (Dec. 12), then provided five stops in Indianapolis (Dec. 20) ... closed out season with two solo tackles, two assists, and a sack vs. Tampa Bay (Dec. 27).

▲College/Personal: Became first Division III player invited to Hula Bowl all-star game following standout season at Ohio Wesleyan ... also performed in 16 games for school's basketball squad, converting 30 of 65 field goal attempts and 17 of 25 free throws ... began collegiate athletic career on a football scholarship to Eastern Michigan ... also attended Thornton Community College and Prairie State University in the Chicago area between EMU and Ohio Wesleyan ... swept NCAA Division III indoor and outdoor shotput crowns ... born in Mississippi ... moved to Chicago area at age 2 with his mother, Shirley, following his father's death ... youngest of eight children ... raised in Chicago's south suburbs ... eventually attended five high schools in three states—Illinois (2), Wisconsin (2), and Ohio (1), respectively—while living with his brother, Willie, during his academic course of study to become a dentist ... all-conference tight end at Shaker Heights (Ohio) High School ... also added all-conference honors in basketball ... physical education major at Ohio Wesleyan ... born Nov. 20, 1968 in University Park, Ill.

▲A starter since his 1982 rookie season, he is two years into his second decade as Cardinals' starting left tackle. Sharpe has protected the blind side for nine Card starting quarterbacks—Timm Rosenbach, Chris Chandler, Tom Tupa, Stan Gelbaugh, Gary Hogeboom, Neil Lomax, Cliff Stoudt, and Jim Hart—and four reserves—Tony Sacca, Craig Kupp, Scott Brunner, Rusty Lisch—over his 11-year NFL career.

▲Selected to two-year term on NFL Players Association Executive Board of Vice Presidents with teammate Dave Duerson.

▲Earned Pro Bowl invitations following 1987–89 seasons after being voted an alternate in both 1983 and '84.

▲Born in Havana, Cuba. He moved to Detroit with family at age six.

▲Pro Career: Veteran lineman still regarded as one of the NFL's best pass blockers ... great combination of strength, foot quickness, and intelligence ... three-time Pro Bowler (1987–89) after being selected as alternate two previous seasons ... played 44 games during 16-month stretch from 1984–85 due to signing with USFL ... after 16 games as Cardinal in 1984, signed with USFL's Memphis Showboats in spring of 1985 ... played 12 games in Memphis, then returned to Cardinals in time to start all 16 NFL contests in the fall of 1985 ... started 110 consecutive games dating back to 1982 rookie season until knee injury sidelined him for two games in 1989 ... has started all 162 professional games in which he's played. ▲1992: Came to training camp in perhaps his best slimmed-down physical condition ... key performer in pass protection scheme that allowed just 36 quarterback sacks, sixth best in conference ... best Cardinal protection since 1978 (22 sacks) ... started 15 contests, failing to appear vs. San Diego (Dec. 6) due to ankle injury ... despite ankle sprain, played entire contest the following week in 19–0 shutout of N.Y. Giants (Dec. 12). ▲1991: Started all 16 games, running starting streak to 147 consecutive contests ... played next to revolving door of guards throughout first half of season—Joe Wolf (games one-three), Vernice Smith (game four), Wolf (games five-six), Willie Williams (games seven-eight). ▲1990: Anchored talented, large offensive line that yielded fewest quarterback sacks (43) in 11 seasons and opened holes for rookie Johnny Johnson to earn Pro Bowl status ... honored as second team all-NFL by Associated Press ... played every down in 10 games, including all but seven snaps in first 14 contests ... played through sprained knee in 23–21 win over Philadelphia (Sept. 16), then after not practicing all week answered the bell for entire game in New Orleans (Sept. 23) ... caught first touchdown pass from quarterback Timm Rosenbach on tackle-eligible play at N.Y. Giants (Oct. 21) ... pulled hamstring vs. Giants but still played all but one down the next week vs. Chicago (Oct. 28) ... ankle injury in return game vs. Giants relegated him to bench in fourth quarter but he still played from opening whistle to final gun in finale vs. Eagles (Dec. 29). ▲1989: Voted to third consecutive Pro Bowl ... missed training camp due to contract negotiations but opened season at his usual left tackle post ... started first nine games until knee injury vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 5) ... missed two contests but returned against Tampa Bay (Nov. 26) for final five

▲His work ethic has been paid the highest compliment by his head coach, Joe Bugel, who originated the "Hogs" in Washington: "He is the real Cardinal who brings his lunch box and gives you an honest eight hours work."

▲Enjoyed bit part with former teammate David Galloway in movie "Neon Empire" filmed in Florence, Arizona during the 1988 off-season. Starring Gary Busey, the film is about a mafia invasion of Las Vegas.

▲After earning UPI all-rookie honors at right tackle in 1985, Smith transitioned to guard in 1987, his third professional season.

▲Pro Career: Eight-year starter whose savvy and intensity in the trenches goes unmatched among his teammates ... has started last 97 games at right guard after filling in at both guard and tackle ... all-rookie pick as tackle in 1985, he has performed solidly at guard since 1987 ... overcomes lack of textbook size with an irrepressible and resolute approach to the game ... along with linebacker Freddie Joe Nunn (both entering ninth year), stands second on club in seniority as Cardinal to tackle Luis Sharpe (12th season). ▲1992: Again displayed consistency and reliability despite playing between four different right tackles (Mark May, Rick Cunningham, Danny Villa, and Joe Wolf) and three centers (Villa, Bill Lewis, and Ed Cunningham) over course of 16-game season ... played every snap in 15 games, and missed only a handful of plays due to sprained elbow at Philadelphia (Oct. 25). ▲1991: Lined up for every offensive snap (993 plays), a feat equalled on club only by center Bill Lewis ... with trade of Tootie Robbins to Green Bay during 1992 off-season, he worked with new partner on right side for first time since he broke into starting lineup in 1987. ▲1990: Played every snap in 15 games and missed just three downs all season ... adjusted well playing alongside new center Bill Lewis ... prominent ingredient in success of rookie Pro Bowl running back Johnny Johnson and fact that Phoenix offensive line improved quarterback sack/yardage numbers by 13/94 yards over previous season. ▲1989: Only offensive player to start all 16 games and one of only three overall (Smith, strong safety Tim McDonald, linebacker Ken Harvey were the others) ... saw both Robbins and rookie Joe Wolf start on his right side at tackle while Derek Kennard and Kani Kauahi opened at center on his left flank. ▲1988: Started every game for second consecutive year at right guard ... played every down in nine contests and was integral cog in continued fine play of Phoenix offense ... suffered knee sprain vs. Dallas (Oct. 31), then aggravated it the next week vs. San Francisco but did not miss a play in either victory. ▲1987: Stepped into veteran Joe Bostic's right guard spot during training camp when Bostic signed late ... started entire season with solid results ... provided steadying influence between injury-ridden Robbins at tackle and new center Kennard. ▲1986: Started all five preseason games and first 11 games of regular season at right tackle before ankle injury limited him to only two starts in last five contests ... started last two games of season at right guard when Bostic was sidelined with injury ... playing time on field goal and point-after-touchdown units last part of season ...worked in practice at guard periodically. ▲1985: Received starting nod five of last eight contests at right tackle for injured Robbins (hamstring) ... in NFL

▲Father, Lawrence George Williams, a laboratory supervisor for Union Carbide, gave Aeneas his unusual first name to avoid saddling him, along with his brother, Achilles, with common moniker similar to his own.

▲Declined academic scholarship to Dartmouth to attend Southern like his father and brother. Enrolled to pursue interest in student government, not football. Acted as freshman senator and sophomore class vice president. As football walk-on during junior year, earned starting role by fifth game of the season. Earned degree in accounting from Southern in four years with 3.2 grade-point average. Currently studying towards master's degree in off-season.

▲As a youngster in talent-rich New Orleans, Williams played against or with five future NFL defensive backs—Maurice Hurst (New England), Kevin Lewis (San Francisco), Garry Lewis, (L.A. Raiders), Michael Lindsey (L.A. Rams), and Ashley Ambrose (Indianapolis). Ambrose, Hurst, K. Lewis and Williams attended Alcee Fortier High School together.

▲Six 1991 interceptions gave him a share of the NFC lead, making him the first rookie cornerback to achieve that notoriety since the Cowboys' Everson Walls (11) in 1981. Prior to that, the last rookie to turn the trick was Detroit Hall of Famer Lem Barney (10) in 1967.

▲Pro Career: Stepped into starting role as rookie in 1991 and has performed like a seasoned veteran with impeccable preparation, physical conditioning, and mental toughness ... after outstanding rookie season, recovered from rough start last year to re-establish himself as one of the top coverage corners in the NFC. ▲1992: Rebounded admirably from a trying start during his sophomore season to finish impressively ... started all 16 games at right cornerback, posting 48 tackles, a team-high 13 passes defensed, 3 interceptions, 1 fumble recovery, and 1 forced fumble ... after just 10 tackles (none in two contests) and only three passes defensed in the first five outings, regrouped to collect 38 stops, pluck 3 interceptions, and swat away 10 enemy passes in the last 11 games as a key element in the Cardinals' defensive resurgence ... broke out of slump with his first interception and three passes defensed at Philadelphia (Oct. 25) as the Eagles managed just nine pass completions ... appeared to be headed for the end zone on the interception, but was stopped short when he ran into a roadblock of an Eagle player and a game official near the goal line ... two touchdowns nullified by officials' rulings ... scooped up fumble and raced 61 yards for an apparent game-winning score in fourth quarter at L.A. Rams (Nov. 8), but touchdown was nullified when teammate Eric Swann was flagged for an illegal block during Williams' return ... Cards scored the go-ahead touchdown on the ensuing possession, however, in 20–14 victory ... two weeks later vs. Dallas (Nov. 22), made diving interception and raced 78 yards for another potential touchdown and 14–3 Phoenix lead, but he was ruled down by contact ... also posted seven tackles vs. Cowboys ... played solid game in 19–0 shutout over N.Y. Giants (Dec. 12) with three solo tackles and two passes defensed as Giants completed just nine of 25 pass attempts ... registered five solo stops and four-quarter interception in season finale vs. Tampa Bay (Dec. 27). ▲1991: Posted memorable performance by a NFL rookie cornerback in recent seasons ... named NFC defensive

Rams (Sept. 1) ... grabbed second interception the following week vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 8), and made fumble recovery in end zone ... both efforts thwarted Eagle scoring drives in 26–10 victory at Veterans Stadium ... did not start at Washington (Sept. 15) due to ankle sprain but still saw duty as reserve ... responded with seven tackles and a pass defensed at N.Y. Giants (Oct. 6) ... played all 55 defensive snaps and collected three tackles and batted away a pair of passes against Atlanta's "Red Gun" offense in 16–10 Phoenix victory ... added third theft of season at Dallas (Nov. 3) along with four tackles ... tallied fourth interception of season and swatted away two other passes vs. Philadelphia (Nov. 24) ... picked off John Elway twice at Denver (Dec. 15), both times setting up Cardinal scores ... finished impressive rookie season with five tackles vs. New Orleans (Dec. 22) in season finale.
▲College/Personal: Former walk-on at Southern in 1988 who shared national lead in interceptions with 11 as senior in 1990 and ranked second with seven as junior ... collected 218 tackles, 20 interceptions and broke up 25 passes in just three collegiate seasons ... all-district most valuable player at Fortier High School in native New Orleans, La. ... enrolled in graduate school when drafted by Phoenix ... born January 29, 1968 ... married during off-season ... resides with wife, Tracy, in New Orleans during off-season.

▲Led Boston College offensive line that helped Doug Flutie win the 1984 Heisman Trophy. The youngest member of B.C.'s 1985 Cotton Bowl team, Wolf hadn't turned 18 when the Golden Eagles left for Dallas on Dec. 26. He turned 18 two days later. ▲Brother Mike was starting center for Penn State. Both suffered injuries—Joe (ankle), Mike (knee)—in the same nationally-televised game in 1987, a 27-17 Penn State victory.

▲Pro Career: Injuries and surgeries to both shoulders have hampered career of former first-round draft choice ... opened 1991 season at left guard, but played in just eight games due to torn pectoral muscle, then suffered same injury to other side last season, limiting him to three games and two starting roles ... injuries to offensive line mates prompted him to play at three different positions on offensive line as rookie in 1989. ▲1992: Spent first 12 weeks of season on injured reserve list with pectoral muscle tear on left side ... had surgery to correct problem, then activated Dec. 5 ... started immediately at right tackle vs. San Diego (Dec. 6), his first starting assignment in 21 games dating back to midway through 1991 season ... started and played briefly at right tackle in the following week's 19-0 shutout over N.Y. Giants (Dec. 12), then played as reserve at Indianapolis (Dec. 20) ... did not see action in season finale vs. Tampa Bay (Dec. 27). ▲1991: Development through training camp enabled club to trade long-time starting guard Derek Kennard to New Orleans as part of deal to acquire talented cornerback Robert Massey ... lined up at left guard in season opener at L.A. Rams (Sept. 1) but suffered pectoral muscle tear ... hindered by the injury over course of next six games before being relegated to injured reserve list on Oct. 19 ... activated Dec. 7 ... did not play in games 14-15 ... saw action as reserve in season finale vs. New Orleans (Dec. 22). ▲1990: Saw action on offensive line in only two games as the Phoenix starters played 99 percent of the downs from scrimmage (4,957 of combined 5,005 possible downs at the five positions) ... came off bench briefly (24 plays) vs. New England (Nov. 25) as right tackle Tootie Robbins was temporarily hobbled by ankle sprain ... also stepped in for 15 snaps late in game at Dallas (Dec. 16) ... saw extensive special teams action on field goal and point-after-touchdown units. ▲1989: Endured season of on-the-job training at three different positions as rookie in 1989 ... started at right tackle for games two-seven, at left guard for games eight-nine, at left tackle for outings 10-11, back to left guard for contests 12-14, then right tackle again for game 15 before finishing the campaign at left guard in the season finale ... earned numerous all-rookie acclaim (UPI, College and Pro Football Newsweekly, Pro Football Weekly, and Football Digest) ... started one game at guard in preseason, then subbed for Robbins (knee) at tackle ... replaced former starter Todd Peat (waived) and fellow rookie Mike Zandofsky at left guard when Robbins returned ... bumped outside to left tackle when Luis Sharpe left game early vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 5), then stayed there the next two weeks before moving back to guard vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 26) when Sharpe returned ... replaced Robbins (triceps injury) vs. Denver (Dec. 16), then shifted back to left guard for the finale vs. Philadelphia (Dec. 24) when Robbins returned. ▲College/Personal: All-America honorable mention as both sophomore and senior ... only a knee injury as junior prevented three-time all-America acclaim ... played guard and tackle in college ... all-league and all-Pennsylvania center and defensive tackle at William Allen High School in his native Allentown, Pa. ... threw shot put and discus on school's track team ... center on basketball squad ... has been a "bird" his entire football life—a Canary in high school, a Golden Eagle in college, and now a Cardinal ... enrolled in the College of Arts and Sciences at B.C. ... born Dec. 28, 1966 ... single ... resides in Tempe, Ariz.

1992 REVIEW

1992 REVIEW

Little did third-year Phoenix Head Coach Joe Bugel realize he was being prophetic during preseason training camp when he offered, "Learn to play smash-mouth defense in the NFL, and you'll have a chance to win most every week, particularly in the NFC East."

The Cardinals learned to play stifling defense in 1992, and true to their coach's words, they had a chance to win most every weekend despite facing the NFL's toughest schedule. (Phoenix opponents posted a 146–110 composite record for a league-high .570 winning percentage.)

Phoenix strutted its best stuff against some of the league's finest, defeating San Francisco and Washington at Sun Devil Stadium. A late-season home-field shutout victory over the New York Giants gave the Cards triumphs in Arizona over the last three teams to win Super Bowls.

Phoenix Head Coach Joe Bugel's 1992 Cardinal team learned to play smash-mouth defense.

However, a road success against the Rams and an agonizing list of near-misses that included most of the rest of the best—New Orleans (30–21), at Philadelphia (7–3), at Atlanta (20–17), Dallas (16–10), San Diego (27–21), at Indianapolis (16–13), and Tampa Bay (7–3)—was all the remainder of the schedule offered.

Nineteen ninety-two will be remembered for what might have been!

Defense

The growth—literally and figuratively—of the Cardinals' defense was the most significant development of 1992.

After struggling through the season's first five games when the enemy was averaging 155 yards per game on the ground, including an October 11 debacle at the Meadowlands against New York when the Giants rushed for 260 yards, the Cardinals committed to youth and inserted their "Young Guns" into the defensive line.

The defensive ride that sophomores Eric Swann and Mike Jones, rookies Keith Rucker and Michael Bankston, and newcomer Reuben Davis, a mid-season acquisition from Tampa Bay, symbolized the rest of the campaign was remarkable.

Over the season's remaining 11 games, Cardinal opponents failed to muster 100 team rushing yards eight times, including the last four outings, and averaged only 77 yards on the ground. Five playoff teams—Chargers, Cowboys, Eagles, Redskins, and Saints—were among the stymied. The foes were held under 20 points seven times and under 10 on three occasions.

The fast finish overcame the slow start statistically as the Card defenders ended the campaign boasting the following list of noteworthies.

- ▲Points allowed, 332, lowest total since 1978 (296)
- ▲Rushing attempts, 436, fewest since 1968 (423)
- ▲Yards per rush, 3.75, lowest since 1970 (3.73)
- ▲Rushing yards, 1,635, fewest over a 16-game schedule and the lowest since 1968 (1,558)

- ▲Yards rushing per game, 102.2, an improvement of 31.3 yards per outing from 1991 (133.5) and the best rushing defense since 1966 (85.1)
- ▲Rushing touchdowns, 13, less than one-half of the 1991 total (27)
- ▲First downs rushing, 101, best effort over a 16-game schedule and the lowest total since 1970 (96 in 14 games)
- ▲First downs, 281, best effort over a 16-game schedule and the lowest total since 1977 (258 in 14 games)
- ▲Third-down conversions, 67 of 185 (36.2 percent), fewest since 1983 (64 of 204, 31.4 percent) and the lowest opponent percentage since 1988 (75 of 210, 35.7 percent)

The most remarkable aspect of the late-season defensive run was the play following the November 15 game at Atlanta when knee injuries cost the Cardinals formidable outside linebackers Ken Harvey and Freddie Joe Nunn. Despite their losses with six games to play, the Cardinal coaches devised a "Big Nickel" scheme that featured the team's four largest down linemen (Swann, Jones, Rucker, and Davis), averaging over 300 pounds, two inside linebackers (Eric Hill and Tyronne Stowe), and an extra defensive back (Lorenzo Lynch) to complement Pro Bowl strong safety Tim McDonald and his normal secondary cadre of free safety Michael Zordich and classy cornerbacks Robert Massey and Aeneas Williams.

The defensive surge never skipped a beat, limiting foes to 67.5 yards rushing per game over the final six outings, and a "final four" of 29, 70, 47, and 30 enemy rushing totals (44-yard per-game average), respectively, by the Chargers, Giants, Colts, and Buccaneers.

By season's end, the "Big Nickel" had become as basic to the Cardinal defense as its "three-four" scheme.

Swann, the Cards' first-round draft choice two years ago without the benefit of college experience, cut his eye teeth in 1992 to become an every-down force in the defensive resurgence. Inserted into the starting lineup for the season's final 11 outings, the 23-year-old man-child registered 57 tackles (40 solos), including 11 for losses, 6 deflected passes, 1 sack, 3 caused fumbles, and 1 safety during that span. He also forced a fumble and blocked a field goal at Dallas on September 20. Overall, he finished fourth on the team and led the linemen with 70 total tackles (51 solos).

Cornerback Robert Massey registered the seson's most spectacular defensive plays en route to his first Pro Bowl berth.

Hill and Stowe found the "Big Nickel" to their liking. For instance, the pair combined for 44 tackles weeks 12–13 against the Cowboys and Redskins and 29 more November 8 against the Rams. Hill, who led the 1991 Cardinals with 107 tackles, was the '92 runner-up with 104 stops, one more than Stowe. Over the season's final six weeks when the Cards deployed the "Big Nickel," Hill and Stowe combined for 80 tackles.

McDonald claimed the Phoenix tackle title for the fourth time in his five years as a starter with 107 stops, marking the fourth time in his career he has bettered the century mark. In so doing, he was voted to his third Pro Bowl squad. McDonald averaged 121 total tackles per season in his five campaigns as a starter.

Flashy cornerback Massey made his presence felt in dramatic fashion in 1992. October 4 against Washington, the former Saint enjoyed a dream game, returning two interceptions 31 and 41 yards for touchdowns. He was the 17th NFL player and the fourth Cardinal to accomplish the feat. November 15 at Atlanta, he returned his third pickoff of the season for a 46-yard touchdown to set a Cardinal single-season record and become the 11th player in NFL history to return three interceptions for touchdowns in one season. Massey eventually led the Cards with five pickoffs.

Offense

The Cardinal offense still was searching for an identity after 17 weeks following a season of transition, flux, and an unexpected turn of events.

After entering the new campaign bolstered by the return of quarterback Timm Rosenbach, who missed the entire 1991 season with a knee injury, the Cards were dealt the emotional blow of losing their fiery leader twice in the season's first two games. The second injury, a separated throwing (right) shoulder against the Eagles on September 13, shelved Rosenbach for four games.

But when Rosenbach healed, the unexpected had become the obvious: Chris Chandler was entrenched as the Phoenix quarterback!

Besides quarterback, lineup changes were frequent. Different starters also surfaced at left guard (2), center (3), right tackle (3), left tackle (2), and running back (4). Only tight end Walter Reeves, right guard Lance Smith, and left guard (14 games)/right tackle (two games) Mark May answered the bell 16 times; only Reeves and L. Smith did it at the same positions.

Quarterback Chris Chandler found a home in Phoenix after assuming control of the Cardinal offense.

The uncertainty at running back was particularly unsettling. Starter Johnny Johnson, whose protracted contract negotiations and early-season injuries relegated him to little or no playing time over the season's first seven games, gained all but 22 of his team-leading 734 rushing yards in eight of the Cards' final nine tests. Prior to Johnson's reemergence, Ivory Lee Brown, Johnny Bailey, and Larry Centers formed a running back committee. Brown and Bailey also each missed a month with injuries.

Chandler found a home in Phoenix by seizing his opportunity. He posted career highs in virtually every offensive category: Pass attempts (413), pass completions (245), yards passing (2,832), completion percentage (59.3), touchdown passes (15), and yards rushing (149).

Highlights of his season included engineering the Cards' 27–24 upset of defending Super Bowl champion Washington on October 4 that featured a game-winning nine-play, 85-yard touchdown drive that left only 41 seconds on the clock. A week later at the Meadowlands, he tossed a 72-yard touchdown pass against the Giants, the second longest of his career. November 1 in the 24–14 upset of the 49ers, Chandler authored three touchdown passes, his career best. Nov. 8 at Anaheim against the Rams, he completed 21 of 30 passes for 224 yards and drove the Cardinals 40 yards on six plays to tally the game-winning touchdown with 2:04 remaining. In the Cards' back-to-back victories over the 49ers and Rams November 1–8, Chandler completed 40 of 63 passes (.635) for 421 yards and three touchdowns.

Rosenbach's only action following his return from injured reserve was in relief of an injured Chandler. At Philadelphia on October 25, Rosenbach completed six of 13 passes for 45 yards in the last one and one-half quarters. Against Dallas on November 22, he completed 10 of 17 tosses for 80 yards and drove the Cards to one field goal. At Washington on Thanksgiving weekend, he made his first start since week two, only to have four passes intercepted by the Redskins in Washington's 41–3 victory. In the season finale against Tampa Bay, Rosenbach threw an end zone interception on the game's last play.

The November 1 return of Johnson breathed life into the Cards' rushing attack. Johnson cracked the 100-yard rushing barrier weeks 14–15 with a career-best 156 yards against the Giants followed by 146 more at Indianapolis. He also seized his first start November 1 against the 49ers to register 102 yards rushing on 26 carries, the Cards' first 100-yard effort since Anthony Thompson posted 136 yards against New England on November 25, 1990. Johnson also flirted with 100 yards against the Rams (91) and Buccaneers (91).

During Johnson's absence, the huge Brown, who turned heads in the World League with San Antonio the previous spring when he led the circuit in rushing with a league-record 726 yards and a 4.7-yard average, emerged as the Cards' starting running back. Bailey and Centers, who each made starts, were major contributors in the passing game, combining for 83 receptions (Centers, 50; Bailey, 33).

Centers' 50 catches equalled flashy Terry Metcalf's 1974 total that ranks fifth among running backs in Cardinal single-season annals.

The talented wide receiving corps—Ricky Proehl (60 receptions), Randal Hill (58), and Ernie Jones (38)—was as balanced as advertised by combining for 156 catches. Proehl led the Cardinals in receiving for the second time in his three-year career. His streak of 33 consecutive games with receptions was snapped by Dallas on November 22, but in the two ensuing games, he posted back-to-back 100-yard receiving efforts, a team first since J.T. Smith in weeks 4–5 in 1989. Proehl logged a career-high nine-reception outing at Anaheim against the Rams and his longest career reception, a 63-yard touchdown against San Diego on December 6.

R. Hill and his blazing speed led the Cardinals in receiving yardage with 861 yards. He finished the season with a 28-game streak of consecutive games with receptions. He also posted lengthy receptions of 45, 44, 42, 40, 40, 37, and 34 yards.

Jones, who lost four games due to a stint on injured reserve with a separated shoulder, caught Chandler's 72-yard touchdown pass against the Giants along with two other scoring strikes of 46 and 33 yards.

Special-teams standout Anthony Edwards capably replaced Jones during his absence and caught his first NFL touchdown October 18 against New Orleans.

Proehl, R. Hill, and Centers became the first Cardinal trio to each grab 50 or more passes in the same season since 1984 (Roy Green, 78; Ottis Anderson, 70; Pat Tilley, 52).

The offensive line became a patchwork proposition due to injuries. Nine different players started games in five different combinations.

May was the only Cardinal on either side of the ball on the field for every snap (948) for his unit.

Veteran Danny Villa, the Nogales, Arizona native and former Arizona State University star the Cardinals brought home in an off-season trade with New England, proved to be the line's "M.V.P."—most versatile player. He started 12 games at three different positions—center (weeks one–four, nine), right tackle (weeks 10–13, 16–17), and left tackle (week 14). He also served as long snapper for both placements and punts.

Left tackle Luis Sharpe enjoyed one of his finest seasons at age 32 and teamed with the 33-year-old May to comprise a formidable left side.

Right tackle appeared solved when huge (6–6, 307) Rick Cunningham, a highly-sought lineman who was the only unanimous all-World League selection in 1992 with the Orlando Thunder, was inserted into the lineup at Dallas on September 20, his first NFL start. But after six encouraging starts, he fractured his left forearm November 1 and was lost for the season.

Center became a weekly question. Two-year starter Bill Lewis, whose off-season back surgery preceded his release following a contract impasse, re-signed with Phoenix in early October. Immediately inserted into the lineup for three starts, Lewis fought shoulder and leg miseries the rest of the season. He eventually was able to start just six times (weeks six-eight, 14–17). Villa (five) and rookie Ed Cunningham (five) made the other 10 starts over the ball.

Vernice Smith (left guard) and Joe Wolf (right tackle) also each made two starts. Wolf spent most of the year recovering from chest (pectoral) surgery.

When it was said and done, however, the line allowed only 36 quarterback sacks, the best protection accorded Card signal-callers since 1978 (22 sacks).

The offense as a unit also crept into the team's all-time single-season lists in the following categories.

▲First downs passing, 161 (fifth)
▲Pass attempts, 517 (sixth)
▲Net yards passing, 3,086 (eighth)
▲Pass completions, 258 (eighth)
▲Gross yards passing, 3,344 (ninth)

Additionally, the Cards scored 243 points, 47 more than 1991, and their 31:02 time-of-possession average was the team's best since 1988 (31:27). The Cardinals punted only 54 times, fewest by a Cardinal team since 1970 (41) and an indication of the ball-control personality the unit was developing.

Special Teams

Special teams were a bright spot for the 1992 Cardinals, led by punter Rich Camarillo, who earned his fourth career Pro Bowl berth, his second consecutive appearance, and his third trip to Hawaii in four seasons with Phoenix, and Plan B signee Bailey, who led the NFL in punt-return average (13.2).

For the second straight campaign, Camarillo led the NFL in net punting average with a 39.6-yard mean to come within a whisker of becoming the first punter in league history to average 40 yards in that category. He ranked seventh in the loop with his 42.9-yard gross average.

Camarillo enjoyed amazing success deep in enemy territory. Thirty-eight of his 54 punts forced the opposition to start behind its own 30 yard line. He ranked second in the NFL with 23 boots inside the 20 yard line. Thirteen of the 23 were marked inside the 10 yard line, and eight were put in play at or inside the five yard line. At Dallas on September 20, Camarillo rolled a 73-yard bomb that came within three yards of matching his career long dead at the Cowboys' one yard line.

The former Patriot and Ram also watched only two punts drift for touchbacks to tie San Francisco's Klaus Wilmsmeyer for the league low.

The 11-year veteran could have posted even better numbers if not hampered by an early-season pulled thigh muscle that sidelined him for the opener at Tampa Bay.

Place kicker Greg Davis suffered through a sub-par season that was epitomized in the season finale against Tampa Bay when he and his Buccaneer counterpart, Eddie Murray, missed six consecutive (three apiece) three-point attempts due to Sun Devil Stadium's off-track playing field. The day's frustration followed G. Davis' late-season return to form when he made four consecutive field goals.

During his trying year, G. Davis made 13 of 26 field-goal attempts and all 28 of his point-after-touchdown conversion tries for a team-leading total of 67 points. He missed his first field-goal attempt from inside 40 yards as a Cardinal and his first in 15 attempts from that distance.

Camarillo and G. Davis also will remember 1992 as the year they were forced to trade hats due to injuries. Camarillo's early-season leg injury forced G. Davis, who led NCAA Division I-AA in punting with a 44.1-yard average at The Citadel in 1986, to punt in the season opener at Tampa Bay. He responded by averaging 41.8 yards on four kicks. After G. Davis pulled a hamstring in pre-game warm-ups October 4 prior to the Cards' game against Washington, Camarillo was forced to handle kickoffs and one missed placement (extra point) following the first Phoenix touchdown, prompting the gimpy G. Davis, who already had showered, to return and painfully convert three critical points-after-touchdown in the Cards' 27–24 upset victory over the Redskins.

Bailey posted a 65-yard punt return and kickoff returns of 63 and 56 yards. Missing the season's final four games with a sprained ankle kept him from threatening Cardinal records in both categories. The 63-yard kickoff return was the longest by a Cardinal since Stump Mitchell's 66-yard effort against Dallas on Sept. 11, 1983. Bailey's 65-yard punt return November 22 against Dallas was the Cards' longest since a 76-yard touchdown return by Vai Sikahema in 1987.

Rich Camarillo earned his fourth Pro Bowl nod by almost becoming the first punter in NFL history to average 40 yards in net punting average.

The special-teams units also shined. The punt unit ranked second in the NFL in both returns (11 yards) and coverage (6.4 yards). Its kickoff counterpart also finished second in the league in returns (22.1 yards). On coverage, it ranked second in the conference (18.3 yards).

The longest punt return against Phoenix in 1992 was only 26 yards; the longest kickoff return traveled just 43 yards.

September 6, 1992 • Tampa Stadium (41,315)

Phoenix opened the 1992 season on the road for the fifth consecutive year. After falling behind 3–0 in the first quarter on the first of three field goals by Buc kicker Ken Willis, the Cardinals drove 80 yards in 17 second-quarter plays for a three-yard Anthony Thompson touchdown run and a 7–3 advantage. Tampa Bay regained the lead it never relinquished on its next possession, driving 80 yards for a touchdown on a one-yard run by Reggie Cobb.

New Cardinal kick returner Johnny Bailey sparkled, returning four kickoffs 151 yards, including a long of 63 yards, and leading the Cardinals in rushing with 35 yards on six carries. He also caught three passes for five yards and fair caught one punt.

Eagles 31, Cardinals 14 ▲▲▲▲▲▲▲

September 13, 1992 • Sun Devil Stadium (45,811)

The Cardinals succumbed to Philadelphia's big-play offense and a time-consuming Eagle rushing attack.

The Cardinals stormed from a 10–0 deficit with relief quarterback Chris Chandler at the controls. After Chandler found wide receiver Ricky Proehl for a 10-yard touchdown pass and a missed field goal attempt, he hit wide receiver Ernie Jones for a 46-yard touchdown pass. The Cardinals led 14–10.

But the staunch Eagle defense held Phoenix scoreless the rest of the way, limited the Cards to 84 total yards in the second half, and capped the evening's scoring when end Reggie White rambled 37 yards into the end zone with a fourth-quarter Chandler fumble.

Offensively, the Randall Cunningham-quarterbacked Eagles registered 15 plays of 10 yards or more.

Cowboys 31, Cardinals 20 ▲▲▲▲▲▲

September 20, 1992 • Texas Stadium (62,575)

The Cardinals dropped their 11th consecutive regular-season game to a methodical (413 total yards, 34:01 time of possession) and lethal (touchdown passes of 87 and 41 yards) Dallas offense.

Cowboy quarterback Troy Aikman and wide receiver Michael Irvin connected on the 87-yard scoring strike on the game's second play from scrimmage. The Cards answered to tie the contest when quarterback Chris Chandler found wide receiver Randal Hill for a 41-yard touchdown pass. Dallas countered with the second of three Aikman-Irvin touchdown tosses from 41 yards.

Irvin's spectacular day—eight receptions, 210 yards receiving, three touchdowns—led a Dallas offense that clicked despite poor field position, starting seven of its nine possessions at or inside its own 20 yard line. Irvin's 210 receiving yards were the most in history against the Cardinals in a non-strike game.

Chandler posted career bests in pass attempts (43), completions (28), and yards passing (383). Other Cardinal noteworthies included a 73-yard Rich Camarillo punt, and a blocked field goal attempt by Eric Swann.

October 4, 1992 • Sun Devil Stadium (34,488)

Phoenix overcame deficits of 17–0 and 24–6 to snap its 11-game two-season losing streak behind two NFL record-tying fourth-quarter interception returns for touchdowns by cornerback Robert Massey. The come-from-behind victory also ended the defending Super Bowl champion Redskins' seven-game series winning skein and handed Cardinal Head Coach Joe Bugel, a nine-year Washington assistant, his first victory in five tries over his former employer.

Washington carried a 24–6 lead into the fourth quarter. But in the span of three Washington possessions, Massey cut the deficit to 24–20 with 31- and 41-yard interception returns for touchdowns.

The Cardinals began their game-winning 85-yard, nine-play drive with 3:48 remaining. Running back Larry Centers capped the dramatic turnaround with a nine-yard touchdown reception.

The pulsating game ended when Washington kicker Chip Lohmiller missed a 40-yard field goal attempt.

Th Cards' 103 team rushing yards cracked the 100-yard barrier for the first time in 10 games.

Giants 31, Cardinals 21 ▲▲▲▲▲▲▲

October 11, 1992 • Giants Stadium (70,042)

A New York attack that featured 260 team net yards rushing sent Phoenix to its ninth consecutive loss at Giants Stadium.

The Cardinals stunned the sell-out crowd on the game's fourth play from scrimmage when quarterback Chris Chandler connected with wide receiver Ernie Jones on a 72-yard touchdown pass. But after an exchange of punts on the two ensuing series, the Giants scored touchdowns on three consecutive possessions—a 63-yard jaunt by Rodney Hampton, a six-yard run by fullback Jarrod Bunch, and a 25-yard pass from quarterback Jeff Hostetler to wide receiver Ed McCaffery—to take a commanding 21–7 lead. During the three New York scoring drives, the Giants ran the ball 14 times in 16 plays. Hostetler also scored the Giants' lone second-half touchdown on a 16-yard scamper.

Running back Johnny Bailey enjoyed another productive afternoon highlighted by his first Cardinal touchdown and a 56-yard kickoff return. He returned six kickoffs 146 yards, one punt 11 yards, rushed six times for 32 yards, and caught one pass for a seven-yard touchdown.

Saints 30, Cardinals 21 ▲▲▲▲▲▲▲

October 18, 1992 • Sun Devil Stadium (27,735)

A big-play New Orleans offense and a career-best 355-yard passing performance by Saints quarterback Bobby Hebert overcame a 14–3 Cardinals lead to spell defeat for Phoenix.

The Cardinals drove 80 and 79 yards on their second and third possessions to take an early lead and maintained their momentum when defensive back Dexter Davis made his first career pass interception in the Phoenix end zone to thwart New Orleans from the Card nine yard line.

But beginning with its final possession of the first half, the Saints tallied 27 unanswered points to take a commanding 30–14 lead. The Cards fell victim to seven plays of 20 yards or longer, including a 59-yard touchdown connection between Hebert and wide receiver Quinn Early. Saint wide receiver Eric Martin enjoyed a memorable day, collecting eight receptions for 151 yards and a touchdown to become the Saints all-time touchdown leader with 44. Saint kicker Morten Andersen's 52-yard first-half field goal made him the 20th player in NFL history to score 1,000 career points. The field goal also was the 20th time he had connected from 50 yards or more, a league record.

Eagles 7, Cardinals 3 ▲▲▲▲▲▲▲

October 25, 1992 • Veterans Stadium (64,676)

Memorable defense was the order of the day as the underdog Cardinals won the statistical battle but lost the war at Philadelphia.

The Cardinals' defense bettered their vaunted Eagle counterpart, limiting Philadelphia to 11 first downs, 9 pass completions, and 84 yards passing while sacking Eagle quarterback Randall Cunningham five times. The Card defense's second-half performance was remarkable, allowing Philadelphia only minus 25 net yards passing. It also yielded only seven total net yards in the second stanza before the Eagles added 37 more yards on the ground during their final possession that still left them with just 44 total net yards after intermission.

Phoenix also posted its first five-sack game in almost two years.

Stung by the big play in the first quarter, a 40-yard touchdown pass from Cunningham to wide receiver Calvin Williams, Phoenix missed two golden opportunities to take command that proved decisive. Trailing 7–0, the Cards were poised to tie the game when cornerback Aeneas Williams intercepted his first pass of the year at the Eagle 26 yard line and returned it 23 yards to the Philadelphia three yard line. But the Eagles proceeded to stage an unforgettable goal-line stand, turning Phoenix away seven times, including the last six snaps from the one yard line. The Cards also reached the Eagle six yard line with their first possession of the second half only to have Greg Davis miss a 24-yard field-goal attempt, his first miss from inside 40 yards in a Cardinal uniform. The Cardinals also threatened on their final drive, moving from their own 20 yard line to the Philadelphia 11 before two Timm Rosenbach passes fell incomplete.

Cardinals 24, 49ers 14 ▲▲▲▲▲▲▲

November 1, 1992 • Sun Devil Stadium (47,642)

The Cardinals surprised the 49ers and their league-best 6–1 record with a ball-control offense featuring a new-found rushing attack, quarterback Chris Chandler's steady passing that included a career-high three touchdown passes, and a ferocious defensive effort.

Running back Johnny Johnson, making his first start in 1992, rushed for 102 yards on 26 carries, the Cards' first 100-yard rusher in a 29-game span. Johnson led a balanced offense that logged 342 total yards—191 passing and 151 rushing—and held the ball for over 12 more minutes than the 49ers.

In command throughout, the Cards scored the game's first 17 points on two Chandler-to-wide receiver Randal Hill touchdown passes (4 and 23 yards) and a 33-yard Greg Davis field goal. It was the first two-touchdown reception game of Hill's career. After San Francisco dented the scoreboard in the third quarter with a freakish touchdown—49er wide receiver Mike Sherrard's 39-yard dash after stealing the ball from Cardinal inside linebacker Eric Hill during his return of a San Francisco fumble—the Cardinals regained momentum when Johnny Bailey returned a 49er punt 27 yards and Chandler found wide receiver Ricky Proehl for a 22-yard touchdown pass.

The Phoenix defense authored four turnovers—three fumble recoveries, one pass interception—while also posting three quarterback sacks and limiting the potent 49er offense to 63 yards rushing, 3 rushing first downs, and 49 offensive plays.

Cardinals 20, Rams 14

November 8, 1992 • Anaheim Stadium (40,788)

The Cardinals rode ball-control offense and snarly defense to victory. By limiting the Rams to 54 net yards rushing on 18 carries, allowing one-for-six third-down efficiency, holding L.A. to three plays or less on five of 11 possessions, stopping Ram drives in L.A. territory six times, and forcing three turnovers (two fumble recoveries, one pass interception), the Phoenix defense was able to return the ball to its turnover-free offensive counterpart that methodically gained 324 total net yards (216 passing, 108 rushing), monopolized the ball 37:07 of the game's 60 minutes, and posted two rushing touchdowns (running back Johnny Johnson) for the first time since Dec. 8, 1991.

Wide receiver Ricky Proehl was the offensive standout with a career-best nine receptions for 126 yards.

The Cardinals lost a precarious 13–7 lead early in the fourth quarter when the Rams drove 44 yards on six plays for a touchdown and a 14–13 advantage. When Phoenix kicker Greg Davis missed a potential go-ahead field-goal attempt from 44 yards, the Card defense faced a do-or-die L.A. possession. Phoenix responded when outside linebacker Ken Harvey forced a fumble at the Cardinal 27 yard line that cornerback Aeneas Williams recovered and returned 39 yards. Quarterback Chris Chandler guided the offense into the end zone for the game-winning touchdown six plays later.

Falcons 20, Cardinals 17

November 15, 1992 • Georgia Dome (58,477)

The Cardinals self-destructed with missed opportunities and turnovers.

Offensive struggles beset Phoenix which managed a season-low 32 yards rushing, ran only 22 second-half plays, and failed to tally points on six possessions that ended at the Falcon 38 yard line or closer. On the day, seven of the Cards' 10 possessions finished with a fumble (2), missed field goal (3), or pass interception (2). In the decisive second half, all five drives concluded with missteps—pass interception, missed field goal, fumble, missed field goal, and pass interception, respectively.

Versatile running back Johnny Bailey touched the ball 15 times to sparkle with 206 combined yards (5 rushing, 68 receiving, 24 punt returns, 109 kickoff returns). Wide receiver Randal Hill caught four passes for 91 yards.

Defensively, Phoenix forced three turnovers of its own—two fumble recoveries, one pass interception. The latter was returned 46 yards for a game-tying touchdown by cornerback Robert Massey, his third interception touchdown return of the season, a Cardinal record.

Cowboys 16, Cardinals 10 ▲▲▲▲▲▲

November 22, 1992 • Sun Devil Stadium (72,439)

Playing without injured defensive stalwarts Ken Harvey and Freddie Joe Nunn, the reshuffled Phoenix defense stymied Dallas into its second lowest point production of the season. But the Cardinals could not overcome the season-low offensive production due in part to the first-quarter loss of starting quarterback Chris Chandler (ribs). Before his injury, Chandler capitalized on Johnny Bailey's 65-yard first-quarter punt return to find running back Larry Centers for a two-yard touchdown pass to open the game's scoring.

Dallas scored the game's next 16 points before the Cards registered their only other tally, a 20-yard Greg Davis field goal.

The Cardinals' offensive struggles were evidenced by season-low efforts in first downs (9), total yards (149), total plays (44), net yards passing (103), pass attempts (24), and perhaps most importantly, time of possession (23:51). For the first time in franchise history, the Cardinals failed to gain a first down rushing. The versatile Bailey continued to shine with 170 combined yards on 11 touches of the ball—2–1 rushing, 3–34 receiving, 2–35 kickoff returns, and 4–100 punt returns. The contest drew 72,439 fans, a Cardinals' single-game record.

Redskins 41, Cardinals 3 ▲▲▲▲▲▲

November 29, 1992 • R.F.K. Stadium (53,541)

The Redskins avenged their early-October loss at Phoenix by handing the Cardinals a one-sided, turnover-aided 41–3 defeat, the Cards' 14th consecutive setback in the nation's capital. The contest also marked the third consecutive year Phoenix failed to tally a touchdown at R.F.K. Stadium and the Cardinals' largest margin of defeat since a 45–7 loss at Washington on Nov. 6, 1983.

After a 42-yard Greg Davis field goal, the Redskins responded with 41 unanswered points. Six Cardinal turnovers—five pass interceptions, one fumble—turned into 17 enemy points and squandered offensive opportunities. Seven of 10 Phoenix possessions ended by interception (5), fumble (1), or missed field goal (1). Three of those drives were thwarted at the Washington 12, 11, and 6 yard lines.

Redskin safety Brad Edwards led the defensive charge with three interceptions, including his first that he returned 53 yards for Washington's second touchdown.

Card quarterback Timm Rosenbach, making his first start since week two against the Eagles, was intercepted four times.

Chargers 27, Cardinals 21

December 6, 1992 • Sun Devil Stadium (26,880)

Despite limiting San Diego to 29 yards rushing, the lowest total by a Cardinal opponent in nine years, Phoenix was smitten by turnovers (three fumbles, two pass interceptions) for the second consecutive week (11 turnovers in two games).

The Cards took control with leads of 14–0 and 21–10 and flirted with points four other times before stopping themselves with fumbles at the Charger 16, 40, and 32 yard lines and missing a 24-yard field goal attempt after stalling at the San Diego seven yard line.

The Chargers converted only four of 12 third downs, possessed the ball just 24:45 minutes, tossed a pass interception, and suffered a sack.

The Card special teams shined, yielding an averge of 19.3 yards on four kickoff returns that included a recovered fumble on the opening kickoff leading to a Phoenix touchdown, and nine yards on two punt returns. Rookie Eric Blount, appearing in his first NFL game, returned a kickoff 52 yards.

Cornerback Robert Massey equalled his career high with his fifth pass interception. Wide receiver Ricky Proehl regained the team receiving lead with six catches covering 112 yards, including a 63-yard touchdown catch, the longest reception of his career.

Cardinals 19, Giants 0

December 12, 1992 • Sun Devil Stadium (28,452)

The Cardinals tossed their first shutout since 1981 and their first against the Giants since 1977 en route to a never-in-doubt 19–0 victory that also snapped New York's eight-game series winning streak and gave Joe Bugel his first success against the Giants as a head coach.

Running back Johnny Johnson enjoyed his finest day rushing for a career-best 156 yards on 36 franchise record-tying carries. His two touchdowns included a 42-yarder, the longest rush of his career.

The Cardinal defense shared Johnson's headlines. Besides posting the team's first shutout in 171 games, the unit limited New York to 131 total yards, fewest by a Phoenix opponent in 41 outings, and held the Giants to 70 yards rushing, the sixth time in the Cards last nine games their opponent has rushed for less than 100 yards. New York's 61-yard passing attack made only two first downs through the air, equalling an all-time low for a Cardinal opponent. New York also managed just one third-down conversion. The Giants never penetrated the Cardinal 30 yard line.

The Cards' defense set the tone early in the first quarter when defensive lineman Eric Swann recorded the first Cardinal safety since 1989 by downing Giant quarterback Dave Brown in the end zone following a fumbled snap. The defensive effort, coupled with an effective rushing attack, produced a topsided 40:09–19:51 Phoenix possession advantage.

Colts 16, Cardinals 13

December 20, 1992 • Hoosier Dome (46,763)

Despite a 146-yard rushing performance by Johnny Johnson, the Cardinals could not overcome a rash of defensive injuries, three key second-half pass interceptions by Colt safety Mike Prior, and Indianapolis quarterback Jeff George, who completed 25 of 41 passes for 328 yards, including a key 57-yard third-quarter touchdown connection with running back Anthony Johnson.

Phoenix took a 10–0 first-half lead on a 10-yard run by Johnson and a 28-yard Greg Davis field goal following na interception by safety Michael Zordich. After A. Johnson's touchdown reception knotted the score at 10–10, the contest became a chess match. The Cards tied the score at 13–13 with 3:39 to play on a 48-yard field goal by Davis after outside linebacker Freddie Joe Nunn sacked George, stripped him of the ball, and outside linebacker Steve Hyche recovered the fumble near midfield. The Colts then drove 50 plays in nine plays and Dean Biasucci delivered his third field goal, a 42-yard game-winner.

Phoenix was poised to pull even in the game's waning moments after two Chris Chandler pass completions and a 15-yard personal foul by Colt linebacker Chip Banks put the Cards on the Indianapolis 32 yard line with 19 seconds remaining. But Prior's third pickoff, a diving grab of a deflected Chandler pass, sealed the outcome.

Buccaneers 7, Cardinals 3

December 27, 1992 • Sun Devil Stadium (29,645)

Six Cardinal turnovers—five interceptions, one fumble—marred a brilliant defensive effort as Phoenix closed with a 4–12 record for the second consecutive season.

Statistically, the Cards enjoyed the best of the fight, commanding advantages in total net yards (353–240), first downs (21–12), and time of possession (34:46–25:14). The Card offense moved the ball consistently without scoring, stalling in Tampa Bay territory on nine of 13 possessions, including three times inside the Buc 20 yard line.

Defensively, Phoenix limited Tampa Bay's offense to 30 net rushing yards, and sacked Buc quarterback Vinny Testaverde three times while intercepting one pass. Tampa Bay was stymied into zero or one first down on 11 of 14 possessions. It did not make a first down via the rush, equalling a Cardinal record.

The contest also will be remembered for the deteriorated playing field which led to six consecutive missed field goals—three each by the Cards' Greg Davis and the Bucs' Eddie Murray.

Wide receiver Ricky Proehl's six receptions gave him the team receiving lead for the season with 60 grabs. Punter Rich Camarillo narrowly missed becoming the first punter to average 40 net yards per boot, closing at 39.6 yards to lead the league and earn his fourth Pro Bowl berth. Three tackles by Pro Bowl strong safety Tim McDonald gave him a team-leading total of 107 stops.

With this action, the Cardinals relinquish any right to compensation from another NFL club. G.M. Larry Wilson also states the Cardinals will continue to negotiate with Lewis and his agent in an effort to reach a contract.

Thurs., Sept. 3 ..... OL Joe Wolf (pectoral muscle tear) is placed on injured reserve list with surgery scheduled. Cardinals elevate T Rob Baxley from developmental squad and replace him with G James Richards, waived two days earlier on the roster cutdown to 47.

Fri., Sept. 11 ..... R-B Johnny Johnson is activated to the 47-man roster, resulting in release of DT Keith Rucker.

Mon., Sept. 14 ..... DT Keith Rucker, waived to make room for Johnny Johnson, is re-signed to developmental roster, replacing DL Alphonso Taylor, who is released.

Tues., Sept. 15 ..... R-B Anthony Thompson, the club's first selection (second round) in the 1990 NFL draft, is waived and subsequently claimed by the L.A. Rams.

Wed., Sept. 16 ..... QB Timm Rosenbach is placed on the injured reserve list with separated shoulder. Club signs free agent QB Erik Wilhelm, formerly with the Cincinnati Bengals. DT Keith Rucker is elevated from the developmental squad to the active roster, while DL Alphonso Taylor is re-signed to the developmental squad.

Wed., Sept. 30 ..... LB Jessie Small, who was placed on the injured reserve list Sept. 1 on the final roster cutdown with a wrist injury, is released from injured reserve.

Wed., Oct. 7 ..... C Bill Lewis signs as free agent. T Rob Baxley is moved from active roster to developmental roster, replacing G James Richards, who is released.

Tues., Oct. 12 ..... Cardinals waive NG Jim Wahler and QB Erik Wilhelm; acquire DL Reuben Davis via trade from Tampa Bay for undisclosed 1993 draft choice; place CB Steve Lofton (hamstring) on injured reserve; activate QB Timm Rosenbach (shoulder) from injured reserve list; claim CB Mitchell Price via waivers from Cincinnati.

Mon., Oct. 19 ..... Cardinals place WR Ernie Jones (shoulder) and R-B Ivory Lee Brown (knee) on injured reserve list. R-B Eric Blount is activated from developmental squad. Club signs former Cardinal WR John Jackson as free agent.

Fri., Oct. 30 ..... Cardinals claim DB Robert Williams via waivers from Dallas and waive CB/KR Mitchell Price.

Sat., Oct. 31 ..... DB Robert Williams does not pass physical exam (knee) and is not added to the 47-man roster for Sunday's game against San Francisco, resulting in club playing with just 46 players.

Mon., Nov. 2 ..... Cardinals place TE Willie Wright (knee sprain) on injured reserve list, activate T Rob Baxley from developmental squad, and claim DB Odie Harris on waivers from Cleveland. G James Richards and R-B Kelvin Fisher are signed to the developmental squad.

Wed., Nov. 18 ..... OLB Freddie Joe Nunn (knee) is placed on injured reserve, R-B Ivory Lee Brown is activated from injured reserve list, R-B/KR Eric Blount is waived, and OLB Jessie Small is re-signed. WR Ernie Jones (shoulder) is added to developmental squad to enable him to begin practicing, while CB Steve Lofton (hamstring) is removed from the practice squad and remains on injured reserve. OLB Ken Harvey, who, like Nunn, suffered a knee injury in Sunday's game against Atlanta, has reconstructive surgery to repair a ruptured anterior cruciate ligament in his left knee. Harvey's rehabilitation period will be 10–12 months.

Tues., Dec. 1 ..... WR John Jackson is waived and replaced on roster by R-B/KR Eric Blount, who is activated from developmental roster.

Fri., Dec. 4 ..... T Rick Cunningham (forearm) is placed on injured reserve list and OL Joe Wolf is activated from injured reserve.

Wed., Dec. 16 ..... OLB Freddie Joe Nunn is added to practice squad to begin workouts, replacing TE Willie Wright, who remains on the injured reserve list.

Fri., Dec. 18 ..... OLB Jock Jones (ankle) is placed on injured reserve list, replacing OLB Freddie Joe Nunn, who is activated to 47-man roster.

Tues., Dec. 22 ..... SS Dave Duerson (fractured scapula) is placed on injured reserve list. Cards sign free agent DB Chris Oldham.

Fri., Dec. 25 ..... OLB David Braxton (knee) is placed on injured reserve list and TE Willie Wright clears waivers from injured reserve and is added to 47-man roster.

Fri., Jan. 15 ..... Cardinals' President Bill Bidwill announces Vice President-General Manager Larry Wilson and Head Coach Joe Bugel will continue to guide the team's football operations. In addition, it is announced Wilson has extended Bugel's contract through the 1994 season.

Mon., Jan. 18 ..... R-B/KR Johnny Bailey and CB Robert Massey are named to the NFC Pro Bowl team. Originally selected as alternates, the two replace Detroit kick returner Mel Gray (knee injury) and Minnesota cornerback Audray McMillian (arm injury). They join Cardinal players P Rich Camarillo and SS Tim McDonald on the NFC squad.

Wed., Feb. 27 ..... LeCharls McDaniel joins coaching staff as offensive assistant. Duties will include working with receivers and assisting in passing game.

Thurs., Feb. 25 ..... Under the newly-enacted labor agreement between the NFL member clubs and the players' association, the following 10 Cardinal players with five or more years experience whose contracts have expired become unrestricted free agents: K Greg Davis, SS Dave Duerson, DB Odie Harris, ILB Garth Jax, C Bill Lewis, SS Tim McDonald, T Luis Sharpe, ILB Tyronne Stowe, OL Danny Villa, and FS Michael Zordich. McDonald is named the club's 'franchise' player, while Sharpe is named a 'transitional' player. Additionally, OLB Ken Harvey is designated as a 'future' transitional player for next season. The free agency signing period extends from March 1 through July 15. Also, the following nine players with three or four years of service whose contracts have expired become restricted free agents: OLB David Braxton, ILB Eric Hill, OLB Steve Hyche, CB Robert Massey, WR Ricky Proehl, OLB Jessie Small, G Vernice Smith, CB Jay Taylor, and G Joe Wolf.

HISTORY

FRANCHISE HISTORY

The Cardinals, a charter member of the National Football League, boast the distinction of being the oldest continuously run professional football franchise in the nation.

The Early Days

Founded in 1898, the team began as a neighborhood group which gathered to play football in a predominantly Irish area of Chicago's south side, playing under the name Morgan Athletic Club. The team later was acquired by Chris O'Brien, a painting and decorating contractor, and soon its playing site changed to nearby Normal Field, prompting the new name Normals.

In 1901, the team gained longstanding identification when O'Brien, finding a bargain, bought used jerseys from the University of Chicago. The jerseys were faded maroon in color, prompting O'Brien to declare, "That's not maroon, it's Cardinal red!" The club's permanent nickname had been born!

The jersey color and the location of the field led to a new and obvious name, the Racine Cardinals.

In Chicago at the time, football competition was exclusively amateur but such opposition became increasingly hard to find, so in 1906, the team had to disband.

In 1913, O'Brien reorganized the Cardinals. By 1917 they were able to buy new uniforms and hire a coach, Marshall Smith. That year they lost only two games and were champions of the Chicago Football League.

The war in Europe and a flu epidemic in the United States forced the team to suspend operations once again in 1918. Following Armistice Day, O'Brien organized the Cardinals for a third time. From that day forward, the Cardinals have been a permanent part of the professional football scene in America.

Growth

The Racine Cardinals, their popularity growing in the Chicago area, eventually became one of 11 charter members of the American Professional Football League, forerunner of the NFL, in 1920 for the $100 franchise fee. Immediately after joining the league, O'Brien lured a great halfback, John "Paddy" Driscoll, to the Cardinals for $3,000 a year, a sum considered outlandish at the time. But Driscoll was an authentic superstar, a superior runner, blocker, punter, and possibly the finest drop kicker in the history of football.

In 1922, a team from Racine, Wis. joined the NFL, forcing the Cardinals to change their name to the Chicago Cardinals. The Cardinals also moved into their new home, Comiskey Park, the same year.

Under new Head Coach Norman Barry, the Cardinals outdistanced a field of 20 teams to win their first NFL championship in 1925.

A Chicago physician, Dr. David Jones, purchased the team in 1929. In his first year of ownership, he coaxed running back Ernie Nevers out of retirement to become player-coach. Still in his prime, the 26-year-old Nevers scored 40 points on six touchdowns and four extra points in an historic 40–6 victory over the crosstown Bears on Thanksgiving Day, 1929.

After guiding the Cardinals to a 16–14–3 composite record in three seasons, the legendary Nevers retired as both coach and player in 1932.

The (Chicago) Cardinals (dark jerseys) defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 28–21 on a frozen field at old Comiskey Park to win the 1947 NFL championship.

Modern Era

Nevers' departure also marked the arrival of a new club owner. Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., a vice president of the Chicago Bears, purchased the Cardinals for Jones' asking price of $50,000. Bidwill divested himself of his Bears' holdings and a new era began.

However, the team sorely missed Nevers' magic on the field. The Cardinals endured difficult years in the 1930s and early '40s. World War II hit the team heavily. The Cardinals' top passer, receiver, and lineman—Johnny Clement, Bill Dewell, and Joe Kuharich, respectively—entered the service. In 1944 as a war-time emergency measure, the Cardinals combined with the Pittsburgh Steelers to play as one team. It was called Card-Pitt. Co-coached by the Cardinals' Phil Handler and the Steelers' Walt Kiesling, a former Cardinal guard, the team split its home games between Chicago's Comiskey Park and Forbes Field in Pittsburgh but failed to win a game in 10 tries.

Success finally returned following the war. In 1945, the arrival of University of Missouri quarterback Paul Christman trumpeted the team's conversion to the "T" formation. Fullback Pat Harder and halfback Elmer Angsman were added in 1946. And in 1947, the "million dollar backfield" was completed when halfback Charley Trippi became a Cardinal.

Coached by Jimmy Conzelman, the 1947 Cardinals stormed to the Western Division title and a 28–21 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in the NFL championship game on the frozen Comiskey Park turf on Chicago's south side.

But the '47 title season was bittersweet for the Cardinals' organization when the April death of Bidwill deprived the owner of witnessing the club's first NFL crown in 22 years. With his passing, Bidwill's widow, Violet Bidwill, assumed control of the franchise for the next 15 years, a span that included a second consecutive Western Division championship and appearance in the 1948 NFL championship game, a 7–0 loss at Philadelphia, and the transfer of the team from Chicago to St. Louis in 1960.

Upon Mrs. Bidwill's death in January of 1962, control moved to sons Charles W. Bidwill, Jr. and William V. Bidwill. In 1972, the latter and his family gained sole ownership with William becoming managing general partner. On July 1, 1976, incorporation of the company was accomplished with Bidwill continuing as chief executive officer.

After 14 years in the city, the Cardinals brought their first championship to St. Louis in 1974. The Big Red captured the NFC Eastern Division flag under Head Coach Don Coryell and advanced to the playoffs with a 10–4 regular-season record.

However, the Cardinals lost to the Minnesota Vikings, 30–14, in their first playoff appearance since 1948.

Again in 1975, Coryell provided St. Louis with a division title but another playoff loss, this time to the Rams in Los Angeles, 35–23, ended the Cards' post-season dream in the first outing.

The Cardinals next appeared in the playoffs in 1982 when Head Coach Jim Hanifan's club lost a first-round game at Green Bay, 41–16. In 1984, an offensively explosive St. Louis team narrowly missed the playoffs—and the NFC East title—with a 9–7 record. However, the Cardinals stumbled to a 5–11 mark in 1985, prompting Hanifan's dismissal and the hiring of long-time Dallas Cowboys' assistant Gene Stallings as the team's new head coach.

Arizona

After 28 years in St. Louis, the Cardinals relocated to Arizona in the spring of 1988 and made Sun Devil Stadium on the campus of Arizona State University their new home.

Their first season in the Valley of the Sun began optimistically when the team raced to a 7–4 record and a share of the NFC East Division lead. But untimely injuries struck and a five-game losing streak ensued to finish the year, dashing hopes of the club's first post-season berth since 1982. However, the Cardinals' new home provided club single-game (67,139 vs. Dallas in Arizona inaugural game) and single-season (472,937) attendance records in the team's first autumn in Arizona.

Following two seasons in their new locale, the Cardinals changed the face of their team by hiring former Washington assistant Joe Bugel in 1990 as the new Phoenix head coach.

All the Cardinals' franchise attendance records have been established since moving to the desert. The 1988 total of 472,937 remains the single-season best. The top 11 single-game home crowds have watched the Cards in Sun Devil Stadium, including the largest, a throng of 74,439 that saw Phoenix face Dallas last season on November 22, 1992.

Heritage

Reflecting the rich tradition of the franchise, 12 members of the Cardinals have been enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. They are Charles Bidwill, Guy Chamberlin, Conzelman, Driscoll, Kiesling, Curly Lambeau, Dick "Night Train" Lane, Ollie Matson, Nevers, Jim Thorpe, Trippi, and Larry Wilson. Wilson, the team's current vice president and general manager, was the most recent inductee in 1978.

Retired Numbers

The Cardinals have retired only four numbers in their long history.

8 Larry Wilson 77 Stan Mauldin 88 J.V. Cain 99 Marshall Goldberg

▲Nov. 9, 1980 — Falcons 33, Cardinals 27 (Home)

Atlanta won the toss. Ray Strong runs 21 yards for a touchdown at 4:20.

▲Oct. 24, 1983 — Giants 20, Cardinals 20 (Home)

The Cardinals won the toss in a memorable Monday Night Football offering. The teams trade punts before Cardinal place kicker Neil O'Donoghue misses a 44-yard field goal attempt wide left. Dave Jennings punt returned by Steve Bird to the Cardinals' 21 yard line. Quarterback Neil Lomax is intercepted by Mark Haynes who loses six yards to the New York 33 yard line. Jennings' punt is downed on the St. Louis 17 yard line. O'Donoghue's 19-yard field goal attempt is wide right. Giant quarterback Jeff Rutledge's pass is intercepted by Lionel Washington who returns it 23 yards to New York's 25 yard line. O'Donoghue's third field goal attempt of overtime is wide right from 42 yards out. Rutledge is intercepted again, this time by Wayne Smith at the St. Louis 33 yard line to end the game.

▲Sept. 8, 1985 — Cardinals 27, Browns 24 (Away)

The Cardinals won the toss. Neil O'Donoghue kicks a 35-yard field goal nine plays into overtime at the 5:27 mark.

▲Dec. 7, 1986 — Cardinals 10, Eagles 10 (Away)

The Cardinals won the toss. Reggie White blocks Eric Schubert's 40-yard field goal attempt. The teams trade punts. Paul McFadden's 43-yard field goal attempt is wide left. Schubert misses a 37-yard effort. Matt Cavanaugh's pass is intercepted by Carl Carter and returned to the Eagles' 48 yard line as time expires.

1993

July 6 — Claiming period of 24 hours begins in waiver system. All waiver requests for the rest of the year are no-recall and no-withdrawal.

July 15 — Veteran players cannot be required to report to their teams earlier than 15 days prior to the first preseason game or July 15, whichever is later.

Signing period ends at 4 p.m. ET for unrestricted free agents to whom June 1 tender was made by their old clubs. After this date and through 4 p.m. ET on November 9, the old clubs have exclusive rights with their unsigned unrestricted free agents.

July 31 — Hall of Fame Game, Canton, Ohio — L.A. Raiders vs. Green Bay.

August 1 — American Bowl, Tokyo, Japan — New Orleans vs. Philadelphia.

American Bowl, Barcelona, Spain — Pittsburgh vs. San Francisco.

August 6 — If a drafted rookie has not yet signed with his club by this date, he may not be traded to any other club in 1993.

August 6–9 — First preseason weekend.

August 7 — American Bowl, Berlin, Germany — Buffalo vs. Minnesota.

August 8 — American Bowl, London, England — Dallas vs. Detroit.

August 12–16 — Second preseason weekend.

August 20–23 — Third preseason weekend.

August 24 — Roster cutdown to maximum of 60 players on active list by 4 p.m. ET.

August 26–28 — Fourth preseason weekend.

August 30 — Roster cutdown to maximum of 47 players on active list by noon ET.

August 31 — Beginning at noon ET, clubs may establish an inactive list of six additional players either by procedural recall or by signing free agents. Clubs may dress 45 players and a third quarterback for each regular-season and post-season game.

After 4 p.m. ET, clubs may establish a practice squad of five players by signing free agents who do not have a season of free agency credit.

September 3 — All clubs are required to identify their 49-player active list by 7 p.m. ET on this Friday and thereafter on each Friday before a regular-season game (or at 7 p.m. ET two days prior to non-Sunday games). No later than one hour and 15 minutes prior to kickoff, clubs must identify their 45-player active list and third quarterback, if any.

September 5–6 — Regular-season openers.

September 12–13 — Second regular-season weekend.

September 19–20 — Third regular-season weekend.

September 21 — Priority on multiple waiver claims is now based upon 1993 standings.

September 26–27 — Fourth regular-season weekend.

October 3–4 — Fifth regular-season weekend.

October 10–11 — Sixth regular-season weekend.

October 14–18 — Seventh regular-season weekend. Thursday night game starts weekend.

October 19 — All trading ends at 4 p.m. ET.

▲Last Meeting

November 15, 1992 ▲ Atlanta 20, Cardinals 17 (A)

The Cardinals self-destructed with missed opportunities and turnovers throughout the frustrating afternoon. Offensive struggles beset Phoenix which managed a season-low 32 yards rushing, ran only 22 second-half plays, and failed to tally points on six possessions that ended at the Falcon 38 yard line or closer. On the day, seven of the Cards' 10 possessions finished with a fumble (2), missed field goal (3), or pass interception (2). In the decisive second half, all five drives concluded with missteps—pass interception, missed field goal, fumble, missed field goal, and pass interception, respectively. Defensively, Phoenix forced three turnovers of their own—two fumble recoveries, one pass interception. The latter was returned 46 yards for a game-tying touchdown by cornerback Robert Massey, this third interception touchdown return of the season, a Cardinal record.

▲Series Notes

The Cardinals hold a 10–5 overall advantage in their encounters with Atlanta ... the Falcons' victory last year broke a streak of four straight Cardinal wins in the series ... the Cards were victims of Atlanta's first home victory as a new franchise with a 16–10 defeat on Dec. 11, 1966 ... at one stretch in the series, the Cardinals won five consecutive times (1971–76) ... Phoenix owns a 5–4 mark on the road against Atlanta, and 1993 will mark the second consecutive season the Cards will travel to the Georgia Dome.

▲Last Meeting

October 28, 1990 ▲ Chicago 31, Cardinals 21 (H)

The series renewal saw the Cardinals spot the NFC Central Division-leading Bears an insurmountable 28–0 second-quarter lead before falling 31–21 following a strong second-half showing. The Bears scored touchdowns on three of their first four possessions to take a 28–3 halftime lead. Phoenix stormed back behind the passing of quarterback Timm Rosenbach, who passed for 256 yards and enjoyed his third straight game without an interception. The game also included a nine-yard pass completion to wide receiver Roy Green that made him the Cardinals' career leader in pass reception yardage, snapping former tight end Jackie Smith's standard of 7,918 yards.

▲Series Notes

The Cardinals and Bears boast the oldest regular-season rivalry in NFL history dating to the 1920s when the two shared the Windy City ... the Bears maintain a 53–25–6 advantage in the series, but the Cards have won two of the last three and four of the last seven meetings ... in the most recent regular-season clash, the Cardinals set a franchise attendance mark with 71,233 in Sun Devil Stadium on Oct. 28, 1991, the largest crowd in the history of the series ... that mark now ranks second only to a packed house of 72,439 for the Dallas Cowboys on Nov. 29, 1992 ... the Cards have won the last two preseason meetings—12–10 at Soldier Field in 1991 and 20–17 in Sun Devil Stadium in 1992

▲Last Meeting

November 22, 1992 ▲ Dallas 16, Cardinals 10 (H)

Playing without injured defensive stalwarts Ken Harvey and Freddie Joe Nunn, the reshuffled Phoenix defense stymied Dallas into its second-lowest point production of the season. But the Cardinals could not overcome their season-low offensive production due in part to the first-quarter loss of starting quarterback Chris Chandler (ribs). Before his injury, Chandler capitalized on Johnny Bailey's 65-yard first-quarter punt return to find running back Larry Centers for a two-yard touchdown pass to open the game's scoring. Dallas scored the game's next 16 points before the Cards registered their only other tally of the afternoon, a 20-yard Greg Davis field goal. The Cardinals' offensive struggles were evidenced by season-low efforts in first downs (9), total yards (149), total plays (44), net yards passing (103), pass attempts (24) and perhaps most importantly, time of possession (23:51). For the first time in franchise history, the Cardinals failed to gain a first down rushing. The contest drew 72,439 fans, a Cardinals' single-game record.

▲Series Notes

Dallas leads the series by a 38–22–1 margin and has a five-game winning streak, including sweeps in each of the last two seasons ... the Cards swept both 1989 contests for the first time since 1970 ... Dallas provided the opposition for the Cards' first regular-season home game in Arizona in 1988 with the Cowboys prevailing 17–14 ... at one stretch from 1967–86, Dallas won 27 of 36 games in the series, including undefeated streaks of six and seven games, and enjoyed one home stretch of 13–2 against the Cardinals ... the Cards are 9–21 all-time at Dallas and have won only five of the last 26 meetings in Texas.

▲Last Meeting

December 15, 1991 ▲ Denver 24, Cardinals 19 (A)

Phoenix led eventual AFC West Division champion Denver 19–17 late in the game behind four Greg Davis field goals and a 45-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Chris Chandler to wide receiver Ernie Jones. The Cards were on the verge of the upset with less than six minutes to play when wide receiver Ricky Proehl raced 23 yards with a reverse handoff to the Denver 37-yard line. But a holding penalty nullified the play, leading to a punt three plays later that set the stage for Denver's 66-yard game-winning drive that quarterback John Elway capped with a four-yard end run with only 1:46 remaining. Chandler impressed in his starting debut for Phoenix, completing 15 of 32 passes for 194 yards. Rookie cornerback Aeneas Williams intercepted two Elway passes and made a touchdown-saving goal-line tackle. Davis posted his second four-field goal effort as a Cardinal. The fourth, a 38-yarder, gave Phoenix a 19–17 lead with 8:24 to play before Elway's heroics.

▲Series Notes

The clubs have played just four times during the regular season with the Cardinals still searching for their first victory ... the first contest ended in a 17–17 tie in 1973, the second a 7–0 Bronco win in 1977, the third a 37–0 shutout by Denver in Sun Devil Stadium in 1989, and most recently the Broncos' 24–19 come-from-behind victory in 1991 ... in the preseason, the Cardinals are 3–6 versus the Broncos ... the Cards prevailed 34–10 at Sun Devil Stadium in 1991, then handed Denver a 21–17 defeat in Mile High Stadium in 1992.

September 10, 1989 ▲ Cardinals 16, Lions 13 (A)
The Cards captured their regular-season opener at Detroit when kicker Al Del Greco booted his third field goal of the contest from 33 yards out with 13 seconds remaining to break a 13–13 tie. Quarterback Gary Hogeboom's route-going regular-season debut was a rousing success. He completed 21 of 35 passes for 264 yards and one touchdown, a 15-yarder to wide receiver Roy Green. Hogeboom was intercepted once. The Cardinals limited Detroit's innovative "run-'n'-shoot" offense to seven completions in 20 attempts for 116 yards. The Lions' rushing attack outgained their highly-publicized aerial game 159 to 116 yards. The Cards' 12-year veteran J.T. Smith enjoyed one of the best statistical outings of his career, grabbing 10 passes for 121 yards to crack the 6,000-yard plateau (6,092).

▲Series Notes
Two of the NFL's oldest rivals, the teams first met in 1934 when Detroit prevailed 6–0 in Chicago ... the Lions lead the series 26–14–3, but the clubs have met just three times since 1980 when the teams split a pair of 1980 home-field encounters (Lions 20–7, Cards 24–23) ... in the most recent meeting, the Cards won 16–13 in 1989 in the Silverdome ... the series has been marked by streaks ... the Lions defeated the Cardinals nine consecutive times from 1935–39 and six straight times from 1942–45 ... the Cardinals produced a six-game winning streak from 1946–48 and have won four of the last five encounters.

▲Last Meeting
November 8, 1991 ▲ Cardinals 20, L.A. Rams 14 (A)
The Cardinals rode ball-control offense and snarly defense to victory. By limiting the Rams to 54 net yards rushing on 18 carries, allowing one-for-six third-down efficiency, holding Los Angeles to three plays or less on five of 11 possessions, stopping Rams drives in L.A. territory six times, and forcing three turnovers (two fumble recoveries, one pass interception), the Phoenix defense repeatedly was able to return the ball to its turnover-free offensive counterpart that methodically gained 324 total net yards (216 passing, 108 rushing), and monopolized the ball for 37:07 of the game's 60 minutes. Wide receiver Ricky Proehl was the offensive standout with a career-best nine receptions for 126 yards. The Cardinals held a precarious 13–7 lead early in the fourth quarter when the Rams drove 44 yards on six plays for a touchdown and a 14–13 advantage. When Phoenix kicker Greg Davis missed a potential go-ahead field goal attempt from 44 yards, the Card defense faced a do-or-die L.A. possession. Phoenix responded when outside linebacker Ken Harvey forced a fumble at the Cardinal 27 yard line that cornerback Aeneas Williams recovered and returned 39 yards. Chandler guided the offense into the end zone for the game-winning touchdown six plays later.

▲Series Notes
The Rams hold a 16–11–2 advantage in the series dating to 1946 when the two teams were in the NFL's Western Division ... this year's meeting ends a stretch of four consecutive Ram home games ... the Cardinals have won the last two contests, both in Anaheim Stadium, by scores of 24–14 in 1991 and 20–14 in 1992 ... the Rams handed the Cards a 35–23 defeat in a first-round playoff game in 1975.

September 29, 1991 ▲ Cardinals 24, New England 10 (H)

A reawakened Phoenix offense and withering heat that reached an estimated 115 degrees on the floor of Sun Devil Stadium catapulted the Cardinals over the .500 mark. Quarterback Tom Tupa threw for 312 passing yards while guiding an offense that gained 435 total yards. Cardinal wide receivers Ernie Jones and Ricky Proehl grabbed eight and four receptions for 145 and 107 yards, respectively. Running back Anthony Thompson gained 98 yards rushing, the Cards' single-game season high. The Phoenix defense limited New England to three points, 214 total yards, and no third-down conversions. The Pats' lone touchdown came on Jon Vaughn's 99-yard first-half kickoff return.

▲Series Notes

In seven games against New England, the Cardinals have been defeated just once, a 16–6 loss in 1978 ... the Cardinals' have won the last four contests, including the last three meetings in convincing fashion—33–10 in 1984, 34–14 in 1990, and 24–10 in 1991 ... after encounters with the Patriots just three times in the 1970s and twice in the 1980s, the Cardinals will have played New England three times in the last four years including this year's contest.

October 18, 1992 ▲ New Orleans 30, Cardinals 21 (H)

A big-play New Orleans offense and a career-best 355-yard passing performance by Saints quarterback Bobby Hebert overcame a 14–3 Cardinals lead and spelled defeat for Phoenix for the fifth time in six outings. The Cardinals drove 80 and 79 yards on their second and third possessions to take their early lead, scoring on a one-yard leap by running back Johnny Bailey and a seven-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Chris Chandler to wide receiver Ernie Jones. But beginning with its final possession of the first half, the Saints tallied 27 unanswered points by scoring touchdowns on four of five drives to take a commanding 30–14 lead. The Cards' final points came on wide receiver Anthony Edwards' first career touchdown, a 25-yard pass from Chandler.

▲Series Notes

The Cardinals maintain a 10–8 series edge over New Orleans dating to 1967 ... the Saints have won the last three meetings between the teams—28–7 in 1990, 27–3 in '91, and 30–21 in '92 ... 1993 will mark the fourth consecutive year the clubs have played during the regular season ... the two teams combined for 93 points in a 51–42 Saints win in 1969, just 10 shy of the all-time NFL record for most combined points in a single game, and set a league standard for most combined touchdowns passing in a game as Billy Kilmer (Saints) and Charley Johnson (Cardinals) each tossed six scoring passes ... though it was a preseason game, the Cardinals provided New Orleans with its first victory as a new franchise, a 23–14 decision at Shreveport, La. during the 1967 preseason.

December 12, 1992 ▲ Cardinals 19, N.Y. Giants 0 (H)
The Cardinals tossed their first shutout since 1981 and their first against the Giants since 1977 en route to a never-in-doubt 19–0 victory that also snapped New York's eight-game series winning streak and gave Joe Bugel his first success against the Giants as a head coach. Running back Johnny Johnson enjoyed his finest day as a professional, rushing for a career-best 156 yards on 36 franchise record-tying carries. The Cardinal defense shared Johnson's headlines. Besides posting the teams' first shutout in 171 games, the unit limited New York to 131 total yards, fewest by a Phoenix opponent in 41 outings, and held the Giants to 70 yards rushing. New York's 61-yard passing attack made only two first downs through the air, equalling an all-time low for a Cardinal opponent. The defense set the tone for the nationally-televised Saturday afternoon contest early in the first quarter when defensive lineman Eric Swann recorded the first Cardinal safety since 1989 by downing Giant quarterback Dave Brown in the end zone following a fumbled snap. The Cards' defensive effort, coupled with their effective rushing attack, produced a lopsided 40:09–19:51 possession advantage as the Giants never penetrated the Phoenix 30 yard line.

▲Series Notes
One of the NFL's ancient rivalries and the lengthiest for the Cardinals ... the Giants hold a 17–7–1 advantage since 1980 and 65–34–2 overall in the series that dates to 1926 ... the Giants extended their series winning streak to eight games last year before the Cardinals prevailed with a 19–0 shutout in Sun Devil Stadium in the second contest between the clubs ... the Giants provided the opposition for the final game of the 1974 season when the Cardinals roared back from a 14–0 halftime deficit for a 26–14 win and their first division crown since 1948 ... the Giants also were the Cards' foe in the club's final game in St. Louis, a 27–24 Cardinal victory on Dec. 13, 1987.

October 25, 1992 ▲ Philadelphia 7, Cardinals 3 (A)
Memorable defense was the order of the day as the underdog Cardinals won the statistical battle but lost the war at Philadelphia. The Cardinals' defense bettered their vaunted Eagle counterpart, limiting Philadelphia to 11 first downs, 9 pass completions, and 84 yards passing while sacking Philadelphia quarterback Randall Cunningham five times. The Card defense's second-half performance was remarkable, allowing Philadelphia only minus 25 yards passing. Phoenix also posted its first five-sack effort in almost two years. Trailing 7–0, the Cards were poised to tie the game when cornerback Aeneas Williams intercepted his first pass of the year at the Eagle 26 yard line and returned it 23 yards to the Philadelphia three yard line. But the Eagles staged an unforgettable goal-line stand, turning Phoenix away seven times, including the last six snaps from the one yard line. The Cardinals threatened on their final drive, moving from their own 20 yard line to the Philadelphia 11 before two Timm Rosenbach passes fell incomplete.

▲Series Notes
The teams are deadlocked at 44–44–5 in the series dating to 1935 ... the Cardinals forged a split with Philadelphia in each of the 1990–91 seasons, but saw the Eagles sweep both encounters in 1992 ... the teams figured in consecutive NFL championship games in the 1940s ... the Chicago Cardinals edged the Eagles 28–21 in Chicago's frozen Comiskey Park on Dec. 28, 1947 for the NFL title ... the Eagles avenged that loss with a 7–0 victory in Philadelphia's Shibe Park on Dec. 19 to earn the title in 1948.

▲Last Meeting

December 6, 1992 ▲ San Diego 27, Cardinals 21 (H)

Despite limiting San Diego to 29 yards rushing, the lowest total by a Cardinal opponent in nine years, Phoenix was smitten by a rash of turnovers (three fumbles, two pass interceptions) that led to a 27–21 defeat. The Cardinals appeared in control when they jumped to leads of 14–0 in the first quarter and 21–10 in the third quarter and flirted with points four other times before stopping themselves with fumbles at the Charger 16, 40, and 32 yard lines and missing a 24-yard field goal attempt after stalling at the San Diego seven yard line. The Phoenix defensive effort was stellar. Besides San Diego's 29-yard rushing effort on 20 carries for a miserly 1.5-yard average, the Chargers converted only four of 12 third-down situations, enjoyed possession of the ball only 24:45 minutes (compared to 35:15 for Phoenix), tossed one pass interception, and suffered one quarterback sack.

▲Series Notes

The two teams have met only six times during the regular season with the Chargers holding a 5–1 series lead ... with the exception of a 24–13 San Diego win in Sun Devil Stadium in 1989 and the Chargers' victory last year in Tempe by a 27–21 score, the home team has won each meeting ... the Chargers prevailed in the first two meetings at San Diego by counts of 20–17 (1971) and 43–24 (1976) ... the Cardinals returned the favor at St. Louis by a 44–14 margin in 1983 for their only victory in the series ... the Chargers, again at home, edged the Cards 28–24 in 1987, then won the last two encounters at Sun Devil Stadium by scores of 24–13 in 1991 and 27–21 in 1992.

▲Last Meeting

November 1, 1992 ▲ Cardinals 24, San Francisco 14 (H)

The Cardinals surprised the 49ers and their league-best 6–1 record with a ball-control offense featuring a new-found rushing attack, quarterback Chris Chandler's passing that included a career-high three touchdown passes, and a ferocious defensive effort to upset favored San Francisco. Running back Johnny Johnson returned to the starting lineup for the first time in 1992 and rushed for 102 yards on 26 carries, the Cards' first 100-yard rusher in a 29-game span. The Cardinal's ball-control strategy was so effective in the first half that San Francisco was limited to no points on only three offensive possessions and a 21:10–8:50 time of possession disadvantage at intermission. In command throughout, the Cardinals, who converted 11 of their first 12 third-down attempts, seized control by scoring the game's first 17 points on two Chandler-to-wide receiver Randal Hill touchdown passes (4 and 23 yards) and a 33-yard Greg Davis field goal. The Phoenix defense authored four turnovers—three fumble recoveries, one pass interception—while also posting three quarterback sacks and limiting the potent 49er offense to 63 yards rushing, 3 rushing first downs, and 49 offensive plays. San Francisco also did not complete a pass over 25 yards nor record a sack on defense.

▲Series Notes

The Cardinals and 49ers have staged an even, if abbreviated, series that lists only 18 all-time meetings since 1951 ... the Cards evened the series at 9–9 with last year's 24–14 victory in Sun Devil Stadium and have beaten the 49ers in two of the last three meetings ... the Cardinals' 24–23 come-from-behind shocker over the defending Super Bowl champions in 1988 after trailing 23–0 broke a string of five consecutive 49er wins ... the Cardinals are 4–4 at home against the 49ers and 2–0 in Arizona.

September 17, 1989 ▲ Cardinals 34, Seattle 24 (A)
The Cardinals journeyed to Seattle and silenced the normally boisterous Kingdome partisans with a 34–24 victory. The Cards' veteran wide receiver tandem of Roy Green and J.T. Smith was the chief culprit, benefitting from the marksmanship of quarterback Gary Hogeboom. Phoenix controlled the ball successfully, scored touchdowns on drives that began at its 4, 10, 22, and 26 yard lines, and converted 10 of 12 third-down plays. The injury-depleted Cardinal defense also earned plaudits by limiting the Seahawks' vaunted ground game to 77 net yards. Seattle also converted only two of 11 third-down plays. Hogeboom stood tall behind an offensive line that did not allow a quarterback sack for the second consecutive week. The new Cardinal signal-caller completed eight of nine passes in the second half for 119 yards and three touchdowns. Green's second and third touchdown grabs were the 51st and 52nd six-pointers of his career, eclipsing receiver Sonny Randle's franchise mark of 60.

▲Series Notes
The Cards are undefeated in three regular-season outings with Seattle—a 30–24 win in 1976, a 33–28 decision in 1983, and a 34–24 victory in 1989 ... during preseason play, the Seahawks hold a 6–3 advantage ... 1993 marks the seventh consecutive August the two teams have met during preseason play.

November 29, 1992 ▲ Washington 41, Cardinals 3 (A)
The Redskins handed the Cardinals a one-sided, turnover-aided 41–3 defeat, the Cards' 14th consecutive setback in the nation's capital. The contest also marked the third consecutive year Phoenix failed to tally a touchdown at R.F.K. Stadium and the Cardinals' largest margin of defeat since a 45–7 loss at Washington on Nov. 6, 1983. After the Cardinals drew first blood with a 42-yard field goal by Greg Davis on their opening possession, the Redskins responded with 41 unanswered points. Six Cardinal turnovers—five pass interceptions, one fumble—turned into 17 enemy points and squandered offensive opportunities. Seven of 10 Phoenix possessions ended by interception (5), fumble (1), or missed field goal (1). Three of those drives were thwarted at the Washington 12, 11, and 6 yard lines. Quarterback Timm Rosenbach, making his first start since week two against the Eagles, completed 19 of 34 passes for 262 yards but was intercepted four times.

▲Series Notes
The Redskins have won 30 of the last 36 games and hold a 58–32–1 advantage in the series dating back to 1937 ... last season's Phoenix win in the first meeting snapped a seven-game Washington series winning streak ... the Cardinals have dropped 14 consecutive decisions at R.F.K. Stadium, last winning there in 1978 (27–17) ... the Cardinals' first contest against Washington in 1988 was noteworthy as the 30–21 Phoenix win on September 25 provided the franchise its first home-field success in Arizona ... that victory also ended a seven-game Redskin series winning streak ... Washington has won eight of nine encounters since that time ... the last time the Cardinals swept both contests was 1974.

SUN DEVIL STADIUM

Sun Devil Stadium, home to Arizona State University football since 1958 and the Fiesta Bowl since 1971, added the National Football League to its glamorous past in 1988 when the Phoenix Cardinals also took residence in one of the nation's finest football facilities.

Literally carved from the desert, Sun Devil Stadium sits in a spectacular setting between two mountain buttes in Tempe, Arizona southeast of Phoenix.

Sun Devil Stadium sits dramatically between two buttes in Tempe, Arizona on the campus of Arizona State University.

Originally erected in 1958, Sun Devil Stadium has been expanded four times (1976, '77, '88, and '89). Capacity for NFL football in 1993 will be 73,377. Improvements costing over $21 million the past six years have made the facility a football showcase.

A newly-sodded field is the latest improvement for 1993.

A $1.67 million field renovation (lowering and widening), completed in June of 1992, was the most recent major upgrade. Besides providing significantly more sideline space, the project also changed the look of the stadium by removing the characteristic moats in favor of field-level walkways. Ninety thousand square feet of Tifway 419 sod, the same grass that adorns the Cardinals' state-of-the-art training facility, covers a unique layering support system that includes hot-water tubes designed to fool Mother Nature (delay dormancy) and promote growth during cooler months. Although approximately 1,300 seats were lost during the renovation, the project eliminated sight-line problems that had caused obstructed views from lower-row seats.

The bowl (south) end was connected three years ago by Arizona State's dramatic six-story Intercollegiate Athletic Complex building and an extension of loge-level seats. A state-of-the-art video replay scoreboard and locker rooms in the north end also were added. The color video replay system, situated in the southwest corner, offers fans instant replays of game action. A complementary matrix board for messages and statistical information sits in the southeast corner.

In 1989, $11.5 million was spent to construct a three-story, 60,000 square-foot building atop the upper deck on the west side containing two 30-suite levels and topped by a modern press box and eight additional private suites. Served by four industrial-sized elevators—one for the media and three for the public—the addition offers working space for 200 sportswriters, broadcast booths, booth space for statistical crews, coaches, public address personnel, security, scoreboard operations, and replay officials, and a rooftop camera deck in addition to suite seating for over 900 fans.

Sun Devil Stadium proved a most hospitable host to the Cardinals in the team's inaugural season in Arizona in 1988 when seven of the Cards' eight regular-season home games broke the club's previous single-game attendance record. The season total of 472,937 fans also easily eclipsed the Cardinal franchise's single-season home attendance mark.

The throng of 72,439 that witnessed the Cardinals battle the eventual Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys on November 22, 1992 stands as the franchise's single-game attendance record.

TRAINING FACILITY

Rising from a former cotton field in south Tempe is the Cardinals' training facility and corporate headquarters.

The Cardinals' award-winning training facility in south Tempe covers 14.7 acres and offers 94,000 square feet of space and three practice fields.

Covering 14.7 acres of land, the Cardinals' home since September of 1990 is a 94,000 square-foot state-of-the-art facility sporting desert building materials, and three and one-half acres of Southwestern (Sonoran) desert landscaping that leaves no doubt where the team proudly calls home.

Possessing many characteristics that distinguish it as both a football facility and an Arizona landmark, the showcase complex already has won architectural awards.

It incorporates local materials such as copper, desert brick, and clay tile, complemented by desert landscaping which integrate into the natural surroundings.

Environmentally sensitive, it utilizes passive solar energy to light offices and corridors while employing masonry and shadow to eliminate heat.

The interior joins many important concepts. Specificity of design is reflected in the workout areas on the first level where a number of planned activities can occur simultaneously. Facilities are situated along a logical traffic pattern to accommodate a progressive flow of activities.

The first floor consists of player facilities that include the training area, an auditorium, locker room, hydrotherapy (15-player in-floor sauna and cold plunge) and spa rooms, indoor/outdoor weight-training room, offensive and defensive meeting rooms, and film/videotape rooms open to three playing fields (one lighted) on nearly five acres of land.

The second floor comprises the administration and operations areas that include the coaching staff's offices. On the second and third floors, natural lighting and breezeways combine with advanced communications technology to create the most flexible office space possible. The integration of current electronic and construction technologies also makes the facility more economical to operate and easier to maintain.

The main building is flanked by a two-story attached building that includes a public area, the ticket office, and the public relations department that houses a media center featuring with custom-designed work carrels, private interview rooms, televisions, and a reference library. Another two-story building housing two handball courts completes the complex.

Tifway 419 sod, the same hybrid used for golf course putting greens, covers seven and one-half acres on the east side of the building and includes three laser-leveled side-by-side practice fields. Underneath lies a complex drainage system constructed with drainage tiles that accommodate as much as three inches of rain water that can be drained from all three fields, making the fields playable within three hours.

Furthermore, many details are invisible to the naked eye. The fields and team building are set at the same angle as Sun Devil Stadium, the Cards' home field at Arizona State University, allowing simulation of the position of the sun under game conditions.

The complex has earned numerous architectural and landscape awards since its construction.
